

WEATHER
Partly cloudy, with snow flurries in northeast portion tonight. Friday fair.

The Circleville Herald

A CONSOLIDATION OF THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and CIRCLEVILLE UNION-HERALD.

READ THE
CLASSIFIED ADS
DAILY

Thirty-Fourth Year, Number 55.

CIRCLEVILLE OHIO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1928.

Three Cents.

CIRCLING the CIRCLE

—Read and use The Circleville Herald classified ads.

—The worst smeller is usually the best seller.

—The "get" is the hardest part of the budget.

—When it comes to a probe Senator Borah is well named.

—Usually, when the husband begins producing, the wife begins reducing.

—When it is necessary to raise money, Europe always "sees America first."

—Oil eliminates friction, except in the machinery of international relations.

—The stockingless woman of today is probably the daughter of the barefoot boy of yesterday.

—They say Lindbergh does not smoke, chew, drink or go to parties. It is no wonder he can fly.

—Another warm spring rain in Circleville Wednesday afternoon. Anyone seen the first robin?

—The direct federal appropriation for co-operative extension service in 1926-27 was $1,640,568.

—There isn't any wild west any more, so just where is a young man supposed to go?

—A Miss Crook is a prohibition agent working out of Chicago. Now all the service needs is a Mr. Hook.

—Science can predict an eclipse of the sun over a period of several years in advance, but cannot predict a blowout over the week-end.

—The best way to grow seedlings is in a greenhouse, with ample cold frames for transplanting and hardening off.

—Again we ask, what has become of Circleville's boulevard light proposition? Let's light up the city. This isn't a village.

—During 1927 the American Guernsey Cattle Club officially approved the records of 2048 Guernsey cows.

—Spreading lime in the winter, Wisconsin farmers have found, "rushes the season" when growing weather starts, and also lightens the well-known spring rush of work.

—Members of the Carroll County Farm Bureau received rebates in January totalling $818.52, on feed and fertilizer purchased through the Bureau from July, 1927, to Jan. 1928.

—Do you get a laugh out of "Just Kids"? Cream puffs, not scrim puffs? That's human. And there's a lot of good advice. We'll bet if you have children they're wild about it.

—The Herald is in receipt of the Los Angeles, Cal., Daily Times, sent by Charles H. Niles, who is wintering in California. The edition carries 36 pages and is brim full of telegraphic news.

—Do you have a room for rent? A house for sale? Or want to buy something? Or sell something? If so, telephone 782 and give your classified ad to The Circleville Herald. These little ads just cost a cent a word and you can tell your story for a quarter.

—The dominant desire of the American woman is to be thin without exercising or dieting. The dominant desire of the American man is to learn to play the saxophone or the Hawaiian guitar in six easy lessons by mail.—Elmer Davis.

—A tree limb struck Fannie Broyles, a Virginia girl on the head. She was unable to move or speak. Picked up for dead she was prepared for burial. All night before the day of the funeral she lay in her coffin conscious, but unable to speak or to signal those who believed her dead. Then she listened to her own funeral sermon preached over her coffin. At the last moment her brother, James, who stood by with other mourning relatives, noticed a twitching of his sister's eyelids. Efforts to revive the girl were begun. In a short time she could talk, and, under a physician's care, is now declared to have fully recovered. Had the body been embalmed there would have been no fear of burial alive, as that process makes death certain.

FLINT'S DEFENSE WILL REST ON ALIBI

Jury To Decide Fate of William Hickman Today

QUICK VERDICT IS ANTICIPATED IN NOTED CASE

Defense Counsel Will Demand New Trial If Child Slayer Is Found to Be Sane.

By ARTHUR MAREK
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
LOS ANGELES, Calif. Feb. 9.—The fate of William Edward Hickman will be placed today in the hands of four women and eight men who must decide whether he was sane or crazy when he stole and slew 12-year-old Marion Parker.

The trial of Hickman which has developed into an insanity hearing neared its close today as opposing counsel prepared their final arguments.

Defense counsel, Richard Cantillon, was ready to finish his address to the jury when the trial is resumed.

Instructions Prepared
He was to be followed by District Attorney Asa Keyes who will close for the prosecution.

Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco was reported to have prepared his instructions to the jury.

With less than three hours remaining for the arguments, the case was expected to be given to the jury early this afternoon.

Expect Verdict Soon
Court attaches predicted a speedy verdict.

Jerome Walsh, chief defense counsel, has indicated he will demand a second trial for Hickman if the jury finds he was sane and responsible for his crime.

The new trial will be sought, Walsh explained, on the grounds Hickman is now sane.

MRS. HUDSON DIES AT RESIDENCE HERE

Aged Colored Woman Highly Respected in City—Funeral Will Be Saturday.

Dolly Patton Hudson, widow of Noah G. Hudson, died at her home at 221 East Mound street, at 2 o'clock Thursday morning.

She was born in Huntsville, Alabama, in 1859, the daughter of Alexander and Caroline White Patton. She is survived by two sons and two daughters, Guy Hudson, of Springfield; Emma Hudson, of St. Louis, Mo., and Robert and Margie Hudson, of Cleveland.

Of her immediate family, a brother and two sisters survive. They are James Patton, of Cleveland and Mrs. Emma Lee of Cleveland, and Mrs. Maggie Toles, of this city.

Mrs. Hudson was one of the members of a pioneer colored family that came to this city years ago. She was a woman who was well thought of by her associates and was respected by those who knew her.

The funeral services will be held from the church of which she was a member, the African Methodist church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Cotton will officiate. Interment will be in Forest cemetery in charge of Mader and Ebert.

DEATH CALLS AGED LANCASTER WIDOW

Mrs. Sarah Baker, 77, died Wednesday morning at 1:45 o'clock at her home, 1183 North Columbus street, Lancaster. The deceased was the widow of William M. Baker.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Omer E. Neff, of the home, one sister, Mrs. Caroline Valentine, of Stoutsville; two brothers, Louis F. Crites and W. T. Crites, also of Stoutsville; also two grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the home in Lancaster with Rev. Scheely of Stoutsville, assisted by Rev. Harberty of the Grace Reformed church officiating. Interment will be in Forest Rose cemetery.

Slain Girl's Teacher

Naomi Britton, one of Marian Parker's school teachers, takes the stand in Los Angeles to testify against William Edward Hickman during his trial for the murder of the little girl.

SUSPECT SAYS HE KILLED HIS SISTER-IN-LAW

Confesses Slaying Occurred After Attack—Body Was Thrown in River.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—William Herron, 41, confessed slayer of his 23-year-old sister-in-law, Viola May, was under heavy guard today while authorities continued dragging the Tuscarawas River in an effort to find the girl's body.

Herron admitted choking the girl to death when she resisted his advances, according to County Prosecutor James Patrick. He then drove to a bridge spanning the river at Dover, and dropped the girl's body into the water.

Told of Kidnaping
The murder occurred Tuesday night, Herron appeared at the John Henig farm near here at 2 a. m., yesterday and told how two armed men had attacked him and kidnaped the girl. Conflicting details developed in his story during the day and after intensive questioning he broke down and confessed, Patrick said.

Miss May and a girl friend, Evelyn Fretz, visited the former's sister (also Herron's wife) Tuesday night. The attack on Miss May occurred after Herron had driven Miss Fretz to her home and was enroute home with Miss May.

Attempts Attack
Herron said he drove to a gravel pit on the Dover-Canton highway and parked. He then attempted to attack the girl, and a violent quarrel ensued, according to Patrick. Apparently enraged, Herron choked the girl, then drove to the Dover bridge where he dropped the body into the river.

"I choked her," Patrick said Herron declared. "I guess I choked her too long."

The Sheriff's office was called after Herron showed up at the Henig farm. His automobile was found abandoned. Buttons from Miss May's coat, a ragged piece of her skirt, and her glasses, the lenses broken, were found in the bottom of the machine. Herron's story of the supposed kidnaping, followed.

SHIP SINKS; 10 DIE
AMSTERDAM, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Ten members of the crew of the Dutch governmental sailboat Zee-meuw were drowned and thirty were saved when the vessel foundered near Soerabaya, according to a message received here today from Java.

"RICHEST MAN" PROBABLY TO TELL OF DEALS

Senate Desires to Know Magistrate's Opinion of Stew- art's Transactions

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—John D. Rockefeller Jr., was subpoenaed today by the Senate Public Lands committee to appear as a witness Saturday in the new Teapot Dome inquiry.

The United States marshal at New York City was asked to serve the subpoena on the so-called "richest man in the world."

Rockefeller will be called to tell what he knows about the Continental Trading company's mysterious $50,000,000 oil deal and its even more mysterious $3,080,000 liberty bond "slush fund." Rockefeller is not expected to divulge any new information but the committee was convinced that he ought to be put on the witness stand to prove that the largest stockholders in the oil companies involved knew little or nothing about the mysterious deals.

Chairman of Board
Rockefeller came into the picture because he is chairman of the board of trustees of the Rockefeller foundation, which virtually owns the Standard Oil company of Indiana. The latter concern in turn owned half of the Sinclair crude oil company, which bought fifty per cent of the oil from the Continental at $1.75 a barrel, which bought it the same day for $1.50 a barrel from A. E. Humphreys, Texas oil man. The Continental made $3,080,000 on the deal.

Two motives prompted the senate public lands committee to summon Rockefeller as a witness. First, some senators wanted him called to prove that the committee was "playing no favorites." Second, other senators felt he should take witness stand to show that Rockefeller did not approve of the action of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the Standard of Indiana, when the latter defied the committee.

HONOR IS PAID TO CIRCLEVILLE YOUTH

Grover C. Moore, a Circleville boy, who entered the Logan Gas Company's service at Elyria, O., last August, has been signally honored by Congressmen Mell Underwood of the Eleventh Ohio District, with an unexpected and unsolicited appointment as cadet in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Owing to slightly impaired vision, however, he has decided not to take the examination for admittance.

Grover graduated from the Circleville high school last year, and had the unusual honor of having been Class President for four years. Since being orphaned when a mere baby by his parents' death, he has lived with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Heiskell, of 335 East Union street.

In Bribery Case

Eighteen months in prison and a fine of $5,000 was the sentence meted out to Thomas W. Miller of Wilmington, Del., former alien property custodian, in New York, when he was found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government by accepting bribes.

SEEKING JURY FOR TRIAL OF GOV. JACKSON

Talesmen From First Special Venire Summoned in Bribery Prosecution.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 9.—With eight of their ten peremptory challenges remaining for both state and defense, selection of a jury in the trial of Governor Ed. Jackson was believed to be still many hours away as the court session opened today.

Talesmen from the first special venire were called to fill the holes in the regular court panel that came into existence during the first day of Jackson's trial for alleged attempted bribery of former Governor Warren T. McCray.

The members of the tentative jury, which included seven of the original panel, spent the night at the hotel Washington, after being admonished by special Judge Charles M. McCabe to keep silent about the case and to allow no one to talk to them concerning the issues involved.

BUCKLEY OPPOSES GAS TAX RAISE

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—The present three-cent gas tax will net the state $25,000,000 this year, State Treasurer Buckley said today, declaring he would fight more to increase the tax from three to five cents.

Rumors were circulated in Youngstown Buckley said that a movement to boost the tax was underway.

CUBA IGNORING DIPLOMATS TO HONOR LINDY

Tremendous Welcome Is Given Aviator on His Arrival At Havana.

HAVANA, Feb. 9.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will make a non-stop flight from Havana to St. Louis Monday.

He planned to take off at dawn on the trip which will be about 1200 miles. The Spirit of St. Louis will be gone over thoroughly before the long flight.

HAVANA, Feb. 9.—(INS)—A great international conference between the Republic of North, Central and South America may be going on here today but Havana and, indeed, the whole island of Cuba had eyes only for one man—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

The flush of Havana's magnificent welcome to the flying colonel has not worn off an iota and today everyone from the Cuban citizens to the officials and their own and sister governments rushed to do honor to the "Caballero Del Aire" and to gather in cheering crowds wherever it was reported Col. Lindbergh might be seen.

To Attend Ball
At noon today Col. Lindbergh was to be honored at a luncheon given by the officers of the Cuban army at Camp Columbia. Later he was to go to a ball at the Yacht club at which most of the delegates to the Pan-American congress will be present.

The newspapers today were filled with Col. Lindbergh's doings and printed editorials on his achievements as an emissary of good will.

The general city-wide reception to Col. Lindbergh as he dropped from the sky yesterday afternoon after completing his flight from Haiti in perfect time was something which will be remembered by every Cuban.

As the Spirit of St. Louis was sighted from the historic Morro Castle, the last stronghold of old Spain, sirens screamed, whistles shrieked and the horns of automobiles and the bells of street cars filled the air.

After the reception at the field, a motor procession was formed to escort Col. Lindbergh to the presidential palace where President Machado greeted him officially in his greeting. President Machado included one for Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, the aviator's mother.

CAPACITY HOUSE SEES LODGE SHOW

A capacity house witnessed the presentation Wednesday night at the Grand theater of "Deacon Dubbs," a rural comedy, by a highly capable cast from Eastwood lodge, Uniform Rank, K. of P., of Columbus. The audience was well pleased with the play.

Nearly 100 will go into the treasury of Philo lodge, K. of P., for the benefit of which the play was given.

More than 50 members of the Columbus lodge came to Circleville for the play. This number included the members of the cast and 35 band members. The band gave a brief concert and had a short parade on Court street preceding the show. Music for the entertainment was provided by a 12 piece orchestra.

SAMPSON FINED ON GUILTY PLEA

Clyde Sampson, who was recently arrested on the charge of having intoxicated liquor in his possession, was arraigned before Judge Joseph W. Adkins in probate court Wednesday and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $150 and costs, which he paid and was released.

Kresge Divorce Near

Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge has completed her litigation against her husband, Sebastian S. Kresge, chain store operator. The divorce battle started in Michigan and is now terminating in New York, with all indications pointing to a decree for the wife.

FRENCH FLYERS GIVEN TRIBUTE IN WASHINGTON

Daring Airmen Entertained by National Leaders After 20,000 Mile Trip.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The Capital was under two flags today as official and diplomatic circles repaid to flying sons of France the reception accorded Colonel Lindbergh in Paris last summer.

Lieutenant Dieudonne Costes, of the French army, and Lieutenant Commander Joseph Lebrun, of the French army, who arrived from their native country by way of South Africa, South America, Central America and Mexico, were the center of colorful receptions today as their sturdy monoplane, "The Nungesser-Coli" was being conditioned at Bolling Field for their hop to New York.

The airmen had flown approximately 20,000 miles over four continents since they left Paris last October.

Feted by diplomatic and military groups at the French Embassy last night following their arrival at the army field shortly after four o'clock, the aviators were guests today of aviation circles and the general public, two cabinet members, the acting Secretary of State and a host of high-ranking military and naval officials made up the colorful and enthusiastic throng which hailed the flyers upon their arrival.

Following their presentation to President Coolidge at the White House this morning by Ambassador Claudel, they will be guests at a hotel luncheon given by the "Air Cabinet," composed of the three aviation Secretaries of the War, Navy and Commerce Departments.

PIERCE CHILD IS MAKING RECOVERY

Mrs. Bryan Pierce visited her daughter, Mary Elizabeth, at Mt. Carmel hospital in Columbus Thursday. The little girl, who is undergoing treatment for her leg is now wearing a brace and is able to walk without support.

KILLED BY TRACTION

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—James T. Cross, 70, building contractor, was fatally injured at Reynoldsburg, near here last night when he backed his automobile into the path of a traction car.

LAWYER SAYS ACCUSED WAS NOT AT SCENE

Prisoner Was in Circleville at Time of Shooting, Trial Jury Is Told.

Not guilty because of the fact that he was not present at the scene or at the time of the fatal shooting of John Henry Hill will be the sole defense of James Flint, alias Walter Brown, who is on trial in the Pickaway county common pleas court on an indictment charging him with first degree murder in connection with the death of the former railroad laborer.

This defense came more or less as a surprise to a crowded court room late Wednesday afternoon when the state and the defense attorneys made their statement to the jury which was empaneled at 4:15 o'clock.

The jury was finally completed after three days' work, during which 102 prospective jurors were examined. The last juror to qualify was W. B. Cady.

Members of Jury.

The jury which will decide the fate of the colored defendant is composed of P. L. Johnson, George Presler, Mrs. Anna Ball, Mrs. Ed McClaren, Miss Mary Marfield, Mrs. F. B. Brunner, George Hindrod, Cecil Biggs, F. A. Cryder, Mrs. Jennie Swower, Mrs. Clara Tedrick and Mr. Cady. The jury is evenly divided between men and women, there being six of each.

In his statement to the jury of what the state expects to prove in gaining a guilty verdict under the indictment, Prosecutor E. A. Brown outlined his version of the circumstances which lead up to and precipitated the slaying.

James Flint, he said, was a foreman in a Chesapeake and Hocking railroad construction gang and with John Henry Hill and other employees of the company lived at a camp at Bell's siding.

Loaned Flint Money.

Work on that section of the road was completed and on Nov. 14, 1927, the men were discharged and paid off. A number of the men, Hill included, came to Circleville to cash their checks preparatory to going toward Chillicothe to obtain work on another section of the construction project.

Flint, according to the prosecutor, had loaned money to Hill and when the latter came to Circleville he was followed by Flint. The state will endeavor to show by the evidence that Flint asked for Hill and other men, saying that if he was not paid what was due him they would be killed.

According to the state's claim, Hill and three companions left Circleville and went to the crossing south of the city where the C. and O. crosses the Pennsylvania railroad. There they built a camp fire while waiting for a freight train which they could board and ride south.

Struck, Then Shot.

About 10 p. m., the state says, Flint came down the railroad track to the fire and approached Hill, who was kneeling on the ground. The prosecution will endeavor to show that Flint asked Hill for his money, then struck him and when Hill endeavored to rise, took a .32 calibre revolver and pulled the trigger four times.

Twice, the prosecutor asserts, the gun missed fire, but the next two times it was discharged, the (Concluded on Page Eight)

AD FABLES

PREDICTS REED TO BE NOMINEE OF HIS PARTY

Former Governor of Missouri Says Senator Has Created And Defined Issues.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 9.—(INS)—Although prohibition "will not be a burning issue" at the Democratic national convention in Houston, the Democratic party should oppose "employment of government snoopers and spies." This was the opinion expressed to International News Service today by former Governor Frederick D. Gardner of Missouri.

Chosen as the spokesman of his party to launch formally the candidacy of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri for the presidency, the war-time governor of Missouri believes that Senator Reed "who has created and defined issues between the parties" will be the compromise candidate upon whom the Democrats eventually will agree.

The Reed candidacy, former Governor Gardner said, will be launched when the Missouri Democrats meet in state convention at St. Joseph, Mo., on Feb. 28.

"Senator Reed has been the outstanding figure in the senate for the past three years," Gardner declared in an interview here today.

"No one candidate can at once command the two-thirds majority necessary for the nomination. I believe all the candidates ultimately will unite on Senator Reed."

Stoutsville

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glick and family, of Logan, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Courtright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leist and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Swank had for their guests Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rife.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hampp and little daughter, Ruth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hampp and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stein and daughter, of Circleville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stein, Thursday night and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hitchcock and family, of Circleville, visited with Miss Alice Baird, and Mr. Hitchcock attended the K. of P. lodge, Friday evening.

Class No. 9 of the Lutheran Sunday school, will hold their monthly meeting Friday evening, Feb. 10, on account of the Indian banquet, Thursday, the meeting will be held at Mrs. Russell Creager's. Don't forget the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Winn entertained with a birthday party, Wednesday, Feb. 1, in honor of their daughter, Evelyn. Those present were: Miss Violet Chester, Catherine Leist, Elva Boyer, Mary Boyer, Pauline Winn, Donald Leist, Howard Leist, Robert Leist, Ray Leist, Clyde Leist, Jr., Robert Goodchild, Earnest Young, Delvin Smith, Paul Winn, Harvey Winn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crites and son, Sonny, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Owens, Miss M. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Stout. The evening was spent in playing games, and all departed at a late hour, wishing Miss Evelyn many more happy birthdays.

Miss Helen Rife was the guest of Miss Florence Hoffman, last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Paul Kull and daughter, Lois Ann, of Columbus, were the guests of Miss Alice Baird from Friday until Sunday. Mr. Paul Kull arrived Saturday eve, and his wife accompanied him home Sunday evening.

Miss Genevieve Valentine spent last Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rife.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crites were Circleville visitors Saturday evening.

Miss Altha Warner, of Lancaster, O., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Warner, over the week-end.

Pythian Sisters had a fine crowd at Lodge meeting last Wednesday evening. After the business meeting, apples and freshly popped corn were served by Sister Helen Rife and Sarah Stein, which all declared to enjoy very much. A social hour was spent in games. All departed at a late hour.

Mr. John Hitt, of Circleville, was a business visitor in our city, Tuesday afternoon.

Speeds Up

Stenographers desiring to increase their speed in shorthand find that taking down radio sermons or talks is a good way to do it.

VIRGINIA WHITE ASH LUMP

$4.75 per ton on yard and $5.25 delivered.

N. T. WELDON KOAL CO.

DEAD ANIMALS REMOVED

Phone 1364.

Reverse the Call

Circleville Fertilizer Works

1-5-11.

MAJ. H. C. DAVIDSON

Maj. Howard C. Davidson, one of the pioneer flyers of the army air service, has been named to the important post of commandant of Bolling field, Washington, to succeed Maj. Harvey S. Burwell. Major Davidson was born in Texas thirty-seven years ago and is a graduate of the United States Military academy class of 1913.

Famous Relic of Past

The Circus of Romulus of Maximus, built in 311 A. D., is the most perfect circus surviving. It is 1,580 feet long and 200 feet wide. The outer wall remains almost complete, and the central spina, 302 feet long, can be traced throughout. At the west end, between two towers, are the chief entrance and 12 pens (arcades) for competing chariots; the east end is semi-circular.

Beauty of Single Column

For thousands of years the world's famous architects and designers have found nothing so beautiful and worthy in building as the simple, classical column. The beauty of these fluted columns has been made available for use on every kind of structure, from the modest cottage to large public buildings, by the principle of pressed steel column construction.

The Solemnest Man

Even in church, where competition is serious, he was easily the most solemn member of the congregation.—Woman's Home Companion.

Letters To the Editor

Investigate Roofing

Editor, The Circleville Herald:—For several years the property owners of Circleville and Pickaway county have been solicited by out of town salesmen getting contracts for re-roofing their property. It has been the policy of these transient roofing solicitors to give the owners many years guarantee on the material, but when an investigation was made they have found these guarantees to be worthless. A guarantee is only good when backed by the actual cash or by some on whom you know and whose word is his guarantee. Since not many property owners know the price of roofing materials or the number of squares in the roof, these men were able to get some of this work but upon checking them up, it was found, the owner paid for much more material than he received.

A quality roof, properly installed, should last many years, but since these men were not established in business, in Circleville, their guarantee, which had legal flaws, would be of no value to the property owners. Should the roof prove defective, which was often the case, the owner would be unable to locate the man who did the work and could get no adjustment.

If any property owner should be solicited for this work or contemplate having roofing work done it would be to their advantage to phone a local dealer for an estimate. These men carry quality roofing, will be glad to give an estimate on the complete cost, and are established in business to fulfill their guarantee. This will assure the property owner of getting his roofing at a just price.

Turkish Coffee

In order to make coffee as served in Turkey only the darker grades of coffee, such as pure mocha, should be used. The coffee is made much stronger than in the United States, about one large cupful of coffee to three cupfuls of water being the formula. The coffee is placed directly in the water and the whole brought to a boil. It is then sweetened to the consistency of sirup, but no cream is put in it.

Star's Changing Names

Venus was called Lucifer by the ancients when it was a morning star and Hesperus when an evening star.

backed by a reliable dealer in this community.

A Reader.

Editor, The Circleville Herald:—Companionate Marriage A hundred years hence, At our present pace, The things that's sinful now, Will cease to be disgraceful; Companionate marriage then, Antiquated and old, A substitute will thus appear, More modern, vain and bold.

We'll cease to have a marriage vow, Or any rites at all, Perhaps, we'll cease to have a home,

But make companionate calls; Admit out object then, Without a blushing face, Thus we'll say the modern way, Perpetuate the race.

The female sex will then give birth,

Without the slightest pain, The child that's born unto them, Will bear its mother's name; Thus a father we have known, In ancient days we lived, Has 'nt the slightest meaning now, We know not who he is.

No advocates of birth control, No attempt at limitation, There'll be a cry to save the race, From swift extermination; The intercourse thus brought about,

With passions running wild, The daughter God, intend you love, May bring you forth a child.

Science has taught us many times Ere this way begin, Infusion of blood by marriage state,

Would give us weaker men; Heeding not the warning then, But seeking now redress, We admit the ancient marriage rite, And view our retrogress.

Conspicuous now, we behold, Born, to women Sons, Deformed and doomed to misery here,

Ere this life is done; Thus we haste a long retreat, And ask our sins forgiven, And the God we scorned upon our way,

To write our names in heaven. Harlan C. Allen, Ashland, Kentucky.

DR. J. R. DEVEREUX

Dr. John Ryan Devereux of Chevy Chase, Md., has been appointed medical director for the Catholic Near East Welfare association. He will have his headquarters in the Balkans.

Hawk Bests Lineman

While working in a tower on power lines near Sausalito, Calif., an electric company lineman saw a bird's nest and he shoved it over with his hand. A hawk flew out and attacked the man so violently that he fell from the tower. He was taken to the hospital with a broken leg, two fractured ribs and some bruises.

Detects Thunderstorms

A radio device has been perfected to give notice of approaching thunderstorms. A detector starts ringing a bell at intervals when a storm is still 200 miles away. When the storm is only half an hour distant, though the sky may still be clear, the bell rings continuously.

Babies Love It

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infants' and Children's Laxative.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SYRUP

Saltcreek Valley

Charles Wilson is in Pittsburgh this week, having gone with a car load of lambs, of his own feeding. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mowery, Herman, Curtis, Cernice and Helen Hinton, and Nelson Hall were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Waliser.

Mr. and Mrs. William Aldenderfer were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Butterbaugh, of the Sixteenth section.

The Dresbach U. B. Aid met at the home of Mrs. O. S. Mowery, Thursday.

The Lutheran Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. George W. Strouse, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ona Waliser has been on the sick list the past week, but is some better at this time.

The Spelling Match given at the Tarlton Community Hall, last Saturday evening by the ladies of the M. E. Aid, was a decided success.

E. F. Strous was champion speller.

Quite a number from here attended the Comedy-Drama, "Deacon Dubbs," given at the Grand Opera House, Circleville, Wednesday eve.

Lecturer H. N. Grice is making preparations to put on an extra good program at the next Grange meeting.

Great Day in History

"The Crisis," a pamphlet written by Thomas Paine, which profoundly affected public opinion in the American colonies early in the American Revolution, was placed on sale in Philadelphia book shops December 19, 1776.

Ancient Doxology

"Gloria in Excelsis" is one of the oldest Christian doxologies, eastern in origin and in use for more than 1,500 years.

Fairy Story

Once a man ordered a fresh fruit salad in a Broadway night club, and what the waiter brought, surrounded by two dollars' worth of ice, did not comprise two canned pears, one canned peach, two slices of canned pineapple, three slightly under grapes (fresh), and a maraschino cherry.

Feen-a-mint
The Laxative
You Chew
Like Gum

No Taste
But the Mint

69c DAYS

Three Big Days--Friday, February 10
Saturday, February 11 and
Monday, February 13

WONDERFUL VALUES OFFERED FOR THESE THREE DAYS ONLY.
GET YOUR SHARE OF THESE REAL BARGAINS.

69c DAYS

27-in. Bleached Outing Flannel, good medium weight, 17½¢ grade, 3 days' special, 6 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Plain Hem, Bleached Pillow Cases, 36x42 size, 29¢ value, 3 days' special, 3 for 69c

69c DAYS

Bordens Fast Color Prints yard wide, 29¢ grade, new patterns, 3 days' special, 3 yds. for. . . 69c

69c DAYS

32-inch Dress Gingham, a good 18¢ value, check and plaid patterns, 3 days' special, 5 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Comfort Challies, full yard wide, fast colors, our 19¢ grade, 3 days' special, 5 yds. for 69c

69c DAYS

Yard Wide Poreline in dark colors and print patterns, new selection of patterns, 3 days' special, 4 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

39-inch wide Unbleached Muslin, a regular 15¢ grade, soft finish, 3 days' special, 6 yds. or . . . 69c

69c DAYS

Black Sateen, full yard wide, soft finish, 29¢ grade, 3 days' special, 3 yards or 69c

69c DAYS

Dimit Underwear, check pattern, all light shades, yard wide, 25¢ grade, 3 days' special, 4 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Hope Bleached Muslin, worth 18¢ a yard, 3 days' special, 5 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Pink, Blue and Yellow Border Bath Towels, 18x36 in., 3 days' special, 5 towels for 69c

69c DAYS

Fast Color Fashions, new spring patterns, 45¢ grade, 3 days' special, 2 yards or 69c

69c DAYS

Eerie Net Panel Curtains, with silk fringe, square mesh, 95¢ value, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot odd Panels and odd Pairs of Ruffled Curtains, slightly soiled, 95¢ to $1.50 grades, 3 days' special . . . 69c

69c DAYS

All our 50¢ Boxed Letter Paper and Envelopes, white and colors, 3 days' special, 2 boxes for. 69c

69c DAYS

Women's Fine Lisle Hose, in tan, grey, champagne, black or brown, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for. . . 69c

69c DAYS

Women's House Dresses and Aprons, closed with belt and Hoover style, 95¢ grades, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot Women's Navy Blue and Brown Stripe Sateen Bloomers, our 89¢ grade, 3 days' special, a pair for 69c

69c DAYS

Figured Crash, fast colors, for covering furniture, etc., 30 inches wide, 48¢ value, 3 days' special, 2 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Peter Pan Plain Color Gingham, fast colors, sells regularly for 59¢ yard, 3 days' special, 1½ yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Yard wide Figured, Plain Color Madras Draperies, 85¢ to 98¢ grades, 3 days' special, a yard 69c

69c DAYS

Children's 50¢ grade Scout Hose, black only, sizes 6, 6½, 7, 7½ and 8, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

12-M. All Silk Pongee, 32 inches wide, fine for underwear or draperies, 3 days' special, 1½ yards for . . . 69c

69c DAYS

Men's 50¢ grade Plaid Silk Sox, wonderful values, big assortment of patterns, 3 days' special, 2 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Plain Blue Amoskeag, Chambray, triple stitched, two pocket, work shirts, 3 days' special each 69c

69c DAYS

Boys' Coveralls, assorted styles and colors, sizes 7 and 8 only, extra values, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Mixed Work Socks, regular 12½¢ grade, 3 days' special, 8 pairs or 69c

69c DAYS

All Men's and Boys' Cloth, Corduroy or Plush 98¢ Winter Caps, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Extra Heavy Blue All Wool Yarn Socks, 48¢ grade, 3 days' special, 2 pairs or 69c

69c DAYS

56-in. square Oilcloth Table Covers, in blue and white patterns, 85¢ grade, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot Men's Dress Shirts, with or without collars, 98¢ grade, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Rayon Silk Plaid Socks, 29¢ values, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Mens' Gauntlet Style Canvas Gloves with Leather Palms, 3 days' special 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Sans Sanitary Napkins, one dozen in a box, 50¢ value, 3 days' special, 2 boxes for 69c

69c DAYS

4-inch Blue and White Block Pattern, 4 yards wide Linoleum, 3 days' special, sq. yd. . . . 69c

Werrenrath, Concert Star, Finds Lucky Strikes Kindly To His Precious Voice

"In my concert work, I must, of course, give first consideration to my voice. Naturally, I am very careful about my choice of cigarettes as I must have the blend which is kindly to my throat. I smoke Lucky Strikes, finding that they meet my most critical requirements."

Ronald Werrenrath

"The Cream of the Tobacco Crop" for Lucky Strikes says Tobacco Factory Man

"I am a factory man. I know the manufacture of Tobacco. I have been engaged in it for 45 years. If the public realized, as I realize, what 'Toasting' does to Tobacco, how it takes out every bit of harshness and every bit of bite, there would not be any Cigarette smoked in the United States, but LUCKY STRIKE."

James W. Fadden

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation-No Cough.

WILDER'S CASH STORE

West Main Street

DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE FOR EVERYBODY

Watch the Children Unfold in First Five Years of Life

FACULTIES DEVELOP WITH THE SENSES

Babies First Depend Upon Sense of Touch, Then Pass Swiftly to Use of All Other Instruments of the Brain.

By DR. LOUIS E. BISCH

THE more we learn about the development of children as regards mental and emotional processes, the more do we become convinced that the first five years are the most important of the entire life cycle.

The thoughts, feelings and experiences that children undergo in these early days have a marked influence upon their character later on.

It is interesting to enumerate some early developments.

Touch sensation is extremely marked at birth. This safeguards nutrition and the child's well being. If babies did not prefer to stimulate the mouth to any other part of the body they would probably starve to death.

Later we see a persistence of the pleasure derived from mouth stimulation in the habit children have of pushing everything they can into the mouth.

Although it is an annoying and also a dangerous habit from a health standpoint, it nevertheless is perfectly natural.

At about six months, tactile sensibility of the hands increases, and this may also persist. Children, we all know, are forever picking up things they shouldn't.

At about six months, also, children begin to perform voluntary muscular movements, while before they merely responded to stimuli in a purely reflex fashion. This is when imitation begins in movements and sounds.

A little later, we notice the earliest beginnings of reasoning. Children then begin repeating what has proved a source of pleasure to them.

What they did not enjoy they do not repeat.

They also begin to understand the use of objects, that a spoon helps eating, etc.

Then the play instinct comes to the fore.

By the end of the second year the child has passed through many experiences that have refined and made more perfect the motor movements. Creeping, climbing, walking and talking have developed apace.

In the first year co-ordination of movement is very marked.

The first fifty words learned are the hardest. After that it is not unusual for a child to increase its vocabulary at the rate of from 20 to 100 words per month.

From four to five years is the period of most rapid physical growth. The growth is more rapid in Summer than in Winter. The height increases most rapidly in Spring and in Summer. Weight shows the greatest increase in the Fall of the year.

When the child is five years old the brain has already attained about 90 per cent of its size. Toward the end of the fifth year children are very active and they like to quarrel and have clashes with other children, also to disobey the parents.

The mind is developing rapidly now. Children are about this time continually asking questions and wanting to know "why." The child begins to talk in sentences and to carry on a conversation. They also like to draw and scribble.

At about the fourth year an interest develops in stories. Often, too, they make up stories and delight in telling them.

Almost all the important activities start during these first five years, you see.

A big job the child has on his hands. We must bear that in mind and be patient.

Childhood is anything but an easy time.

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Some Odd Facts

Granite landmarks, numbering 240, stretch from the Swiss frontier to the southeast of Belgium, indicating the limit of the enemy advance in the war.

In France it is necessary to obtain Government permission to cut down one's own trees.

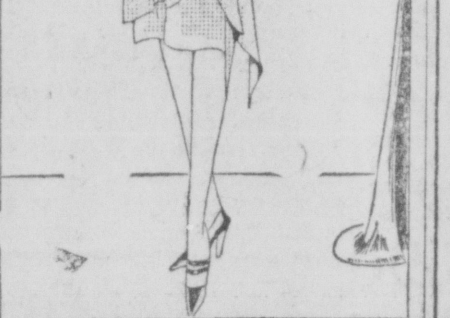

China has the largest coal area in the world, 300,000 square miles.

More fruit is being eaten in England than ever before. Each one of the population consumes on an average 33 apples, 67 oranges, 52 lemons, and 15 lemons a year.

With a brilliant, green hood, blue leather upholstery, and a body painted in red-and-gold stripes, the new car has been built in England for the Emir of Kano, a Nigerian chief.

Today's Fashion

By Vera Winston

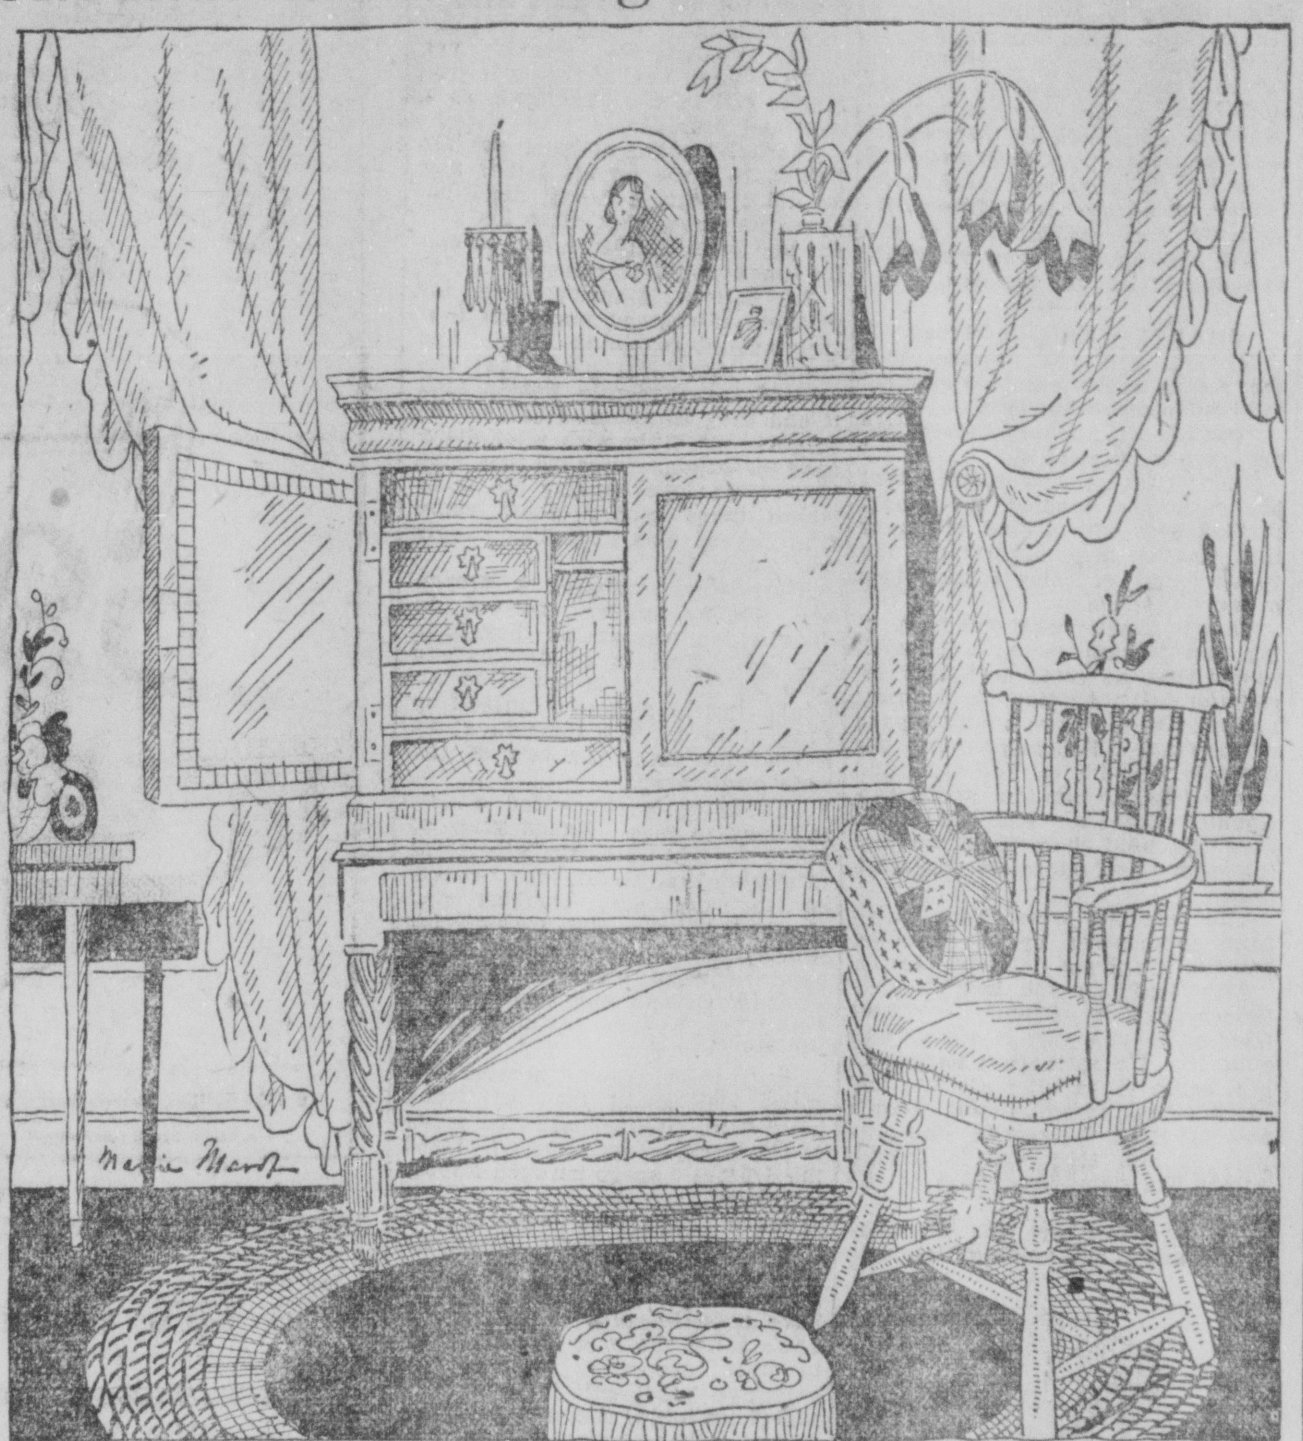

Beige Satin and Pearls Give Lustrous Effect.

HEAVY rose beige satin and a single pearl ornament are employed to great advantage in this afternoon frock. Skillfully draped, it is excellent for the woman who wishes to conceal just the slightest suspicion of plumpness and to add height to her stature. It is distinctly not a "flapper" mode, but has cool, and calm, and dignified poise.

A short strand of pearls and pearl earrings add just the right lustrous note.

An Individual Living-Room -:- By Marie Marot

A ROOM should express your own individuality and personality. It is, then, much more livable and one is not likely to tire of it soon. There are some people who can achieve this effect with very little expenditure of money. It requires, of course, time, patience, and an artistic sense of the fitness of things. The living room here shown certainly expresses the personality of the individual responsible for it. It has charm, comfort and a few artistic touches which brighten up the room. The two outstanding pieces of furniture are the lovely cabinet of oak after the close of the Seventeenth Century and the "comb back" Windsor chair. These are genuine antique articles and add distinction to this charming room.

FONDLING OF PETS • NOT GOOD PRACTICE

Unwise to Permit Children to Take Cats or Dogs to Bed with Them or to Kiss Animals.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

A CITIZEN of New Hampshire is disturbed about the practice of permitting children to take their pet cats and dogs to bed with them. He thinks it is detrimental to health to permit animals to share the room and bed of young children. He was shocked recently to see a child kissing a dog on its mouth.

I am with you, dear friend. It isn't wise or safe to make bedfellows of pet animals. It is disgusting for children to shower kisses upon the faces of animals.

There is a popular idea that a cat can "suck the air" of a child and cause its death. I don't believe this, but it is a fact, of course, that an animal close to the face can help to exhaust the air. It can rob the child of a lot of precious oxygen.

All pets are looked upon with suspicion as possible carriers of diseases. In its spare time a cat or dog wanders far from home and may bring back germs or pests which are dangerous.

One trouble with all animal pets is the possibility of their doing harm in moments of anger. The latent ferocity of the beast must not be overlooked. But it is not alone the angry outbursts of the animal that is to be feared. Some big dogs and cats, even in playful spirit, may inflict serious injury to a child.

The human eye is a very delicate, as well as vitally important organ. It has remarkable power of resistance against accident and disease. In spite of this, however, a tiny scratch may be infected and produce results which end in loss of sight.

A friendly cat or dog may use its paw in such a way as to permit the claw to strike the eyeball. Then there may be serious secondary effects.

I love animals and it would make me feel sad if two dogs at my farm had to be destroyed because of any menace they might offer. But much as I love them, I realize how necessary it is to keep them more or less at arm's length. It is hard to do this when in their joy they come at me in a cyclonic greeting.

Not only will they be worn with the dress and hat costume, but they will form an important part of the coat. Although belonging to the coat, they may be detached and the coat may be worn with frocks as well.

The robe de style for evening wear still leads the fashion. The most popular materials are tulle, satin and silk. And the most popular line is the uneven hem.

Sports clothes are increasing in importance. There is hardly a day's occasion where you cannot appear clad in a carefully tailored sports costume with well chosen accessories.

The scarf collar has come to stay and is at least a few more seasons. This becoming collar is seen on sports frock and evening gown alike.

The following furs promise to be the smartest for Spring wear: beige and platinum fox, for the long-haired group; and gray or natural lynx, bleached and dyed mole, platinum band beige broadtail, and black, for the shorter-haired group.

I have been going with a boy for about two or three weeks, and I believe he likes me. Although he doesn't act as if he does. I like him a lot and would like to continue our friendship. What shall I do? BLUE EYES.

Progress of its own accord, my dear, and to further it do nothing but prove yourself an interesting and desirable companion. You have known this boy but a short time and I must caution against trying to rush him into a definite attitude. Cultivate this boy's interest by proving yourself in every way a charming and interesting person, and I am sure he will be more attracted to you.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

By Blanche Silver

A Good Cure for Crossness.

"O H, dear me," grumbled Dicky, as he awakened one morning and found it raining, "if there's one thing I do hate, it's nasty old rainy weather. I can't play outdoors and I can't play in the house." He fussed all the time he was dressing and grumbled all his way downstairs.

His breakfast was cold and the day was started all wrong for Dicky Boy. He was the most unhappy little fellow in all the neighborhood. When his Mama asked him to run down to the shed after some wood with which to build a fire in the fireplace, Dicky grumbled again. He liked the warm fire and he hated to go after the wood.

"I just hate this creepy old weather," he grumbled as he stooped to pick up a stick. Out from under it peeked a funny little head and Dicky almost dropped his wood in astonishment. "Why, Happy Giggles, what in the world are you doing out here in the wood pile?"

"Waiting for you to come after the wood," replied the wee elfin, his eyes fairly twinkling. "I knew you'd need a fire this morning, so I just waited here for you. What's all the grumbling about, anyway?"

"Oh, this horrid old weather," grumbled Dicky. "I hate it. I can't see what it's good for, anyway." "Maybe you can't," laughed the elfin, "but there are a good many folks who can enjoy it, so shake off that gloom blanket, rub up your glasses and—"

"Get out, Happy Giggles," said Dicky, laughing for the first time, "you know I don't wear glasses." "Is that so," chuckled the elfin. "Why, right now you're looking through smoked ones or else you wouldn't be so cross and ugly. Why don't you know, Dicky," and he led Dicky down to the tub under the pump.

"Look down in the water," Dicky yelled to the tub under the pump. "Look down in that water." Dicky glanced down in the tub of water and sure enough he was wearing great big dark colored glasses. But when he tried to open them on his own face they weren't there.

"Pshaw, they're not real glasses, understand, only make-believe ones. You can't take them off, unless you try to yourself. I'm going to wash and laugh, then they'll disappear."

"Then I'll do it," laughed Dicky. "For I'm sure ugly in the ones reflected in the tub. I don't know why I always get up cross on a rainy day."

"That's the trouble," said the elfin. "I know and I'll tell you. This morning when you awakened you put out our little foot first. That's wrong, Dicky. When you open your eyes of a morning, quick as wink, stick out your right foot and let it touch the floor first. Then before the left one comes down to the floor say to yourself, 'I'm going to find plenty to do this morning to keep me happy, and no matter how gloomy the day you can make your own sunshine.'"

"Well, of all things," laughed Dicky, "I do almost always put my left foot out first. Do you suppose that's the reason why I'm so cross?"

"That's what they say," replied the elfin. "Anyhow, try it after this and always say what I told you to and you won't be looking through gloomy glasses."

Before Dicky could even thank the wee elfin, he disappeared. "Nothing for me to do now but to take off those gloomy glasses," Dicky mused and he began to whistle and hum. He gathered up his wood and not only took it into the house, but built the fire himself, and after he had finished he ran to look in the tub and sure enough the gloomy glasses had disappeared.

"I'll bet I'll never get out of bed left foot first again," he said and I guess he never did, for he is the happiest little boy in the world.

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Words of the Wise

To disregard what the world thinks of us is not only arrogant but utterly shameful.

—Cicero.

Young men are fitter to invent than to judge; fitter for execution than for counsel; and fitter for new projects than for settled business.

—Bacon.

Mental stains cannot be removed by time, nor washed away by any waters.

—Cicero.

The world is too much with us; late and soon, getting and spending we lay waste our powers.

Little we see in Nature that is ours.

—Wordsworth.

A gentleman is one who understands and shows every mark of deference to the claims of self-love in others and exacts it in return from them.

—Haelet.

Advice to Girls -:- By ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a girl of 18 and am in love with a man 28 years of age. He has been divorced twice and has a little daughter. My family do not want me to go out with him. I love him and can't give him up. We are to elope soon. Please tell me what to do. WORKED.

WOMEN: I should think the difference in your ages would discourage you from continuing this friendship. And then the fact that this man has been divorced twice is a factor that you must not overlook. I would advise you to listen to the advice of your parents and remember that you are very young to be considering such a step. You must bear in mind the fact that besides undertaking the responsibilities of married life, you will have to assume also the responsibility of caring for this child and you may later resent the loss of your personal freedom. I would advise you to wait until you are sure of your feelings and to be guided by the advice of your parents.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her at least three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

Probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not resent it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: We are two girls fifteen and sixteen years of age. We are in love with two boys who are both eighteen. We know them to speak to but our parents think we are too young to have dates. We don't have much chance of meeting them. Please tell us how we can become better acquainted. GIRLS.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for

The Circleville Herald

A Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established in 1883, and The Daily Union Herald, Established in 1894.

PUBLISHED EVENINGS EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY

ARTHUR A. HOOPINGARNER, PRESIDENT
NORMAN W. RALSTON
EDITOR AND GENERAL MANAGER
LEE E. DIMOND, MANAGING EDITOR
KARL G. HEHRMANN, ADVERTISING MANAGER
HARRY E. WEILL, CIRCULATION MANAGER

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, as Second Class Matter

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Mail—$4 for One Year; $2.25 for Six Months;
$1.25 for Three Months; 50c for One Month.
Delivered by Carrier—15 Cents a Week; $6 a Year Paid in Advance

BIBLE THOUGHT

THE HAPPY—Happy is that people, that is in such a case; yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord.—Psalm 144:15.

PRAYER—O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth.

Eating 80 Pancakes

A young man in a middle western city the other day entered on a griddle cake eating contest with a friend. The two sat at a lunch counter and began an endurance eating contest. The winner eventually stowed away some 80 buckwheat cakes.

All of which is very trivial and repellent. Yet there was a certain fitness in the food selected. The griddle cake, especially the buckwheat cake, has always been the food of gargantuan eaters.

The buckwheat cake was born on the farm, and the city chap has little business eating it. It was not meant for the office worker it was not born to be pushed over the restaurant counter in groups of three, with thin, synthetic syrup to accompany it.

Ah, no! The buckwheat cakes belong in the farm kitchen, where three or four husky men need inner fortification for a hard day's work in the open air. It should be served in bulk; one has not eaten buckwheat cakes until one begins on the seventh or eighth. It needs real maple syrup, dark and thick. One should have worked for an hour or two in the open air before coming to the table.

Thus, we repeat; the young man doubtless made rather a spectacle of himself, but his judgment was sound when he chose buckwheat cakes for his spree. Buckwheat cakes were invented for two-handed, hearty eaters.

Our Income Tax.

The federal government again calls on our citizens to make returns of their income, and once again this more or less perplexing job is before all who are fortunate enough to have incomes such as to call for this report.

There are still some people who regard the calling for such a return, and the levying of such a tax, as an intrusion of the federal government into a strictly private subject. They claim that if they pay taxes to their state and local government, that is all that can be asked, and that the federal government should raise what money it needs by customs duties and various excise taxes.

But most Americans have become reconciled to the income tax idea, and they feel it is the fairest way to raise the money that must be had. We still owe a vast debt of $18,000,000,000, incurred for fighting the World war. We are under heavy obligations to the soldiers of that war, and must for many years pay out great sums in care for the disabled, pensions, etc. The ordinary ways of raising such funds do not suffice.

The income tax theory holds that people should pay this cost in proportion to their wealth. Those of small means are not assessed at all. Those of moderate amounts have to pay small amounts that they will not miss. Those who have large means or great wealth can easily afford to pay the amounts asked, without curtailing any of their privileges, pleasures, or luxuries.

When people have had large success, they owe much to the government that has protected them and their property, and has encouraged and promoted enterprise and prosperity. It should be a pleasure to people of large wealth, to make a handsome contribution to their government, as a return for all the benefits they have received.

Meeting Competition.

It is exasperating to retail store people, when they see folks buying stuff out of town that could be had for the same or less money at home. Still, instead of growling too much about it, the best way to meet that competition is to imitate the methods in use in the places that draw his trade.

The alert business man makes it a point quite frequently to take a tour around to the stores in larger cities, to see how they do things. He will not usually find goods any cheaper, but he may get ideas that would be helpful in his own business. New methods in display and arrangement are a help in keeping the trade in the home stores where it belongs.

"I guess he is not very religious, said Ragson Tatters in speaking of a First ward man. "Anyhow his pants always wear out at the seat instead of at the knees.—Fosteria, O., Times.

Jack Dempsey says his eyesight isn't so defective he will quit the ring. He can still see the denominations on Uncle Sam's currency.—Youngstown, O., Vindicator.

The political situation in both parties today is full of live wires and has to be handled with gloves by the wire pullers.—Zanesville, O., Signal.

The American people can't tell when a law is unconstitutional, but they know when a boxer violates the fighting rules.

The child of the older generation used to read fairy stories—Nowadays they expect to live them.—Bellefontaine, O., Examiner.

Higher education in this country is seriously threatened. The supply of coon-skins is running short.—East Liverpool, O., Review Tribune.

By now, recipients of Christmas gifts are able to get back to their own brands of tobacco, and are feeling better.—East Liverpool, O., Review.

The RAMBLER

By NORMAN W. RALSTON

THE MUSICIAN

SITTIN'

There and playin'

Songs of other

Years,

While his soul

Is prayin'

To erase

The tears,

Corner-town musician,

Entertainin' folk,

Bent and worn

Magician—

Life seems such a

Joke—

Not a beggar, people,

Life to him

A dream,

Sitting on a steeple,

Livin' on life's

Cream,

That's his starry

Vision,

That's his hope

And prayer,

But Fate's cruel

Decision

Brought him only

Care;

Singin' quaint songs

Olden,

On his corner seat,

Life to him

Is golden

'Til his dreams

Retreat—

Beggar? You're

Mistaken,

He's a dreamer prince,

Though his soul

Was shaken

He refused to

Wince—

And what we mean to say

Is,

Fate hands all a

Tumble,

More or less, I've

Found,

If you start to grumble

You're a-losin'

Ground;

Be you happy, fellow,

Take your jolts,

And grin,

And when life is mellow,

You are bound

To win.

It isn't what you lose in life, it's the way you lose it that counts.

HE STAYS AT HOME NOW

Mary had a little lamb,
So they all relate,
But now the modern Mary's lamb
Cannot stay up so late.

Now they'll probably say when he dies: "He only had two more installments to make and he'd owned it."

We often get up in the morning feeling like our coal bill that hasn't been paid.

A PAINFUL SUBJECT

Says Norm Ralston: "No one needs to pull for a dentist. He's got a good pull himself."

Yes, and we'll add that while we like most people to pull for us, it sure hurts us when that bird does.—Sam Hill in Cincinnati Enquirer.

When he's pulling we have to go right along with him, Sam.

The only objection to a submarine or an airplane seems to be the fact that when the old bus refuses to hit on all cylinders you can't get out and walk.

A girl looks so comfortable when she gets her legs firmly crossed that we always wonder why she crosses them the other way almost immediately, says Bob Ryder.

You're prying into a woman's privilege, Bob.

The most sensible man in the world sometimes feels like he'd like to be happy, and hence not sensible.

Just about the time we memorize all the laws we have along comes another legislature and passes some new ones. Why don't they try repealing some of those we already have?

The world moves on about the same. Only they call it "necking" now instead of "spooning."

TODAY'S BEST STORY

"So your wife has completely lost her appetite?" "Yes, she doesn't even want to eat the things the doctor forbids her."—Selected by G. O. S. H. from The Pathfinder.

CIRCLEVILLE 25 YEARS AGO

Feb. 9, 1903.

The stock of J. F. Daymon was sold this morning at public sale. Charles Steinberger bought the stock for $450 and the fixtures for $6.27.

O. D. Mader's spoon sale was a decided success—every package was disposed of.

Each person should get 10 cents worth of camphor, carry it in their pocket or around their neck in a cheese cloth bag as a preventative against small pox.

The grocery of F. R. Leist of Kingston was broken into last night and a large amount of goods taken. I. A. Jones' blood hounds were taken to the scene in hopes of catching the thieves who were unknown.

When a Man Loves

By ALLIE LOWE MILES

Copyright 1927, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
John Barrymore in "WHEN A MAN LOVES" is a Warner Bros. Picture turalization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

Fabien, good and handsome youth of France, trains for the priesthood; but meets and loves Manon Lescaut, beautiful orphan, whose rascally brother, realizing her worldly value, barter her to Ravoire, rich connoisseur of women. Fabien saves her and carries her off to Paris, where they live happily together. Manon's brother steals her for Ravoire. Circumstances force her to surrender to Ravoire, Fabien, thinking her perfidious, returns to his studies. On the eve of his ordination Manon confronts him and pleads for his love.

CHAPTER XIV—Continued

"Manon, can you promise that you would never leave me again?" Fabien searched her eyes.

"Darling—I know—I swear it!" her eyes answered his.

The agitation and tumult that her nearness kindled in Fabien thrilled him with a kind of horror that made him experience the vague sense of being carried into a new existence.

That is exactly what was happening and it came about with such power that he could no longer resist the call. As Manon's fragrant nearness broke down his last spark of resistance, Fabien gathered her hungrily into his starved arms and strained her to him in a strong passionate embrace. His lips found hers and held them for a wonderful moment of complete forgetfulness.

The reunited lovers were called from themselves by the chiming bells in the great Cathedral tower.

"My dear, do you hear?" questioned Fabien happily. "Their ringing means my freedom, and yours!" He gathered Manon to him again for a brief ecstatic embrace, then removed his cassock and left it on the ground—the only part of him that was to remain within the narrow confines of the cloister walls.

To be together was all they asked, and since holding Manon in his arms Fabien had not had a moment's doubt about the wisdom of again relinquishing his vows for her.

With one arm about Manon's shoulders, Fabien led her out into the world.

They agreed that their present and future happiness was secure beyond the reach of Fate or the interference of man; and so with one arm about Manon's slim shoulders Fabien led her out into the world.

Where? They neither knew nor cared. Just what awaited them did not matter so long as they had each other.

CHAPTER XV

Love with all its resulting pleasures is a wonderful thing, but unfortunately cannot be enjoyed for very long without enough money to insure food and shelter.

Fabien's hasty and unprepared departure from St. Sulpice did not leave time to think of money, and when he wanted to return for his purse Manon would not consider it. She feared complications and dreaded the thought of losing him again even for a moment. Anyway, the content of the purse would not have lasted long, for Fabien demanded nothing in the way of worldly goods while at St. Sulpice, and naturally his finances were never large. Now, however, money was as essential to their future as the food their bodies required.

Manon had salvaged enough from the odious but profitable days with the Comte De Ravoire to take care of them for some time. Of course she offered it immediately as a solution to their problem and was surprised when Fabien rebelled at the abhorrent idea.

It took only a little explaining on Fabien's part to make her understand why they could not exist on the Comte's past generosity. Manon acceded to his wishes very graciously; in fact, nothing mattered now that they were together with the past all explained and buried away. She assigned herself unreservedly to Fabien's care and instinctively knew that in some way he would provide everything her heart desired.

"Messieurs the Abbe Martineau and the Duke D'Eaufort—Mademoiselle Nana—and the hairdressers are waiting to see Madam." Marie made her announcement very stiffly, while now and then she cast a grim look at Fabien. Now she did not like him because she was forced to change her opinion about his appearance and his wealth.

Fabien was even more sure of this than Manon. He had lost her once because he was so absorbed in dreams of love that he ignored the material. Now he planned to provide for her even more lavishly than had the Comte, so that no odious comparison would ever make Manon unhappy or cause him to fall in her estimation as a man and provider.

The only means at hand was for Fabien to draw on his father and he did it with a heavy hand because he knew that after his parent had been notified a second call for funds would be refused.

To satisfy Manon's love for pleasure it seemed important that they should reside in Paris. She found a beautiful place that she wanted, consequently Fabien took it and they established themselves in gorgeous style with utter disregard for expense; nor did they take time from love making to think where more money would come from when their dwindling supply was exhausted.

They were enjoying a dream, and money never matters in dreams; so why should they have worried? Besides, all dreams end soon enough. It is stupid to attempt control, just give yourself up completely to the temporary oblivion and make the best of the rude awakening.

The flying weeks added a new radiance to love. Manon grew so sweet in her unceasing attentions to Fabien that he felt fully rewarded for his past troubles and changed plans. Her passion for jewelry and beautiful gowns went hand in hand with her love for amusement and she soon discovered that Fabien gratified every whim.

Smart new friends became frequent visitors at the Des Greux household. It happened that many of the same people who witnessed the dramatic scene between Fabien and Manon at the Gambling Club, annexed themselves to the host of friends and admirers. Strangely enough, one of the most faithful from this group was Nana. It may have been because she found Manon's salon the best place in Paris to meet interesting men, but we will give her credit for a flare of real friendship and add for good measure that she no longer treasured a grudge against Fabien—instead she openly admired him and would have given her soul to hold the place in his affections that Manon occupied. She openly and secretly, when occasion permitted, angled for his attention and her efforts were so untiring that Fabien often had to make excuses to get away from her.

Manon's boudoir was lovely beyond compare. Panelled walls of soft rose colored satin matched the exquisite hangings. All of her toilet articles were of crystal and gold, a gift from Fabien that made her lavish caresses on him for a whole hour. Abundant payment.

The bed was charming, but not more so than its occupant as she lay there, basking in the sun's brightness from the mid-day sun, filtered through the windows and shone brightly upon Manon as she sat there, basking with silken pillows, enjoying her breakfast chocolate, while Fabien, who had been up for hours, came in to watch her.

"Your hair is so tender and lovely," said Fabien, softly patting the mass of golden ringlets spread out on the pillows around her head. "I like you much better this way than in a formal wig. It reminds me of our first night in the attic room when I saw you asleep."

Fabien buried his face in Manon's curls and as her sweetness took possession of his senses he kissed her many times while she pilowed her head upon her breast and bowed her head in adorable submission.

A knock at the door warned them that it was time for Manon's day to begin. Late night hours made it advisable for her to remain abed until noon and Fabien always came in to wake her and remain until the maid arrived to draw her bath.

By the time the door opened, Fabien was way cut in the middle of the room talking casually with Manon as she, just as casually, finished her chocolate. It was a little game of hide-and-seek Fabien played. Although it concealed nothing for the simple reason that the maid always came in to draw her bath, Fabien was engaged as personal maid and costume her in all the neatness of a pretty uniform. Marie arose to the occasion grandly and watched over her adored mistress as jealously as a devoted watch dog. The new surroundings also gave her hungry soul a feast and she found the large servants' hall an amazing place for scandal.

"Messieurs the Abbe Martineau and the Duke D'Eaufort—Mademoiselle Nana—and the hairdressers are waiting to see Madam." Marie made her announcement very stiffly, while now and then she cast a grim look at Fabien. Now she did not like him because she was forced to change her opinion about his appearance and his wealth.

(To be continued.)

FRENCH AVIATOR TO TOUR COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(UP)

Lieut. Dieudonne Costes and Lieut. Commander Joseph Le Brix disclosed today they were planning to make a trans-continental good-will air tour from New York to San Francisco, stopping at all major cities enroute.

The French Trans-Atlantic fliers, who arrived here yesterday from Montgomery, Ala., said their itinerary would be arranged here in conference with the French ambassador.

Read the Classified Ads.

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

(U. P.)—

FEB. 9, 1918

German newspapers hail sinking of the U. S. troop ship Tuscania by a U-boat torpedo as promising to have beneficial "psychological effect" for Germany.

Ground glass is found in candy at Camp Dix, N. J.; reports say incident is part of a plot of an enemy alien.

Central Powers sign a peace treaty with the Ukraine, ignoring Soviet Russia.

© 1928 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.
Gross Britain rights reserved

The Epic of the Air "WE" By Charles A. Lindbergh

CHAPTER XXVIII

AT New York we checked over the plane, engine and instruments, which required several short flights over the field.

When the plane was completely inspected and ready for the transatlantic flight, there were dense fogs reported along the coast and over Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, in addition to a storm area over the North Atlantic.

On the morning of May 19th, a light rain was falling and the sky was overcast. Weather reports from land stations and ships along the great circle course were unfavorable and there was apparently no prospect of taking off for Paris for several days at least. In the morning I visited the Wright plant at Paterson, New Jersey, and had planned to attend a theater performance in New York that evening.

But at about six o'clock I received a special report from the New York Weather Bureau. A high pressure area over the entire

HOWE ABOUT?

By ED. W. HOWE

© Bell Syndicate WNU Service

When people are about to rebel, there is ample warning. The czar of Russia might have known rebellion was threatening and avoided it. The Communists had ample warning of the rebellion of the Fascists. The boy who "acts smart" in company, and is whipped and disgraced by his mother, has ample warning through her frowns; he should have behaved better. Lightning never strikes out of a clear sky; the gathering storm always gives warning. Every wife who rebels, every husband, gives long notice of the probability of rebellion. The French threatened many generations before their Reign of Terror. When people grumble and protest they are thinking of rebellion, and liable to soon become unmanageable.

I rarely find opportunity to say a kind word for my sex, therefore I welcome a statement that chorus men are the best on the stage. Chorus girls have been responsible for almost as many scandals as there are chorus women, but chorus men it is declared by a keen New York observer, are decent, quiet and well-mannered.

Maeterlinck regrets that nature did not devote half its genius to some important thing instead of so much to things that seem trifling. Some of the most mysterious and marvelous processes of nature are devoted to causing harm instead of preventing it.

The interest we take in existence must grapple not with what might have been, but with what is.—Maeterlinck. (An old, old truth, but people will never learn it, so it is useless to print it again.)

An ancient philosopher, expounding his conviction that life is no better than death, was asked by a disciple why, then, he did not die. "Because," he replied, "death is no better than life."

"Some of the greatest thinkers," says a writer, "have been mystics." Another example of the failure of writers to agree: "I say no really great thinker was ever a mystic."

North Atlantic and low pressure over Nova Scotia and Newfoundland was receding. It was apparent that the prospects of the fog clearing up were as good as I might expect for some time to come. The North Atlantic should be clear with only local storms on the coast of Europe.

The moon had just passed full and the percentage of days with fog over Newfoundland and the Grand Banks was increasing so that there seemed to be no advantage in waiting longer.

We went to Curtiss Field as quickly as possible and made arrangements for the biograph to be sealed and airtight, and for the plane to be serviced and checked.

We decided partially to fill the fuel tanks in the hangar before towing the ship on a truck to Roosevelt Field, which adjoins Curtiss Field on the east, where the servicing would be completed.

I left the responsibility for conditioning the plane in the hands of men on the field, while I went into the hotel for about two and one-half hours of rest; but at the hotel there were several more details which had to be completed, and I was unable to get any sleep that night.

I returned to the field before daybreak on the morning of the 20th. A light rain was falling, which continued until almost dawn. Consequently we did not move the ship to Roosevelt Field until much later than we had planned, and the takeoff was delayed from daybreak until nearly 8 o'clock.

At dawn the shower had passed, although the sky was overcast, and occasionally there would be some slight precipitation. The tail of the plane was lashed to a truck and escorted by a number of motorcycle police. The slow trip from Curtiss to Roosevelt Field was begun.

The ship was placed at the extreme west end of the field, heading along the east and west runway, and the final fueling commenced.

About 7:40 a. m., the motor was started and at 7:52 I took off on the flight for Paris.

The field was a little soft due to the rain during the night and the heavily loaded plane gathered speed slowly. After passing the half-way mark, however, it was apparent that I would be able to clear the obstructions at the end. I passed over a tractor by about fifteen feet and a telephone line by about twenty, with a fair reserve of flying speed. I believe that the ship would have taken off from a hard field with at least five hundred pounds more weight.

I turned slightly to the right to avoid some high trees on a hill directly ahead, but by the time I had gone a few hundred yards I had

IN SOCIETY

MISS ALLISON DELAPLAINE, SOCIETY EDITOR

Valentine Party

The Royal Neighbors will have a valentine party following their regular meeting, Thursday evening, at the rooms of the Modern Woodmen of America. The lunch and entertainment committee who will have charge of the function will be Mrs. Edwin Grimm, Mrs. Ellen Root, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Young, Mrs. John Lane and Mrs. N. O. Fry.

a talk by Dr. Howard Jones, on "The American Indian."

Guest at Ashville

Mrs. Roy Bowsher entertained at bridge at her home in Ashville, Thursday. Mrs. E. J. Rife, of Circleville, was one of the guests.

Entertains with Dinner Dance

Mrs. Martha Bartley, of West High Street, who has just returned from California, was the honor guest at a small dinner dance given by Miss Evelyn Steele at her home on North Court street, Tuesday evening. The decorations used were red and white, for Valentine's day. There were eight couples for dinner and dancing which followed.

To Entertain Bridge Club

Mrs. Max Friedman has asked the members of her bridge club to meet at her home on East Mill street, Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Guest at Club Wins

Mrs. Charles Gilmore entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening, and a substitute, Mrs. Lloyd Jones had high score.

Lecture at High School

The lecture Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium was poorly attended because of many other conflicting entertainments on the same night. Mr. Martindale represented the Rainbow Tours Co. of Columbus, and The Union Pacific Railway. He talked of life in the Yellowstone National Park of how he and other rangers patrol the territory searching for wounded animals in need of help. He described the experiences of the rangers and how they live in cabins on the borders of the national reserves, twenty miles apart from each other. The colored slides were beautiful, and there were also some very interesting moving pictures shown. The audience was made up mostly of children.

Birthday Party

Miss Cleo E. Bowman was surprised Monday evening, when a number of friends gathered at her home in Washington township, to remind her of her eighteenth birthday, bringing with them many beautiful presents. The evening was delightfully spent in music and games, after which they enjoyed an old fashioned taffy pulling. The guest list included: Misses Mary and Agnes Frazier, Marvene Leist, Dorothy and Garnet Davis, Mattie Hanley, Cathrine Leist and Leona Bowman. Messrs. Ralph Betz, Russell Leist, Ernest Young, Loring Leist, Robert Godchild, Donald Leist, Theodore Davis, Howard Leist, Arthur Leist, Orville Jones, Ray List and Willison Leist. Also, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leist and sons Robert and Gerald, and daughter, Betty.

POLICE SEARCH FOR OHIO MASON

STUEBENVILLE, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—Authorities today were still undecided as to the cause of the sudden disappearance of Harry Platt, 57, wholesale grocer and prominent Mason.

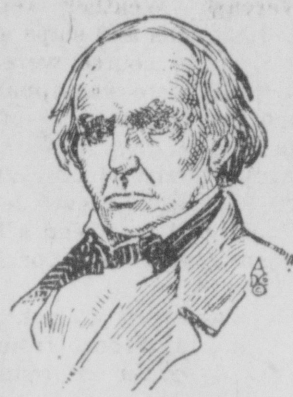

Platt was last seen Monday by his wife. First indication of his absence was in a note in which he told his wife "he loved her too much to worry her with financial difficulties."

EXONERATED IN CONTEMPT CASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Sheldon Clark, vice president of the Sinclair Refining company, was exonerated of the charge of contempt of court growing out of jury surveillance in the Fall-Sinclair mistrial today, when Justice Siddons sustained a motion of Clark's counsel to dismiss the rule against him.

CONN IS ENDORSED

Van Wert, O., Feb. 9.—(INS)—Endorsement of Harry L. Conn, of Van Wert, former justice of the state insurance department, as a democratic nominee for governor, was announced here today by the Van Wert County Democratic Executive and Central Committees.

DANIEL WEBSTER

"There are those blind to the truth who claim to see it; there are those who pretend ignorance of the truth who plainly see it."

WE are of great service to those who like finesse without gross display and who wish for a dignity that is real.

W. H. ALBAUGH CO.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Opposite Court House

Phone 25 Circleville, O.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thomas and little daughter Barbara, of Columbus, were guests of Miss Allison Delaplane on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Van Vliet will hear Ignace Paderewski in his concert at Memorial hall, Thursday evening.

Theodore Kach of Jackson township motored to Columbus, Jan. 31, where he attended the farmers' week at Ohio State University for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pontius and family of Thatcher were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Johnson of Westerville, who lived near Circleville about 15 years ago. They have many friends here who will be grieved to know that Mrs. Johnson has not recovered from an automobile wreck which occurred a year ago in October. One arm was so severely crushed that it had to be amputated, but not until the poison had gone through here entire system, causing a severe case of arthritis from which she can never recover.

Eldridge Bonhart, of Harlowton, Montana, spent Tuesday with Dr. O. H. Dunton and family.

Loring Lutz and Bundy Hendricks were visitors at the Automobile show in Columbus, Tuesday. Mrs. Hildeburn Jones, Miss Eleanor Jones, Mrs. Dale Kitzmiller, Burne Jones and Bobby Fickardt attended the afternoon performance of Thurston at the Hartman theater in Columbus, Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Holman is employed in the office of the Keener-Strandberg Dry Cleaning establishment on East Main street.

Mrs. Joseph Stanton and Mrs. Beal Thomas of Columbus were guests Wednesday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

Tonight's Radio Program

THURSDAY

WJZ—New York—6:00 Orch. 7 Correct Time; 7:00 Marine Band 7:30 Mixed Quartet; 8:30 Music; 9:00 Maxwell House Hour; 10:00 Continentals; 11:00 Music.

WEAF—New York—6:00 Dinner Music; 8:00 Dodge Bros.; 8:30 Hoover Sentinels; 9:00 Clicquot Club Eskimos; 10:00 Smith Bros.; 10:00 Statlers Pennsylvanians.

WHAM—Rochester—6:45 Orch.; 8:30 Ampico Hour; 10:00 Studio Prog.

WBAL—Baltimore—6:00 Sandman Circle; 6:30 Orch.; 8:00 String Quartet; 10:00 Band.

WGHP—Detroit—6:00 Dinner Concert; 7:00 Lady Moon; 8:00 Organ; 10:00 Arcadians.

WGN—Chicago—6:35 Concert and String Music; 7:30 Concert 8:00 Clicquot Club.

WOR—Newark—6:00 Radio

FRIDAY

WJZ—New York—6:00 Orch.; 7:00 Lombardy Orch.; 8:00 Concert; 8:30 Concert; 9:00 Wrigley Review; 10:00 Time; 10:00 Victor Hour; 10:30 Slumber Music.

WEAF—New York—6:00 Dinner Music; 7:00 Orch.; 8:00 Concert; 9:00 Correct Time; 9:30 La-France Orch.; 10:00 Palmolive Hour; 11:00 Ben Bernice and His Orch.

WBAL—Baltimore—6:00 Sandman Circle; 6:30 Orch.; 8:00 Quartet; 8:30 Concert.

WAIU—Columbus—6:00 Orch.; 6:30 Orch.; 8:00 Trio; 9:00 True Story; 10:00 Capt. Kidd.

WWJ—Detroit—6:00 Dinner Music; 7:00 "Michigan Night," 8:00 Orch.

WHAM—Rochester—7:30 Castoria Rock-a-Bye Lady; 9:00 9:00 Wrigley Prog.; 10:00 Victor.

WGHP—Detroit—6:00 Organ; 6:40 Orch.; 7:00 Lady oMon; 9 Columbia Chain Prog.

Groom, on South Washington street.

Mr. C. K. Howard, the retired shoe merchant, was a business visitor in Columbus Thursday.

Mrs. Gilbert Starkey is employed temporarily at the Ohio Utilities Company.

Miss Hulda Seyfert is visiting friends in Dayton.

Mr. Edgar Friedman stopped in Circleville Thursday morning on his way to Cincinnati.

Miss Abbe Mills Clarke, Miss Maxine Stevenson and Miss Helen Schieler will attend the concert at Memorial Hall in Columbus, Thursday evening.

KENTUCKY SINGERS WILL GIVE CONCERT

Five Colored Songsters Will Give Free Program at Baptist Church Here.

A public concert will be given in the colored Baptist church at 8 o'clock Friday night by the Kentucky Harmony Singers, five colored songsters who are managed by Mrs. Louise Malone Braxton, who claims the distinction of being the only female bass singer in the world.

There will be no charge for the concert, which will be given under the auspices of the Housewife Training School of Fulton, Ky.

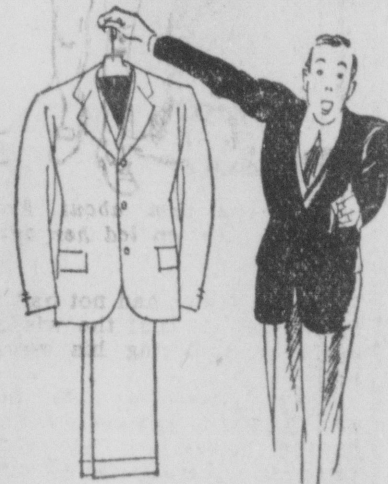

The Kentucky Singers are widely known, having sung in all the principal cities, and having broadcast from 27 of the largest radio stations. Their program here will feature negro spirituals and southern melodies.

Mrs. Braxton is a graduate of the Tuskegee Institute which was founded by Booker T. Washington. She is the daughter of an Indian mother, and until she entered the southern school at the age of 15, she could speak only Indian language and no English. Mrs. Braxton will sing "Asleep in the Deep," during the program Friday Thursday night the singers will give a program at the Presbyterian church in Kingston.

Wall Paper, Books, and Magazines, Score Pads, Placecards and Valentines.

55-1t. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

We've Resolved to Sell You a Suit in 1928

This advertisement is for the man who has been getting along without Kuppenheimer clothing.

We know it can be done—because you've been doing it. But we know too that you'll be a better man in these famous garments than you are out of them—so we're going to try our might and main to bring out the best that's in you by bringing you in.

$35 to $50

H. B. COLWELL

BOY LOSES HIS LEG FOLLOWING INJURY

Marving Orihood 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Orihood, of New Holland, who was injured by being struck by a school truck in front of his home two or three weeks ago, underwent an operation at Mercy hospital, Columbus, this week for removal of the right leg below the knee.

The leg had been badly broken when the truck passed over the leg, and infection developed, making an operation imperative to save his life.

The lad is now recovering as rapidly as possible, it is indicated.

SETTLE CHAPLIN CASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The famous Charlie Chaplin income tax case, said to involve near-

METROPOLITAN

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Heaven On Earth

with

RENEE ADOREE and CONRAD NAGEL

FRIDAY

DOROTHY GISH

in "MADAME POMPADOUR"

with

ANTONIO MORENO

Matinee Friday 2 p. m.

Doors Open 1:45.

CONGRESS TODAY

By UNITED PRESS SENATE

Resumes debate on LaFollette Anti-third term resolution.

Banking and currency committee starts hearings on LaFollette measure to prohibit federal reserve bank loans to speculators.

Patents committee continues hearings on Dill Radio patents bill.

HOUSE

Continues consideration of war appropriation bill.

Agriculture committee continues farm relief hearings.

ly $1,000,000 has been finally settled, it was learned at the Treasury today. The Bureau of Internal Revenue declined to reveal the terms of the compromise agreement.

MRS. RALSTON OF KINGSTON 'S DEAD

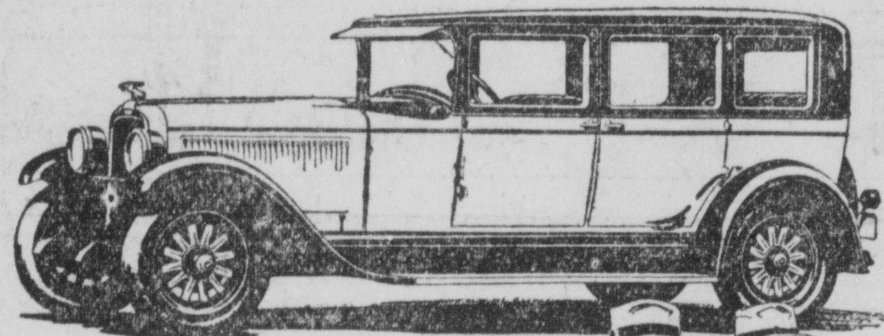

Mrs. Burman Ralston, of Kingston died at the City hospital in Chillicothe Wednesday. She is survived by her husband and two children, Ellen and John.

BANDITS ROB WOMAN

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—After binding and gagging Mrs. Glenna Gardner, 26, two bandits last night threw acid on the woman's face, robbed her of $23 and escaped. Mrs. Gardner's face and neck were badly burned.

TAXI SERVICE

Mrs. Edward Van Winkle Phone 1115.

The 4-Door Sedan $1145. Body by Fisher

Let Local Owners Tell You!

Your personal friends. Or passing acquaintances. Some of them own the All-American Six. Ask them their candid opinions. Learn what they think of the car... Ask them about the big, smooth engine with its GMR cylinder head. About the riding comfort and handling ease resulting from All-American engineering combined with the mastery of Fisher body construction and design... Ask them if they're glad they bought it. Whether or not they think the car deserves its thrilling success... Of course we know what they'll answer. What they'll advise you to do. And we're eager to have you get the truth in a manner you won't forget.

PRICES: 2-Door Sedan, $1045; Landau Coupe, $1045; Sport Roadster, $1075; 4-door Sedan, $1145; Cabriolet, $1155; Landau Sedan, $1265

New Series Pontiac Six, $745 to $875. All prices at factory. Delivered prices include minimum handling charges. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

Special Sport Equipment Available on all body types. special front fenders with tire wells... two special tire locks and locking rings... collapsible trunk rack... $100 extra on open cars... $110 on closed cars... six disc wheels with same equipment, $750 on open cars... $850 on closed models.

L. M. SALTER, INC.

Circleville, Ohio 146 W. Main St.

OAKLAND ALL-AMERICAN SIX
PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

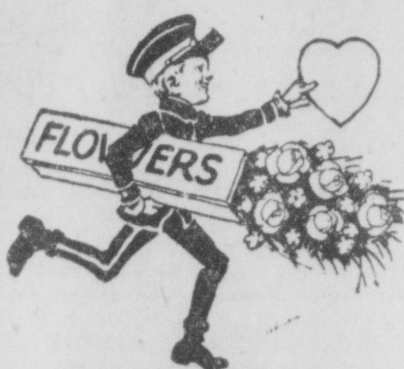

You Need A Suit And Overcoat!

Dress up in a new Suit and Overcoat during the cold days that are yet to come. The style, leadership, high quality fabrics and supreme tailoring—are always found in Joseph's clothing.

Suits and Overcoats at Sale Prices

JOSEPH'S

109 W. Main St.

CAPTURED! HER HEART.

A Valentine gift of flowers touches a woman's heart more than a costlier gift. Their fragrance, delicacy and sentiment speak to her of YOU and your thoughtfulness of her.

Flowers telegraphed anywhere.

MITCHELL FLORIST
814 N. Court St. Phone 44

Our Loss -- Your Gain

We must make room for new SPRING MERCHANDISE which is arriving daily. Cost has been forgotten, former prices slashed, quality always the best. It's a small matter to quote a lot of comparative prices, we only ask your consideration of style and quality. Our prices, quality considered, are always RIGHT.

Our buyers are leaving for the markets and we can use CASH. We are always glad to have you come in and look around even if you are not ready to buy.

Friedman's
Where Women Love to Shop

RUMOR VIOLENCE PLANNED FOR ROGERS HORNSBY

CHICAGO GANG SEEKS REVENGE ON NOTED STAR

New Member of Braves Is Warned That Gamblers May Try to Incapacitate Him.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Rogers Hornsby might do well to surround himself with plenty of hired biceps and avoid all dark alleys, starting May 17 and for the next three days thereafter, when he will be visiting Chicago for the first time as a member of the Boston Braves, the writer was informed today. Over the circuitous "grape vine" of the gambling profession the tip came that certain men in Chicago claim they had to "take the slap" for part of Hornsby's race track "investments" with Frank Moore and that they are out to get the ball player the first time he crosses the line into Cook county.

Sinister threats of "taking him for a ride" accompanied the tip in the argot of gangdom, this means a shooting, mostly fatal, and frankly I don't believe anything of the kind will happen. Rival gunmen may take each other on these sightseeing trips and the community is that much better for the incident. But nothing serious could happen to Hornsby, a national figure, without a terrific kick-back upon those involved and the boys are never for anything like that.

Injury Preferred

However, I am given to understand that they would like very much to "gang" him and that if, in the midst of the general excitement, Hornsby suffered injuries that might impair his worth as a ball player, the gamblers would consider the incident closed and the books neatly balanced. At least one bet is supposed to have been made that Hornsby won't finish the season with the Braves.

According to the story, the trouble began when Moore is said to have found Hornsby's commissions a little too heavy to handle and, therefore, laid part of them

Noted Writer And Sportsman Will Give Talk At Elks Club

James W. Stuber Will Address Gathering of Hunters and Farmers Here.

James W. Stuber, well known sportsman, outdoor writer and secretary of the League of Ohio Sportsmen, will speak at the Elks home in Circleville, Thursday night at 7 o'clock, when sportsmen, farmers and businessmen will assemble to organize a Fish and Game Protective Association.

Mr. Stuber, who is a big game hunter, and chief of the editorial staff of Sportsman's Digest, one of the leading outdoor magazines, will exhibit several reels of realistic motion pictures of fishing in Canadian waters for bass, salmon and trout, taking the audience on a fishing trip in the movies.

There will be no charge for admission, as Mr. Stuber comes through courtesy of the League of Ohio Sportsmen.

off in Chicago with the understanding that Hornsby would make good if the bets were lost. The ball player, meantime, considered that he was doing only some friendly business with his then pal, Moore, and when the latter demanded payment, he refused until such time as he "found it convenient."

Had Private Wire

The Chicago people are said to have accepted Hornsby as an excellent risk and to have placed a private wire at his disposal. Hornsby is said to have taken this merely as part of his personal-business arrangement with Moore. Therefore, when the show down came and Moore became threatening in his demands for payment, Hornsby, it is declared, refused to be dunned and told Moore to "try and get it."

This, of course, resulted in almost no benefit for the Chicago people. They had been outside the controversy; now they were outside the money, too.

Moore is believed to have offered a compromise, whereby the alleged debt of some $94,000 could be paid off at the rate of $5,000 a year. But he was a little late with the suggestion, for, by that time, Hornsby is said to have considered himself insulted by Moore's peremptory demands. The latter's unsuccessful suit in the civil courts followed.

JAMES W. STUBER

NORTHWESTERN LOSES TO ILLINOIS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 9.—(I. N. S.) Northwestern university found itself down in third place in big ten basketball standings today as a result of yielding to Illinois here last night, 32 to 20.

The game proved one of the biggest upsets on the current season. Because of ineligibilities and injuries, the Illini were scarcely conceded a chance to win against the Wildcats.

Illinois grabbed an early lead, setting the pace at the half, 17 to 12. Mills, How and Cann were the nucleus of a smooth-working combination that kept the purple cagers baffled throughout.

Many Breeds of Rabbits

There are 18 breeds of domestic rabbits recognized by the National Rabbit federation as being distinctive in type. In some instances there are several varieties of a breed, alike in size and type, but with a wide range in color variation. These breeds and varieties are divided into two separate classes, or groups, known as "utility" and "fancy."

Mixture of Languages

The name applied to the natives of Guam is Chamorros. The Chamorro dialect spoken in Guam is a polyglot mixture of Spanish, Malay, Yagui Indian lingo and various Polynesian tongues.

BRIGGS TEAM WILL MEET C. A. C. FIVE

The basketball team sponsored by Bryce Briggs, Pickaway county auditor, will provide the opposition for the C. A. C. basketball team at the gym Thursday night. The Briggs team is composed of New Holland and Clarksburg players, several of whom are Ohio State university students. They have had a fine record this season, and are expected to give the athletic club boys a run for their money.

TRACK RECORD IS MADE BY HAHN

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 9.—(I. N. S.)—Lloyd Hahn, the Boston A. A. speed king, who is expected to be one of America's aces in the coming Olympic games, has won nine straight victories this season. Conceding handicaps ranging up to twenty-five yards, he set a new track record of 2 minutes, 15 1-5 seconds for 1,000 yards in beating six rivals at the Newark A. C. games here last night.

William Warden, of the New York A. C., finished second, ten yards behind the flying Nebraskan.

Miss Catherine Donovan broke her own indoor record of 2:39 2-5 by winning the 800 meters event for women in 2:38 3-5.

Excellent Rule

Accusations are like stones—they can be picked up anywhere and hurled by any hand, however soiled. Why not follow the formula of the man who recently said, "I have made it a fixed rule never to utter anything derogatory to another's reputation?"

Nugget of Wisdom

A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of nature.

Cornhusker Lads Bring Sport Fame To Nebraska; To Be Olympic Asset

By DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—"Yes" said the lioness, "but it's a lion," when asked by the fox if it wasn't true that she spawned only one cub.

That also seems to be the case of the sovereign State of Nebraska. It may not breed as many athletes as the more thickly populated centers like New York and California but most of its products are good and it really is surprising how many of them are national standouts or maybe it is stand-out, as long as you have my guard down. Offhand, the names of Joe Stecher, Ed Weir, Glenn Presnell, Ace Hudkins, Stiner, Roland Locke, Falt Elkins and the two Muns, Monte and Wayne, come to mind as examples of Nebraska contributions to our national sport history. Such a volume, in fact, hardly would be complete without these names and if Cy Sherman, the Lincoln oracle didn't write it, even these would fail to endow it with complete adequacy.

They Come and Go

For more than thirty years, man and boy, Cy has been them come and go on the plains of his native heath and, with pardonable pride through strict impartiality, he has recorded the happenings for Cornhusker posterity. He saw Joe Stecher become the world's greatest wrestler with his dead scissors. He watched Ed Weir develop into the greatest football tackle of his era, saw Stiner become an acceptable successor and Glenn Presnell come along to national greatness as a backfield man last year.

Gazing pensively but alertly from the press stand, he watched Locke race to record after record in the sprints several years ago and take the play away from Charley Paddock. The Muns likewise went forth to national consideration under his benign gaze and last year he was there when Falt Elkins, the noble redman, broke the American record for the decathlon.

Therefore, when Mr. Sherman cares to elaborate a bit on the subject of a Nebraska product, one may do well to lend an attentive ear. His discourse, addressed to the writer, deals with the matter of Ace Hudkins who apparently is en route to the world's welterweight championship. It throws an interesting light upon the character of this Neanderthal man, who is the Battling Nelson of his time. Mr. Sherman's epistle concludes with some information about Locke and Elkins, by way of emphasis and for good measure.

"The Hudkins boys," he writes, "told me that Sammy Baker has no stomach for another whirl at Ace; that he goes muttering into the night at the mention of this 'wildcat' fellow. A terrific body beating, says Brother Art Hudkins, cured Sammy of the desire to again take on the wildcat."

A Busy Fighter

"This Hudkins boy was a busy alley fighter while growing up as a kid in Lincoln. Later, he took to the rasseling thin gin Y. M. C. A. circles, but the battle lust was in his blood and I saw him wear padded mittens in his first professional engagement, in which he lost the decision in a four-round preliminary. He is quite unlearned, but the boy has one thing to his credit, to wit: He takes good care of his mother, having bought and established her in a new home in one of Lincoln's latest residence additions, and she is taking life easy and enjoying the comforts that the boy's money will buy.

"Ace is a bundle of tremendous energy when he lets loose in a ring. He generally takes two or three to sock once, but that once lugs a heap of power and punishment. I shall be surprised if he does not climb to the peak of the welterweight heap.

"Roland Locke, former University of Nebraska sprinter, and Falt 'Chief' Elkins, Indian student at the university here who won the decathlon at the A. A. U. national meet last July in Lincoln, will be showing up in New York soon to start training for the Olympic team. I understand that both have arranged to get employment there. Both have undergone recent tonsil operations and they may take to the training business slowly, but if Locke ever regains his sprinting form of the spring of 1926, he'll be a great addition to the U. S. Olympic team. It may impress you as being quite incredible, but it nevertheless is the fact that I saw Locke run the last furlong of a half-mile relay race in under 20 seconds. That was the day he lowered the world's record for the 220-yard dash.

"Time only can decide if Locke regains his running form and physical condition of two years ago but if the breaks are in his favor I predict he will be showing the east a marvelous pair of heels this coming spring and summer season."

Beet Sugar

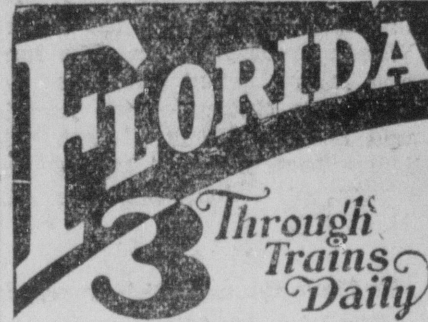

In the year 1747 a German scientist discovered the sugar properties of the beet, but it was not until about 1810 that the production of sugar from the beet was seriously considered in a commercial way. In 1880 the beet sugar industry was introduced into the United States.

Many Contract Rabies

Horses, sheep, goats, hogs, chickens and animals of prey such as wolves, foxes, badgers and martens also contract rabies when bitten by rabid animals, and behave quite similar to rabid dogs, cattle and cats.

WELSH IS SIGNED

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The New York giants have received the signed contract of outfielder Jimmy Welsh, obtained from the Boston Braves in the Rogers Hornsby deal.

ROYAL PALM

15th consecutive year over the Pioneer Route to Florida.

All-Year--Daily

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 7:30 AM (ET) 8:30 AM
Ar. Jacksonville 7:20 AM
Ar. West Palm Beach 4:20 PM
Ar. Miami 6:20 PM
Ar. Tampa 2:30 PM
Ar. Sarasota 7:15 PM
Ar. St. Petersburg 6:00 PM

PONCE DE LEON

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 7:05 PM (ET) 8:05 PM
Ar. Jacksonville 8:10 PM
Ar. West Palm Beach 5:20 AM
Ar. Miami 7:20 AM
Ar. Ft. Myers 11:15 AM

Swansee River Special

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 9:40 PM (ET) 10:40 PM
Ar. Tampa 8:05 AM
Ar. St. Petersburg 8:20 AM
Ar. Bradenton 8:32 AM
Ar. Sarasota 9:10 AM
Ar. Venice 10:20 AM

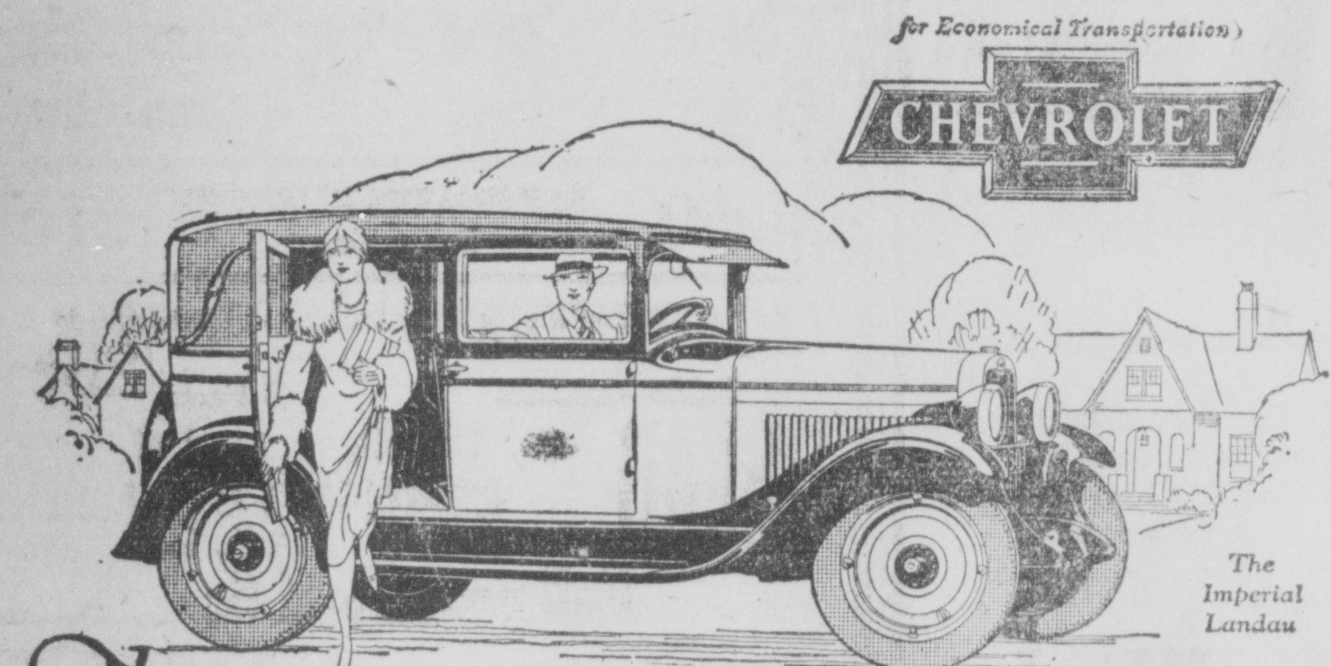

Sleeping Cars and Coaches on All-Year Royal Palm, Ponce de Leon and Swansee River Special. Dining Cars Serving All Meals.

Ask about the Overland route over the Overseas Railway and Key West to Havana, Cuba.

MAR 1 New Orleans, February 16-21, 1928 GRAS 1 Send for free booklet

For further information and sleeping car reservations, address: G. C. ROBSON, Dist. Passenger Agent 110 State Terminal Arcade Cincinnati, O.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

The World's Most Luxurious Low Priced Car

The longest wheelbase ever offered in a low-priced car! The riding ease of four semi-elliptic shock-absorber springs set parallel to the frame. The beauty and comfort of marvelous new Fisher bodies! The safety of non-locking four-wheel brakes! And the thrilling performance of an improved valve-in-head motor!

Here, for the first time in the history of the automotive industry, is a low-priced car that embodies all the distinguished beauty and features of advanced design demanded in the world's highest priced automobiles.

Come in and see it today. Note the beauty, the symmetry and the roominess of the beautiful new Fisher bodies. Study the chassis, unit by unit—and observe the advanced engineering... the high quality construction throughout. Go for a drive—as far as you like, and over roads of your own selection.

Do that—and like tens of thousands of others, you will say that here is the most luxurious low-priced car ever offered!

Reduced Prices!

The Touring or Roadster $495
The Coach $585
The Coupe $595
The 4-Door Sedan $675
The Sport Cabriolet $665
The Imperial $715
Utility Truck (Chassis Only) $495
Light Delivery (Chassis Only) $375

All prices f.o.b. Flint, Mich.

Check Chevrolet Delivered Prices

They include the lowest handling and financing charges available.

Geo. H. Adkins

ATLANTA

CIRCLEVILLE

QUALITY AT LOW COST

The sum-total of pipe-joy

IF YOU could take an adding-machine and set down all the qualities you demand in a pipe-tobacco, such as fragrance, coolness, mildness, satisfaction, when you pulled the lever, the total would read: "Prince Albert." You can prove it with a pipe and a tin of P. A. Throw back the hinged lid and revel in that aroma of the world's most popular pipe-tobacco. Put a load into the bowl of your pipe and light up. Draw that cool, refreshing smoke deep down and exhale slowly. That's Prince Albert! That's living! You'll go to it from breakfast to bedtime.

Prince Albert leads all other brands in sales, because it leads in satisfaction. The word "satisfaction" has worn a little thin from much use, but a pipe and P. A. give it an entirely new meaning. You'll say so on your very first pipe-load, and you'll be a Prince Alberteer after that!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

This tin contains TWO full ounces of what it takes to make a man smoke-happy.

Phone 782

It Holds in Faithful Trust Over
$400,000,000 of the People's Funds

Thousands of people in all parts of Ohio and elsewhere have over forty millions invested in The Buckeye, all yielding 5%.

Certificates of Deposit are issued for large or small amounts. Interest from date, mailed or compounded semi-annually.

Safety of principal and surety of interest are assured by first mortgage loans on real estate, covered by millions of dollars' fire insurance; by paid-in capital $6,000,000, by reserve and surplus $1,792,000, and by insurance and surety bonds $5,400,000, carried at our expense.

Certificates require no renewal and no attention. They are always worth full face value, and money available.

Send money by registered letter, check, draft or money order.

The Buckeye State Building and Loan

36 EAST GAY ST. COLUMBUS, O. ESTABLISHED 1895

LAWYER SAYS ACCUSED WAS NOT AT SCENE

(Continued from Page One.)

two bullets striking Hill in the left breast, near the heart and their paths crossing in the lower lobe of the left lung. Hill's three companions, it is said, fled and notified Sheriff Frank Davis, who found Hill's body in a nearby ditch, the man having bled to death. Later that night Flint was arrested at the home of Charles Byrd, where the officers found him in bed.

Attorney I. F. Snyder, who, with Attorney Thomas A. Renick, represents Flint, made a brief statement to the jury in which he asserted that instead of being enemies the dead man and Flint had been the best of friends.

Parted As Friends.
Hill owed Flint $7 and he met him in Circleville the afternoon of Nov. 14 and paid him $4 on account, not paying Flint the remainder because he had other debts to meet, according to Attorney Snyder, who said that this settlement had been satisfactory to Flint. It is claimed that the men parted on good terms and that Flint never saw Hill again. The report that Flint was the slayer was started by a man who had been drunk all day and night, the defense says.

Flint, the defense says it will prove, went to the home of Burt Turner for supper that night and went from there to the residence of Charles Byrd where he spent the remainder of the evening until arrested by the county officers. The defense will base its case upon this alibi.

The state has summoned 11 witnesses and the defense has subpoenaed 23. The prosecution expects to conclude its case by Thursday evening. The defense attorneys predict that two days may be required to present their side and it thought probable that the case may not reach the jury until Monday.

Visit Shooting Scene.
When court opened Thursday morning the jurors were taken to the scene of the fatal shooting in charge of Sheriff Frank Davis and his deputies. Upon their return the taking of testimony started.

The first witness called by the state was Roy Myers, deputy county surveyor, who had surveyed the scene of the crime and who prepared a sketch of the scene, which was introduced into the evidence to aid the court in reference to various locations.

Myers was followed by Dr. O. H. Dunton, Pickaway county coroner, who gave his findings in the death of Hill and reported to the jury the result of the inquest he conducted. Dr. D. V. Courtwright, who had conducted the post mortem examination of Hill's body, described to the jurors the course of

Court News

REPLEVIN SUIT FILED

H. Monroe Crites has filed a civil action in the common pleas court against Lewis C. Hammel, a commission broker of Circleville. The plaintiff seeks to recover 120,000 pounds of Alaska seed peas, which he claims were purchased from Charles M. Squier of the firm of James M. Squier and Son by H. Monroe Crites and Herman Shade, doing business under the firm name of H. M. Crites and company.

Mr. Crites is now the sole owner of the firm. He is represented by Booth, Keating, Pomerene and Bulger of Columbus, and Charles Gerhardt of Circleville.

OBTAINS JUDGMENT

George Young has secured a judgment by confession against Milton G. Thomas and others for $707.77 at 6 per cent from Feb. 8, 1928. C. A. Weldon represents the plaintiff.

BANK GETS JUDGMENT

The First National bank of New Holland has secured a judgment by confession against A. H. McCafferty and others for $437.35 at 7 per cent from Feb. 8, 1928. Charles H. May represents the plaintiff.

NAMED ADMINISTRATRIX

Mrs. Myrtle M. Wolf has been appointed administratrix of the estate of her mother, Mrs. Martha Christy. The estate is estimated to be worth $2,500.

the bullets and how the wounds had caused his death.

Sheriff Takes Stand.

Sheriff Frank Davis was the last witness to take the stand during the morning session of the court. The sheriff told of receiving a report that there was trouble at the camp and that he and Deputy John Ward Jr., went there to investigate.

Arriving, they found a colored man, known by the name of "Jungles," crouched by the camp fire and then discovered the body of Hill lying in the nearby ditch. Sheriff Davis said he turned Hill over and saw the man was dead. After calling the coroner and assisted in getting the body into an ambulance, Sheriff Davis said he returned to the jail.

In a short time, he said, he was told that Flint was the man he wanted and meeting Charles Byrd went with him to the Byrd residence where Flint was found in bed. A search of the house by himself and Deputy Ward failed to disclose any weapon, the sheriff testified.

On cross examination by Attorney Snyder, the sheriff said he had been told by Earl Mallett, colored, that Flint was the slayer of Hill. Sheriff Davis also said that "Jungles," who was arrested, had been released two days later after his presence at the fire had been investigated. The whereabouts of "Jungles" is not known to him, the sheriff said.

FARM LOAN BANK SYSTEM DECRIED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Chaotic conditions in the Farm Loan Bank system were disclosed in the testimony of Eugene Meyer, farm loan commissioner, before the house appropriations committee made public today.

Meyer declared that when he was appointed commissioner and charged with the task of reorganizing the system he found the situation chaotic. The ability of joint-stock land banks to sell their bonds has been decreased by three receiverships and criminal indictments returned at Mankato, Minn., Kansas City, Kans., Kansas City, Mo., and Toledo, as well as by the difficulties that have developed with some of the banks, not in the hands of receivers, Meyer said.

Says Sam: At any rate, companionate marriage ought to save wear and tear on sashweights, picture wire, hammers and table legs.

COLUMBIA RECORDS

Three Records for 57c Saturday. 55-11. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

Advanced Engineering

40 miles per hour when NEW—62 mile speed later

New American Edition of STUDEBAKER'S ERSKINE SIX

$795
I. O. B. factory

G. L. SCHIEAR
115 Watt St. Phone 700

MARKET REPORTS

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET

Eggs, 25c; butter fat, 46c; hens, light, 22c; heavy, 22c; springers, heavy, 22c; light, 22c.
Quotations by the Circleville Produce Company.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET

Wheat, $1.38; new corn, 77c; oats, 45c.
Quotations by the Pickaway Grain Company.

PRODUCE MARKET

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Butter—Prints 53 1-2-54c; tubs 53-53 1-2c. Eggs—White 37-39c; current receipts 33-35c.

Live Poultry—Hens (heavy) 26-27c; hens (light 20-23c; roosters 16-17c; springers 26-27c; broilers 25-28c; ducks 25-27c; turkeys 40-43c; geese 23-26c.

Vegetables—Tomatoes, $7-$7.25; potatoes (Pa.) $3.15-$3.25 (150 lbs.); cabbage $1.35-$1.50 (bbl.). $1.23456 123456

PRODUCE MARKET

CLEVELAND, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Produce—Butter: 48-50c; firsts 45-46c; packing 28-30c.

Eggs: Extra 35c; extra firsts 34c; firsts 33c.

Oleo: Nut 20-21c; high grade animal oils 27-27 1-2c; lower grades 16-19c.

Cheese: York state new 30-31c. Poultry: Fowls 28-29c; roosters 16-17c; springers 28-29c; ducks 23-25c; geese 20-22c.

Apples: Ohio cold storage Baldwins $2.25-$2.30 bu.; Ben Davis $5 bbl.; Delicious $3 bu.

Cabbage: York state and Ohio $7-$10 a ton; 50-60c half bu. basket.

Potatoes: Home grown $1.15-$1.25 bu.; Minnesota $2.25-$2.50 (120 lb. sack); Ohio and Michigan $2.90-$3.00 (150 lb. bag); Wisconsin $2.75-$2.80 (150 lb. bag).

Sweet Potatoes: Jersey $1.60 a hamper.

Tomatoes: HH $3 half bu. Onions: Ohio white $2.40-$2.50 crate.

Cucumbers: Florida HH $2.50 a dozen.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Hogs—Receipts 36,000; market 10-15c higher; top $8.60; bulk $7.50-$8.50; heavy weight $8.00-$8.30; medium weight $8.25-$8.60; light weight $8.15-$8.60; light lights $7.50-$8.50; packing sows $7.00-$7.60; pigs $7.00-$7.85; holdovers 4,000.

Cattle — Receipts 8,000; market steady; calves — Receipts 3,000; market steady; Beef Steers—Good and choice $16.00-$18.00; common and medium $9.00-$15.00; yearlings $8.50-$17.50; Butcher Cattle—Heifers $7.00-$13.50; cows $6.75-$11.50; bulls $6.50-$10.50; calves $13.00-$16.50; feeder steers $10.00-$12.50; stocker steers $9.00-$11.50; stocker cows and heifers $6.00-$11.50.

Sheep—Receipts 10,000; market 15-25c higher; medium and choice lambs $15.00-$16.00; culls and common $11.50-$13.50; yearlings $12.00-$13.50; common and choice ewes $5.00-$9.50; feeder lambs $13.50-$15.00.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Cattle—Supply light; market steady; choice $14.00-$14.35; prime $13.50-$14.00; good $13.25-$13.75; tidy butchers $12.25-$13.00; fair $11.50-$12.25; common $9.00-$10.25; common to good fat bulls $8.50-$9.25; common to good fat cows $5.00-$8.50; heifers $10.00-$11.00; fresh cows and springers $50-$125; veal calves $17.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply 200; market steady; good $9; lambs 216.

Hogs—Receipts 1800; market active; prime heavy hogs $8.00-$8.75; heavy mixed $8.85-$9.00; mediams $9.25-$9.35; extreme heavies $8.40-$8.60; heavy Yorkers $9.20-$9.35; light Yorkers $8.25-$8.50; pigs $7.75-$8; roughs $6.75-$7.25; stags $6.75-$7.25.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Livestock—Hogs: Receipts 650; market 15-20c higher; heavies $8-$8.25; mediums and mixed $8.50-$8.75; heavy Yorkers $8.60-$8.85 light Yorkers and pigs $7.50-$8; roughs $6.50-$7.

Cattle: Steady; calves strong; choice $16-$17.

Lambs: steady; choice $15.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Grains opened lower today. Wheat was 1-8 to 3-8c lower. Corn 3-8 to 1-2c lower and oats 1-8c higher to 1-4c lower.

Opening grain quotations: Wheat — March 129 1-8; May 128 7-8 to 129; July 127 1-8 to 1-4.

Corn — March 91 3-8 to 5-8; May 93 3-4 to 94; July 94 7-8 to 95.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

COLDS THAT DEVELOPE INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent cough and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, (adv.)

ADMIRAL LEAHY

Rear Admiral William D. Leahy is chief of the bureau of ordnance of the United States navy.

diams $9.25-$9.35; extreme heavies $8.40-$8.60; heavy Yorkers $9.20-$9.35; light Yorkers $8.25-$8.50; pigs $7.75-$8; roughs $6.75-$7.25; stags $6.75-$7.25.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

TOLEDO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Livestock—Hogs: Receipts 650; market 15-20c higher; heavies $8-$8.25; mediums and mixed $8.50-$8.75; heavy Yorkers $8.60-$8.85 light Yorkers and pigs $7.50-$8; roughs $6.50-$7.

Cattle: Steady; calves strong; choice $16-$17.

Lambs: steady; choice $15.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Grains opened lower today. Wheat was 1-8 to 3-8c lower. Corn 3-8 to 1-2c lower and oats 1-8c higher to 1-4c lower.

Opening grain quotations: Wheat — March 129 1-8; May 128 7-8 to 129; July 127 1-8 to 1-4.

Corn — March 91 3-8 to 5-8; May 93 3-4 to 94; July 94 7-8 to 95.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

Oats — March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

DOROTHY GISH IS SPLENDIDLY CAST

Popular Star Has Leading Role
In Feature Picture at Metropolitan.

Madame Pompadour once more rules France and the heart of her royal master! History repeats itself and again does Pompadour find herself the center of all eyes. But this time it's on the screen. Dorothy Gish enacts the title role in British National's latest Paramount release "Madame Pompadour."

The picture has arrived at the Metropolitan. "Pompadour" is easily the best of the series which Miss Gish has made under Herbert Wilcox' direction. It combines the beauty of "Neil Gwyn" with the drama of "London" and the animated action of "Tip-Toes." In addition to Mr. Wilcox' splendid touches, the master hand of Supervisor E. A. Dupont may be found creeping in every once in a while. (Dupont will be remembered as the man who made "Variety.") And,

Whippet

TRADE INS

1928 CHEV. SEDAN
New Four-Wheel Brakes

1926 OAKLAND RDST.
Fine General Balloons

1925 FORD COUPE
Good—See this one

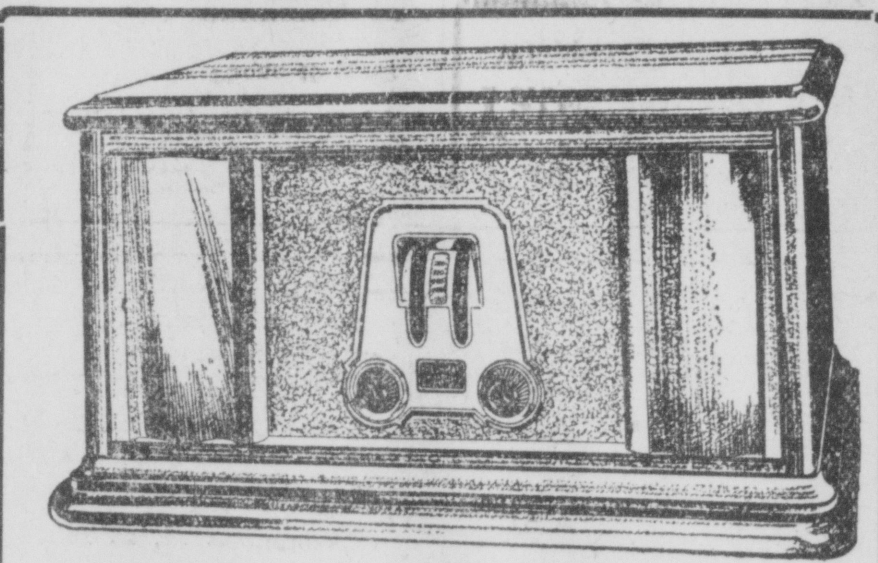

1926 CHEV. TOUR.
Get this price

1925 ESSEX
In best condition

1921 ESSEX SEDAN
One of those good four cylinder cars.

Several Others
30 Day Guarantee

Yates Motor Co.
Whippet—Willys-Knight

Freshman

World's Greatest Electric Radio

This Model G-1 is the Freshman Equaphase in a table model. The cabinet is of Genuine Mahogany. Electric ready to operate from your light socket.

Price $81.00

Battery Models as low as $29.50

All sets are guaranteed for 1 year, including tubes, and free service for 1 year.

Pettit Tire & Battery Shop

130 S. Court St.

Phone 214

SOW ACTION!---and

REAP A HABIT,

The Habit of Saving.

We pay 6% on Time Deposits.

BRUNSON

SAVINGS and LOAN CO.

Brunson Bank Building

145 North High Street

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

This institution is separate and distinct from the BRUNSON BANK & TRUST CO. which accepts checking accounts on its liberal plan.

Champ Rotarian Missed 4 Meetings In Fifteen Years

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The National Capital presents to the world, the world's greatest Rotarian.

He is George Plitt, 40-year-old Realty Broker. Plitt has missed but four weekly luncheon meetings in fifteen years. He has attended 793 meetings, at which he consumed while credits are being distributed so freely, let's give a little applause to handsome Tony Moreno, the hero; Frances Marion, the scenarist and Cameraman Roy Overbaugh.

approximately 2,000 chicken croquettes. He has paid $79.30 for hat checking, and $1,200 for luncheons. His meeting time aggregates about 3,000 business hours.

"Why did you do it?" Plitt was asked.

"Why not?" he answered good naturedly.

Noise Costs Money

Estimates place the cost of noise in the United States at $10,000,000 a week. The loss is due to inefficiency on the part of workers who can't concentrate in noisy places.

Men's red and blue Handkerchiefs, large size 4 for 38c Saturday.

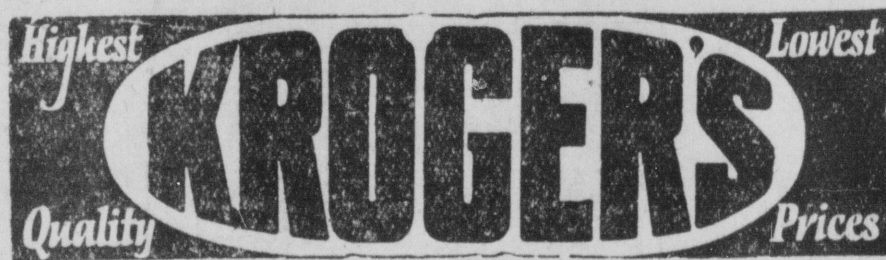

55-11. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

FOR SALE COLUMBUS PROPERTY

One of the best residences on Bryden Road; one of the best residence streets of Columbus. 13-room brick house, hot water heat, sun porches, big front porch; good sized lot, big garage in rear. Holding this house at $25,000; will take half, in a good clear farm. Balance on terms to suit purchaser. Get in touch with us about this.

The Drexel-Elliott Co., 66 E. Broad St., Main 3608.

We Buy
Eggs

Our Motto Service

Coffee

THE FAMOUS BRAND
"FRENCH"
SANTOS LB. 29c

42c

BUTTER

Four quarter pound cubes

53c

LARD

Absolutely Pure

lb.

13½c

OLEO

"Eatmore" Brand

lb.

19c

CIGARETTES

FIVE POPULAR

WEATHER
Partly cloudy, with snow flurries in northeast portion tonight. Friday fair.

The Circleville Herald

A CONSOLIDATION of THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and CIRCLEVILLE UNION-HERALD.

READ THE
CLASSIFIED ADS
DAILY

Thirty-Fourth Year, Number 55.

CIRCLEVILLE OHIO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1928.

Three Cents.

CIRCLING the CIRCLE

—Read and use The Circleville Herald classified ads.

—The worst smeller is usually the best seller.

—The "get" is the hardest part of the budget.

—When it comes to a probe Senator Borah is well named.

—Usually, when the husband begins producing, the wife begins reducing.

—When it is necessary to raise money, Europe always "sees America first."

—Oil eliminates friction, except in the machinery of international relations.

—The stockless woman of today is probably the daughter of the barefoot boy of yesterday.

—They say Lindbergh does not smoke, chew, drink or go to parties. It is no wonder he can fly.

—Another warm spring rain in Circleville Wednesday afternoon. Anyone seen the first robin?

—The direct federal appropriation for co-operative extension service in 1926-27 was $1,640,568.

—There isn't any wild west any more, so just where is a young man supposed to go?

—A Miss Crook is a prohibition agent working out of Chicago. Now all the service needs is a Mr. Hook.

—Science can predict an eclipse of the sun over a period of several years in advance, but cannot predict a blowout over the week-end.

—The best way to grow seedlings is in a greenhouse, with ample cold frames for transplanting and hardening off.

—Again we ask, what has become of Circleville's boulevard light proposition? Let's light up the city. This isn't a village.

—During 1927 the American Guernsey Cattle Club officially approved the records of 2048 Guernsey cows.

—Spreading lime in the winter, Wisconsin farmers have found, "rushes the season" when growing weather starts, and also lightens the well-known spring rush of work.

—Members of the Carroll County Farm Bureau received rebates in January totalling $818.52, on feed and fertilizer purchased through the Bureau from July, 1927, to Jan. 1928.

—Do you get a laugh out of "Just Kids"? Cream puffs, not scum puffs? That's human, and there's a lot of good advice. We'll bet if you have children they're wild about it.

—The Herald is in receipt of the Los Angeles, Cal., Daily Times, sent by Charles H. Niles, who is wintering in California. The edition carries 36 pages and is brim full of telegraphic news.

—Do you have a room for rent? A house for sale? Or want to buy something? Or sell something? If so, telephone 782 and give your classified ad to The Circleville Herald. These little ads just cost a cent a word and you can tell your story for a quarter.

—The dominant desire of the American woman is to be thin without exercising or dieting. The dominant desire of the American man is to learn to play the saxophone or the Hawaiian guitar in six easy lessons by mail.—Elmer Davis.

—A tree limb struck Fannie Broyles, a Virginia girl on the head. She was unable to move or speak. Picked up for dead she was prepared for burial. All night before the day of the funeral she lay in her coffin conscious, but unable to speak or to signal those who believed her dead. Then she listened to her own funeral sermon preached over her coffin. At the last moment her brother, James, who stood by with other mourning relatives, noticed a twitching of his sister's eyelids. Efforts to revive the girl were begun. In a short time she could talk, and, under a physician's care, is now declared to have fully recovered. Had the body been embalmed there would have been no fear of burial alive, as that process makes death certain.

FLINT'S DEFENSE WILL REST ON ALIBI

Jury To Decide Fate of William Hickman Today

QUICK VERDICT IS ANTICIPATED IN NOTED CASE

Defense Counsel Will Demand New Trial If Child Slayer Is Found to Be Sane.

By ARTHUR MAREK
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
LOS ANGELES, Calif. Feb. 9.—The fate of William Edward Hickman will be placed today in the hands of four women and eight men who must decide whether he was sane or crazy when he stole and slew 12-year old Marion Parker.

The trial of Hickman which has developed into an insanity hearing heard its close today as opposing counsel prepared their final arguments.

Defense counsel, Richard Cantillon, was ready to finish his address to the jury when the trial resumed.

Instructions Prepared
He was to be followed by District Attorney Asa Keyes who will close for the prosecution.

Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco was reported to have prepared his instructions to the jury.

With less than three hours remaining for the arguments, the case was expected to be given to the jury early this afternoon.

Expect Verdict Soon
Court attaches predicted a speedy verdict.

Jerome Walsh, chief defense counsel, has indicated he will demand a second trial for Hickman if the jury finds he was sane and responsible for his crime.

The new trial will be sought, Walsh explained, on the grounds Hickman is now sane.

MRS. HUDSON DIES AT RESIDENCE HERE

Aged Colored Woman Highly Respected in City—Funeral Will Be Saturday.

Dolly Patton Hudson, widow of Noah G. Hudson, died at her home at 221 East Mound street, at 2 o'clock Thursday morning.

She was born in Huntsville, Alabama, in 1859, the daughter of Alexander and Caroline White Patton. She is survived by two sons and two daughters, Guy Hudson, of Springfield; Emma Hudson, of St. Louis, Mo., and Robert and Margie Hudson, of Cleveland.

Of her immediate family, a brother and two sisters survive. They are James Patton, of Cleveland and Mrs. Emma Lee of Cleveland, and Mrs. Maggie Toles, of this city.

Mrs. Hudson was one of the members of a pioneer colored family that came to this city years ago. She was a woman who was well thought of by her associates and was respected by those who knew her.

The funeral services will be held from the church of which she was a member, the African Methodist church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Cotton will officiate. Interment will be in Forest cemetery in charge of Mader and Ebert.

DEATH CALLS AGED LANCASTER WIDOW

Mrs. Sarah Baker, 77, died Wednesday morning at 1:45 o'clock at her home, 1183 North Columbus street, Lancaster. The deceased was the widow of William M. Baker.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Omer E. Neff, of the home, one sister, Mrs. Caroline Valentine, of Stoutsville; two brothers Louis F. Crites and W. T. Crites also of Stoutsville; also two grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the home in Lancaster with Rev. Scheely of Stoutsville, assisted by Rev. Harvity of the Grace Reformed church officiating. Interment will be in Forest Rose cemetery.

Slain Girl's Teacher

Naomi Britton, one of Marian Parker's school teachers, takes the stand in Los Angeles to testify against William Edward Hickman during his trial for the murder of the little girl.

SUSPECT SAYS HE KILLED HIS SISTER-IN-LAW

Confesses Slaying Occurred After Attack—Body Was Thrown in River.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—William Herron, 41, confessed slayer of his 23-year-old sister-in-law, Viola May, was under heavy guard today while authorities continued dragging the Tuscarawas River in an effort to find the girl's body.

Herron admitted choking the girl to death when she resisted his advances, according to County Prosecutor James Patrick. He then drove to a bridge spanning the river at Dover, and dropped the girl's body into the water.

Told of Kidnaping
The murder occurred Tuesday night, Herron appeared at the John Henig farm near here at 2 a. m., yesterday and told how two armed men had attacked him and kidnaped the girl. Conflicting details developed in his story during the day and after intensive questioning he broke down and confessed, Patrick said.

Miss May and a girl friend, Evelyn Fretz, visited the former's sister (also Herron's wife) Tuesday night. The attack on Miss May occurred after Herron had driven Miss Fretz to her home and was enroute home with Miss May.

Attempts Attack
Herron said he drove to a gravel pit on the Dover-Canton highway and parked. He then attempted to attack the girl, and a violent quarrel ensued, according to Patrick. Apparently enraged, Herron choked the girl, then drove to the Dover bridge where he dropped the body into the river.

"I choked her," Patrick said Herron declared. "I guess I choked her too long."

The Sheriff's office was called after Herron showed up at the Henig farm. His automobile was found abandoned. Buttons from Miss May's coat, a ragged piece of her skirt, and her glasses, the lenses broken, were found in the bottom of the machine. Herron's story of the supposed kidnaping, followed.

SHIP SINKS; 10 DIE

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Ten members of the crew of the Dutch governmental sailboat Zeeuw were drowned and thirty were saved when the vessel foundered near Soerabaya, according to a message received here today from Java.

"RICHEST MAN" PROBABLY TO TELL OF DEALS

Senate Desires to Know Magistrate's Opinion of Stewart's Transactions

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—John D. Rockefeller Jr., was subpoenaed today by the Senate Public Lands committee to appear as a witness Saturday in the new Teapot Dome inquiry.

The United States marshal at New York City was asked to serve the subpoena on the so-called "richest man in the world."

Rockefeller will be called to tell what he knows about the Continental Trading company's mysterious $50,000,000 oil deal and its even more mysterious $3,080,000 liberty bond "slush fund."

Rockefeller is not expected to divulge any new information but the committee was convinced that he ought to be put on the witness stand to prove that the largest stockholders in the oil companies involved knew little or nothing about the mysterious deals.

Chairman Of Board
Rockefeller came into the picture because he is chairman of the board of trustees of the Rockefeller foundation, which virtually owns the Standard Oil company of Indiana. The latter concern in turn owned half of the Sinclair crude oil company, which bought fifty per cent of the oil from the Continental at $1.75 a barrel, which bought it the same day for $1.50 a barrel from A. E. Humphreys, Texas oil man. The Continental made $3,080,000 on the deal.

Two motives prompted the senate public lands committee to summon Rockefeller as a witness. First, some senators wanted him called to prove that the committee was "playing no favorites."

Second, other senators felt he should take witness stand to show that Rockefeller did not approve of the action of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the Standard of Indiana, when the latter defied the committee.

Talesmen From First Special Venire Summoned in Bribery Prosecution.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 9.—With eight of their ten peremptory challenges remaining for both state and defense, selection of a jury in the trial of Governor Ed. Jackson was believed to be still many hours away as the court session opened today.

Talesman from the first special venire were called to fill the holes in the regular court panel that came into existence during the first day of Jackson's trial for alleged attempted bribery of former Governor Warren T. McCray.

The members of the tentative jury, which included seven of the original panel, spent the night at the hotel Washington, after being admonished by special Judge Charles M. McCabe to keep silent about the case and to allow no one to talk to them concerning the issues involved.

BUCKLEY OPPOSES GAS TAX RAISE
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—The present three-cent gas tax will net the state $25,000,000 this year, State Treasurer Buckley said today, declaring he would fight more to increase the tax from three to five cents.

Rumors were circulated in Youngstown Buckley said that a movement to boost the tax was underway.

HONOR IS PAID TO CIRCLEVILLE YOUTH
Grover C. Moore, a Circleville boy, who entered the Logan Gas Company's service at Elyria, O., last August, has been signally honored by Congressman Mell Underwood of the Eleventh Ohio District, with an unexpected and unsolicited appointment as cadet in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Owing to slightly impaired vision, however, he has decided not to take the examination for admittance.

Grover graduated from the Circleville high school last year, and had the unusual honor of having been Class President for four years. Since being orphaned when a mere baby by his parents' death, he has lived with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Heiskell, of 335 East Union street.

Medical Experts To Examine Results Of Operation In Gland Rejuvenation
VIENNA, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The first two Viennese "rejuvenated" by the famous gland operations of Dr. Voronoff, have been presented for examination at a meeting of the Vienna Medical society. Their identity was hidden behind face masks.

Dr. Emmanuel Schleyer, who performed the operations, followed the rules laid down by Dr. Voronoff, originator of that class of operations. He said that the ape from which the glands had been taken were sent to him by Dr.

In Bribery Case

Eighteen months in prison and a fine of $5,000 was the sentence meted out to Thomas W. Miller of Wilmington, Del., former alien property custodian, in New York, when he was found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government by accepting bribes.

SEEKING JURY FOR TRIAL OF GOV. JACKSON

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 9.—With eight of their ten peremptory challenges remaining for both state and defense, selection of a jury in the trial of Governor Ed. Jackson was believed to be still many hours away as the court session opened today.

Talesman from the first special venire were called to fill the holes in the regular court panel that came into existence during the first day of Jackson's trial for alleged attempted bribery of former Governor Warren T. McCray.

The members of the tentative jury, which included seven of the original panel, spent the night at the hotel Washington, after being admonished by special Judge Charles M. McCabe to keep silent about the case and to allow no one to talk to them concerning the issues involved.

BUCKLEY OPPOSES GAS TAX RAISE
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—The present three-cent gas tax will net the state $25,000,000 this year, State Treasurer Buckley said today, declaring he would fight more to increase the tax from three to five cents.

Rumors were circulated in Youngstown Buckley said that a movement to boost the tax was underway.

HONOR IS PAID TO CIRCLEVILLE YOUTH
Grover C. Moore, a Circleville boy, who entered the Logan Gas Company's service at Elyria, O., last August, has been signally honored by Congressman Mell Underwood of the Eleventh Ohio District, with an unexpected and unsolicited appointment as cadet in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Owing to slightly impaired vision, however, he has decided not to take the examination for admittance.

Grover graduated from the Circleville high school last year, and had the unusual honor of having been Class President for four years. Since being orphaned when a mere baby by his parents' death, he has lived with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Heiskell, of 335 East Union street.

Medical Experts To Examine Results Of Operation In Gland Rejuvenation
VIENNA, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The first two Viennese "rejuvenated" by the famous gland operations of Dr. Voronoff, have been presented for examination at a meeting of the Vienna Medical society. Their identity was hidden behind face masks.

Dr. Emmanuel Schleyer, who performed the operations, followed the rules laid down by Dr. Voronoff, originator of that class of operations. He said that the ape from which the glands had been taken were sent to him by Dr.

CUBA IGNORING DIPLOMATS TO HONOR LINDY

Tremendous Welcome Is Given Aviator on His Arrival At Havana.

HAVANA, Feb. 9.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will make a non-stop flight from Havana to St. Louis Monday.

He planned to take off at dawn on the trip which will be about 1200 miles. The Spirit of St. Louis will be gone over thoroughly before the long flight.

HAVANA, Feb. 9.—(INS)—A great international conference between the Republic of North, Central and South America may be going on here today but Havana and, indeed, the whole island of Cuba had eyes only for one man—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

The flush of Havana's magnificent welcome to the flying colonel has not worn off the iota and today everyone from the Cuban citizens to the officials and their own and sister governments rushed to do honor to the "Caballero Del Aire" and to gather in cheering crowds wherever it was reported Col. Lindbergh might be seen.

To Attend Ball
At noon today Col. Lindbergh was to be honored at a luncheon given by the officers of the Cuban army at Camp Columbia. Later he was to go to a ball at the Yacht club at which most of the delegates to the Pan-American congress will be present.

The newspapers today were filled with Col. Lindbergh's doings and printed editorials on his achievements as an emissary of good will.

The general city-wide reception to Col. Lindbergh as he dropped from the sky yesterday afternoon after completing his flight from Haiti in perfect time was something which will be remembered by every Cuban.

As the Spirit of St. Louis was sighted from the historic Morro Castle, the last stronghold of old Spain, sirens screamed, whistles shrieked and the horns of automobiles and the bells of street cars filled the air.

After the reception at the field, a motor procession was formed to escort Col. Lindbergh to the presidential palace where President Machado greeted him officially in his greeting. President Machado included one for Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, the aviator's mother.

Capacity House Sees Lodge Show
A capacity house witnessed the presentation Wednesday night at the Grand theater of "Deacon Dubbs," a rural comedy, by a high-capable cast from Eastwood lodge, Uniform Rank, K. of P., of Columbus. The audience was well pleased with the play.

Nearly $100 will go into the treasury of Philos lodge, K. of P., for the benefit of which the play was given.

More than 50 members of the Columbus lodge came to Circleville for the play. This number included the members of the cast and 35 band members. The band gave a brief concert and had a short parade on Court street preceding the show. Music for the entertainment was provided by a 12 piece orchestra.

SAMPSON FINED ON GUILTY PLEA
Clyde Sampson, who was recently arrested on the charge of having intoxicated liquor in his possession, was arraigned before Judge Joseph W. Adkins in probate court Wednesday and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $150 and costs, which he paid and was released.

Kresge Divorce Near

Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge has completed her litigation against her husband, Sebastian S. Kresge, chain store operator. The divorce battle started in Michigan and is now terminating in New York, with all indications pointing to a decree for the wife.

FRENCH FLYERS GIVEN TRIBUTE IN WASHINGTON

Daring Airmen Entertained by National Leaders After 20,000 Mile Trip.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The Capital was under two flags today as official and diplomatic circles repaid to flying sons of France the reception accorded Colonel Lindbergh in Paris last summer.

The airmen had flown approximately 20,000 miles over four continents since they left Paris last October.

Feted by diplomatic and military groups at the French Embassy last night following their arrival at the army field shortly after four o'clock, the aviators were guests today of aviation circles and the general public, two cabinet members, the acting Secretary of State and a host of high-ranking military and naval officials made up the colorful and enthusiastic throng which hailed the flyers upon their arrival.

Following their presentation to President Coolidge at the White House this morning by Ambassador Claudel, they will be guests at a hotel luncheon given by the "Air Cabinet," composed of the three aviation Secretaries of the War, Navy and Commerce Departments.

PIERCE CHILD IS MAKING RECOVERY
Mrs. Bryan Pierce visited her daughter, Mary Elizabeth, at Mt. Carmel hospital in Columbus Thursday. The little girl, who is undergoing treatment for her leg is now wearing a brace and is able to walk without support.

KILLED BY TRACTION
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—(UP)—James T. Cross, 70, building contractor was fatally injured at Reynoldsburg, near here last night when he backed his automobile into the path of a traction car.

LAWYER SAYS ACCUSED WAS NOT AT SCENE

Prisoner Was in Circleville at Time of Shooting, Trial Jury Is Told.

Not guilty because of the fact that he was not present at the scene or at the time of the fatal shooting of John Henry Hill will be the sole defense of James Flint, alias Walter Brown, who is on trial in the Pickaway county common pleas court on an indictment charging him with first degree murder in connection with the death of the former railroad laborer.

This defense came more or less as a surprise to a crowded court room late Wednesday afternoon when the state and the defense attorneys made their statement to the jury which was empaneled at 4:15 o'clock.

The jury was finally completed after three days' work, during which 102 prospective jurors were examined. The last juror to qualify was W. B. Cady.

Members of Jury.
The jury which will decide the fate of the colored defendant is composed of P. L. Johnson, George Presler, Mrs. Anna Ball, Mrs. Ed McClaren, Miss Mary Marfield, Mrs. F. B. Brunner, George Hindrod, Cecil Biggs, F. A. Cryder, Mrs. Jennie Swoyer, Mrs. Clara Tedrick and Mr. Cady. The jury is evenly divided between men and women, there being six of each.

In his statement to the jury of what the state expects to prove in gaining a guilty verdict under the indictment, Prosecutor E. A. Brown outlined his version of the circumstances which lead up to and precipitated the slaying.

James Flint, he said, was a foreman in a Chesapeake and Hocking railroad construction gang and with John Henry Hill and other employees of the company lived at a camp at Bell's siding.

Loaned Flint Money.
Work on that section of the road was completed and on Nov. 14, 1927, the men were discharged and paid off. A number of the men, Hill included, came to Circleville to cash their checks preparatory to going toward Chillicothe to obtain work on another section of the construction project.

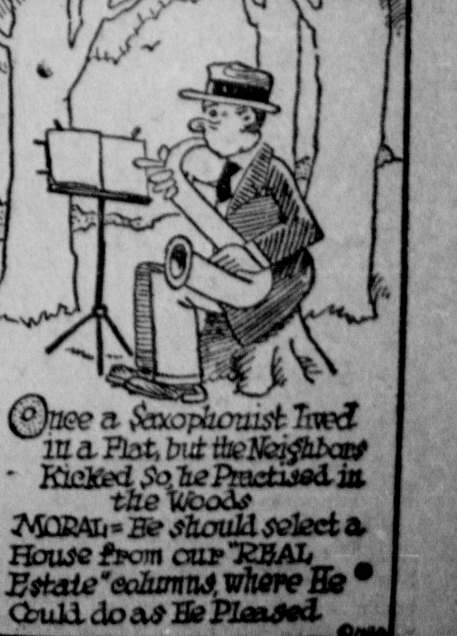

Flint, according to the prosecutor, had loaned money to Hill and when the latter came to Circleville he was followed by Flint. The state will endeavor to show by the evidence that Flint asked for Hill and other men, saying that if he was not paid what was due him they would be killed.

According to the state's claim, Hill and three companions left Circleville and went to the crossing south of the city where the C. and O. crosses the Pennsylvania railroad. There they built a camp fire while waiting for a freight train which they could board and ride south.

Struck, Then Shot.
About 10 p. m., the state says, Flint came down the railroad track to the fire and approached Hill, who was kneeling on the ground. The prosecution will endeavor to show that Flint asked Hill for his money, then struck him and when Hill endeavored to rise, took a .32 calibre revolver and pulled the trigger four times.

Twice, the prosecutor asserts, the gun missed fire, but the next two times it was discharged, the (Concluded on Page Eight)

AD FABLES

PREDICTS REED TO BE NOMINEE OF HIS PARTY

Former Governor of Missouri
Says Senator Has Created
And Defined Issues.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 9 — (INS)—Although prohibition "will not be a burning issue" at the Democratic national convention in Houston, the Democratic party should oppose "employment of government snoopers and spies." This was the opinion expressed to International News Service today by former Governor Frederick D. Gardner of Missouri.

Chosen as the spokesman of his party to launch formally the candidacy of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri for the presidency, the war-time governor of Missouri believes that Senator Reed "who has created and defined issues between the parties" will be the compromise candidate upon whom the Democrats eventually will agree.

The Reed candidacy, former Governor Gardner said, will be launched when the Missouri Democrats meet in state convention at St. Joseph, Mo., on Feb. 28. "Senator Reed has been the outstanding figure in the senate for the past three years," Gardner declared in an interview here today. "No one candidate can at once command the two-thirds majority necessary for the nomination. I believe all the candidates ultimately will unite on Senator Reed."

Stoutsville

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glick and family, of Logan, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Courtright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leist and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Swank had for their guests Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rife.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hampp and little daughter, Ruth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hampp and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stein and daughter, of Circleville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stein, Thursday night and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hitchcock and family, of Circleville, visited with Miss Alice Baird, and Mr. Hitchcock attended the K. of P. lodge, Friday evening.

Class No. 9 of the Lutheran Sunday school, will hold their monthly meeting Friday evening, Feb. 10, on account of the Indian banquet. Thursday, the meeting will be held at Mrs. Russel Creager's. Don't forget the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Winn entertained with a birthday party, Wednesday, Feb. 1, in honor of their daughter, Evelyn. Those present were: Miss Violet Chester, Catherine Leist, Elva Boyer, Mary Boyer, Pauline Winn, Donald Leist, Howard Leist, Robert Leist, Ray Leist, Clyde Leist, Jr., Robert Goodchild, Earnest Young, Delvin Smith, Paul Winn, Harvey Winn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crites and son, Sonny, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Owens, Miss M. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Stout. The evening was spent in playing games, and all departed at a late hour, wishing Miss Evelyn many more happy birthdays.

Miss Helen Rife was the guest of Miss Florence Hoffman, last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Paul Kull and daughter, Lois Ann, of Columbus, were the guests of Miss Alice Baird from Friday until Sunday. Mr. Paul Kull arrived Saturday eve, and his wife accompanied him home Sunday evening.

Miss Genevieve Valentine spent last Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rife.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crites were Circleville visitors Saturday evening.

Miss Altha Warner, of Lancaster, O., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Warner, over the week-end.

Pythian Sisters had a fine crowd at Lodge meeting last Wednesday evening. After the business meeting, apples and freshly popped corn were served by Sister Helen Rife and Sarah Stein, which all declared to enjoy very much. A social hour was spent in games. All departed at a late hour.

Mr. John Hitt, of Circleville, was a business visitor in our city, Tuesday afternoon.

Speeds Up

Stenographers desiring to increase their speed in shorthand find that taking down radio sermons or talks is a good way to do it.

VIRGINIA WHITE ASH LUMF
$4.75 per ton on yard and $5.25 delivered.
N. T. WELDON KOAL CO.

DEAD ANIMALS REMOVED

Phone 1364.

Reverse the Call

Circleville Fertilizer Works

1-5-11.

MAJ. H. C. DAVIDSON

Maj. Howard C. Davidson, one of the pioneer flyers of the army air service, has been named to the important post of commandant of Bolling field, Washington, to succeed Maj. Harvey S. Burwell. Major Davidson was born in Texas thirty-seven years ago and is a graduate of the United States Military academy class of 1913.

Famous Relic of Past

The Circus of Romulus of Maximus, built in 311 A. D., is the most perfect circus surviving. It is 1,580 feet long and 200 feet wide. The outer wall remains almost complete, and the central spina, 352 feet long, can be traced throughout. At the west end, between two towers, are the chief entrance and 12 pairs (arcades) for competing chariots; the east end is semi-circular.

Beauty of Single Column

For thousands of years the world's famous architects and designers have found nothing so beautiful and worthy in building as the simple, classical column. The beauty of these fluted columns has been made available for use on every kind of structure, from the modest cottage to large public buildings, by the principle of pressed steel column construction.

The Solemnest Man

Even in church, where competition is serious, he was easily the most solemn member of the congregation.—Woman's Home Companion.

Letters To the Editor

Investigate Roofing

Editor, The Circleville Herald:—

For several years the property owners of Circleville and Pickaway county have been solicited by out of town salesmen getting contracts for re-roofing their property. It has been the policy of these transient roofing solicitors to give the owners many years guarantee on the material, but when an investigation was made they have found these guarantees to be worthless. A guarantee is only good when backed by the actual cash or by some on whom you know and whose word is his guarantee. Since not many property owners know the price of roofing materials or the number of squares in the roof, these men were able to get some of this work but upon checking them up, it was found, the owner paid for much more material than he received.

A quality roof, properly installed, should last many years, but since these men were not established in business, in Circleville, their guarantee, which had legal flaws, would be of no value to the property owners. Should the roof prove defective, which was often the case, the owner would be unable to locate the man who did the work and could get no adjustment.

If any property owner should be solicited for this work or contemplate having roofing work done it would be to their advantage to phone a local dealer for an estimate. These men carry quality roofing, will be glad to give an estimate on the complete cost, and are established in business to fulfill their guarantee. This will assure the property owner of getting his roofing at a just price.

Turkish Coffee

In order to make coffee as served in Turkey only the darker grades of coffee, such as pure mocha, should be used. The coffee is made much stronger than in the United States, about one ounce of coffee to three cups of water being the formula. The coffee is placed directly in the water and the whole brought to a boil. It is then sweetened to the consistency of sirup, but no cream is put in it.

Star's Changing Names

Venus was called Lucifer by the ancients when it was a morning star and Hesperus when an evening star.

backed by a reliable dealer in this community.

A Reader.

Editor, The Circleville Herald:

Companionate Marriage
A hundred years hence, At our present pace, The things that's sinful now, Will cease to be disgrace; Companionate marriage then, Antiquated and old, A substitute will thus appear, More modern, vain and bold.

We'll cease to have a marriage vow, Or any rites at all, Perhaps, we'll cease to have a home, But make companionate calls; Admit out object then, Without a blushing face, Thus we'll say the modern way, Perpetuate the race.

The female sex will then give birth, Without the slightest pain, The child that's born unto them, Will bear its mother's name; Thus a father we have known, In ancient days we lived, Has 'nt the slightest meaning now, We know not who he is.

No advocates of birth control, No attempt at limitation, There'll be a cry to save the race, From swift extermination; The intercourse thus brought about,

With passions running wild, The daughter God, intend you love, May bring you forth a child.

Science has taught us many times Ere this way begin, Infusion of blood by marriage state,

Would give us weaker men; Heeding not the warning then, But seeking now redress, We admit the ancient marriage rite, And view our retrogress.

Conspicuous now, we behold, Born, to women Sons, Deformed and doomed to misery here, Ere this life is done;

Thus we haste a long retreat, And ask our sins forgiven, And the God we scorned upon our way,

To write our names in heaven. Harlan C. Allen, Ashland, Kentucky.

DR. J. R. DEVEREUX

Dr. John Ryan Devereux of Chevy Chase, Md., has been appointed medical director for the Catholic Near East Welfare association. He will have his headquarters in the Balkans.

Hawk Bests Lineman

While working in a tower on power lines near Saugus, Calif., an electric company lineman saw a bird's nest and he shoved it over with his hand. A hawk flew out and attacked the man so viciously that he fell from the tower. He was taken to the hospital with a broken leg, two fractured ribs and some bruises.

Detects Thunderstorms

A radio device has been perfected to give notice of approaching thunderstorms. A detector starts ringing a bell at intervals when a storm is still 200 miles away. When the storm is only half an hour distant, though the sky may still be clear, the bell rings continuously.

Babies Love It

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infants' and Children's Laxative.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SYRUP

Saltcreek Valley

Charles Wilson is in Pittsburgh this week, having gone with a car load of lambs, of his own feeding. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mowery, Herman, Curtis, Cernice and Helen Hinton, and Nelson Hall were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Walliser.

Mr. and Mrs. William Aldender were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Butterbaugh, of the Sixteenth section. The Dresbach U. B. Aid met at the home of Mrs. O. S. Mowery, Thursday.

The Lutheran Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. George W. Strouse, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ona Walliser has been on the sick list the past week, but is some better at this time.

The Spelling Match given at the Tarlton Community Hall, last Saturday evening by the ladies of the M. E. Aid, was a decided success. E. F. Strous was champion speller.

Quite a number from here attended the Comedy-Drama, "Deacon Dubbs," given at the Grand Opera House, Circleville, Wednesday eve. Lecturer H. N. Grice is making preparations to put on an extra good program at the next Grange meeting.

Great Day in History

"The Crisis," a pamphlet written by Thomas Paine, which profoundly affected public opinion in the American colonies early in the American Revolution, was placed on sale in Philadelphia book shops December 19, 1776.

Ancient Doxology

"Gloria in Excelsis" is one of the oldest Christian doxologies, eastern in origin and in use for more than 1,500 years.

Fairy Story

Once a man ordered a fresh fruit salad in a Broadway night club, and what the waiter brought, surrounded by two dollars' worth of ice, did not comprise two canned pears, one canned peach, two slices of canned pineapple, three slightly used grapes (fresh), and a maraschino cherry.

Feen-a-mint

The Laxative
You Chew
Like Gum

No Taste
But the Mint

69c DAYS

Three Big Days--Friday, February 10
Saturday, February 11 and
Monday, February 13

WONDERFUL VALUES OFFERED FOR THESE THREE DAYS ONLY.
GET YOUR SHARE OF THESE REAL BARGAINS.

69c DAYS

27-in. Bleached Outing Flannel, good medium weight, 17½c grade, 3 days' special, 6 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Plain Hem, Bleached Pillow Cases, 36x42 size, 29c value, 3 days' special, 3 for 69c

69c DAYS

Bordens Fast Color Prints yard wide, 29c grade, new patterns, 3 days' special, 3 yds. for 69c

69c DAYS

32-inch Dress Gingham, a good 18c value, check and plaid patterns, 3 days' special, 5 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Comfort Challies, full yard wide, fast colors, our 19c grade, 3 days' special, 5 yds. for 69c

69c DAYS

Yard Wide Percale in dark colors and print patterns, new selection of patterns, 3 days' special, 4 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

39-inch wide Unbleached Muslin, a regular 15c grade, soft finish, 3 days' special, 6 yds. or 69c

69c DAYS

Black Sateen, full yard wide, soft finish, 29c grade, 3 days' special, 3 yards or 69c

69c DAYS

Dimity Underwear, check pattern, all light shades, yard wide, 25c grade, 3 days' special, 4 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Hope Bleached Muslin, worth 18c a yard, 3 days' special, 5 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Pink, Blue and Yellow Border Bath Towels, 18x36 in., 3 days' special, 5 towels for 69c

69c DAYS

Fast Color Fashions, new spring patterns, 45c grade, 3 days' special, 2 yards or 69c

69c DAYS

Eerie Net Panel Curtains, with silk fringe, square mesh, 95c value, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot odd Panels and odd Pairs of Ruffled Curtains, slightly soiled, 95c to $1.50 grades, 3 days' special 69c

69c DAYS

All our 50c Boxed Letter Paper and Envelopes, white and colors, 3 days' special, 2 boxes for 69c

69c DAYS

Women's Fine Lisle Hose, in tan, grey, champagne, black or brown, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Women's House Dresses and Aprons, closed with belt and Hoover style, 95c grades, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot Women's Navy Blue and Brown Stripe Sateen Bloomers, our 89c grade, 3 days' special, a pair for 69c

69c DAYS

Figured Crash, fast colors, for covering furniture, etc., 30 inches wide, 48c value, 3 days' special, 2 yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Peter Pan Plain Color Gingham, fast colors, sells regularly for 59c yard, 3 days' special, 1½ yards for 69c

69c DAYS

Yard wide Figured, Plain Color Madras Draperies, 85c to 98c grades, 3 days' special, a yard 69c

69c DAYS

Children's 50c grade Scout Hose, black only, sizes 6, 6½, 7, 7½ and 8, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

12-M. All Silk Pongee, 32 inches wide, fine for underwear or draperies, 3 days' special, 1½ yards for 69c

69c DAYS

4-inch Blue and White Block Pattern, 4 yards wide Linoleum, 3 days special, sq. yd. 69c

69c DAYS

Men's 50c grade Plaid Silk Sox, wonderful values, big assortment of patterns, 3 days' special, 2 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Plain Blue Amoskeag, Chambray, triple stitched, two pocket, work shirts, 3 days' special each 69c

69c DAYS

Boys' Coveralls, assorted styles and colors, sizes 7 and 8 only, extra values, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Mixed Work Socks, regular 12½c grade, 3 days' special, 8 pairs or 69c

69c DAYS

All Men's and Boys' Cloth, Corduroy or Plush 98c Winter Caps, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Extra Heavy Blue All Wool Yarn Socks, 48c grade, 3 days' special, 2 pairs or 69c

69c DAYS

56-in. square Oilcloth Table Covers, in blue and white patterns, 85c grade, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

One lot Men's Dress Shirts, with or without collars, 98c grade, 3 days' special, each 69c

69c DAYS

Men's Rayon Silk Plaid Socks, 29c values, 3 days' special, 3 pairs for 69c

69c DAYS

Mens' Gauntlet Style Canvas Gloves with Leather Palms, 3 days' special 69c

69c DAYS

Sans Sanitary Napkins, one dozen in a box, 50c value, 3 days' special, 2 boxes for 69c

69c DAYS

4-inch Blue and White Block Pattern, 4 yards wide Linoleum, 3 days special, sq. yd. 69c

Werrenrath, Concert Star, Finds Lucky Strikes Kindly To His Precious Voice

"In my concert work, I must, of course, give first consideration to my voice. Naturally, I am very careful about my choice of cigarettes as I must have the blend which is kindly to my throat. I smoke Lucky Strikes, finding that they meet my most critical requirements."

Ronald Harwood

"The Cream of the Tobacco Crop" for Lucky Strikes says Tobacco Factory Man

"I am a factory man. I know the manufacture of Tobacco. I have been engaged in it for 45 years. If the public realized, as I realize, what 'Toasting' does to Tobacco, how it takes out every bit of harshness and every bit of bite, there would not be any Cigarette smoked in the United States, but LUCKY STRIKE."

James W. Fadden

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation-No Cough.

WILDER'S CASH STORE

West Main Street

DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE FOR EVERYBODY

Watch the Children Unfold in First Five Years of Life

FACULTIES DEVELOP WITH THE SENSES

Babies First Depend Upon Sense of Touch, Then Pass Swiftly to Use of All Other Instruments of the Brain.

By DR. LOUIS E. BISCH

THE more we learn about the development of children as regards mental and emotional processes, the more do we become convinced that the first five years are the most important of the entire life cycle.

LOUIS E. BISCH

The thoughts, feelings and experiences that children undergo in these early days have a marked influence upon their character later on.

It is interesting to enumerate some early developments.

Touch sensation is extremely marked at birth. This safeguards nutrition and the child's well being. If babies did not prefer to stimulate the mouth to any other part of the body they would probably starve to death.

Later we see a persistence of the pleasure derived from mouth stimulation in the habit children have of putting everything they can into the mouth. Although it is an annoying and also a dangerous habit from a health standpoint, it nevertheless is perfectly natural.

At about six months, tactile sensibility of the hands increases, and this may also persist. Children, we all know, are forever picking up things they shouldn't.

At about six months, also, children begin to perform voluntary muscular movements, while before they merely responded to stimuli in a purely reflex fashion. This is when imitation begins in movements and sounds.

A little later, we notice the earliest beginnings of reasoning. Children then begin repeating what has proved a source of pleasure to them. What they did not enjoy they do not repeat.

They also begin to understand the use of objects, that a spoon helps eating, etc.

Then the play instinct comes to the fore. By the end of the second year the child has passed through many experiences that have refined and made more perfect the motor movements. Creeping, climbing, walking and talking have developed apace. In the first year co-ordination of movement is very marked.

The first fifty words learned are the hardest. After that it is not unusual for a child to learn his vocabulary at the rate of from 20 to 100 words per month.

From four to six years is the period of most rapid physical growth. The growth is more rapid in Summer than in Winter. The height increases most rapidly in Spring and early Summer. Weight shows the greatest increase in the Fall of the year.

When the child is five years old the brain has already attained about 90 per cent of its size. Toward the end of the fifth year children are very active and they like to quarrel and have clashes with other children, also to disobey the parents.

The mind is developing rapidly now. Children are about this time continually asking questions and wanting to know "why." The child begins to talk in sentences and to carry on a conversation. They also like to draw and scribble.

At about the fourth year an interest develops in stories. Often they make up stories and delight in telling them.

Almost all the important activities start during those first five years, you see.

It's a big job the child has on his hands. We must bear that in mind and be patient.

Childhood is anything but an easy time.

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Some Odd Facts

Granite landmarks, numbering 240, stretch from the Swiss frontier to the seacoast of Belgium, indicating the limit of the enemy advance in the war.

China has the largest coal area in the world, 300,000 square miles.

More fruit is being eaten in England than ever before. Each one of the population consumes on an average 83 apples, 67 oranges, 52 bananas, and 15 lemons a year.

With a brilliant, green hood, blue leather upholstery, and a body painted in red-and-gold stripes, a new car has been built in England for the Emir of Kano, a Nigerian chief.

Today's Fashion

By Vera Winston

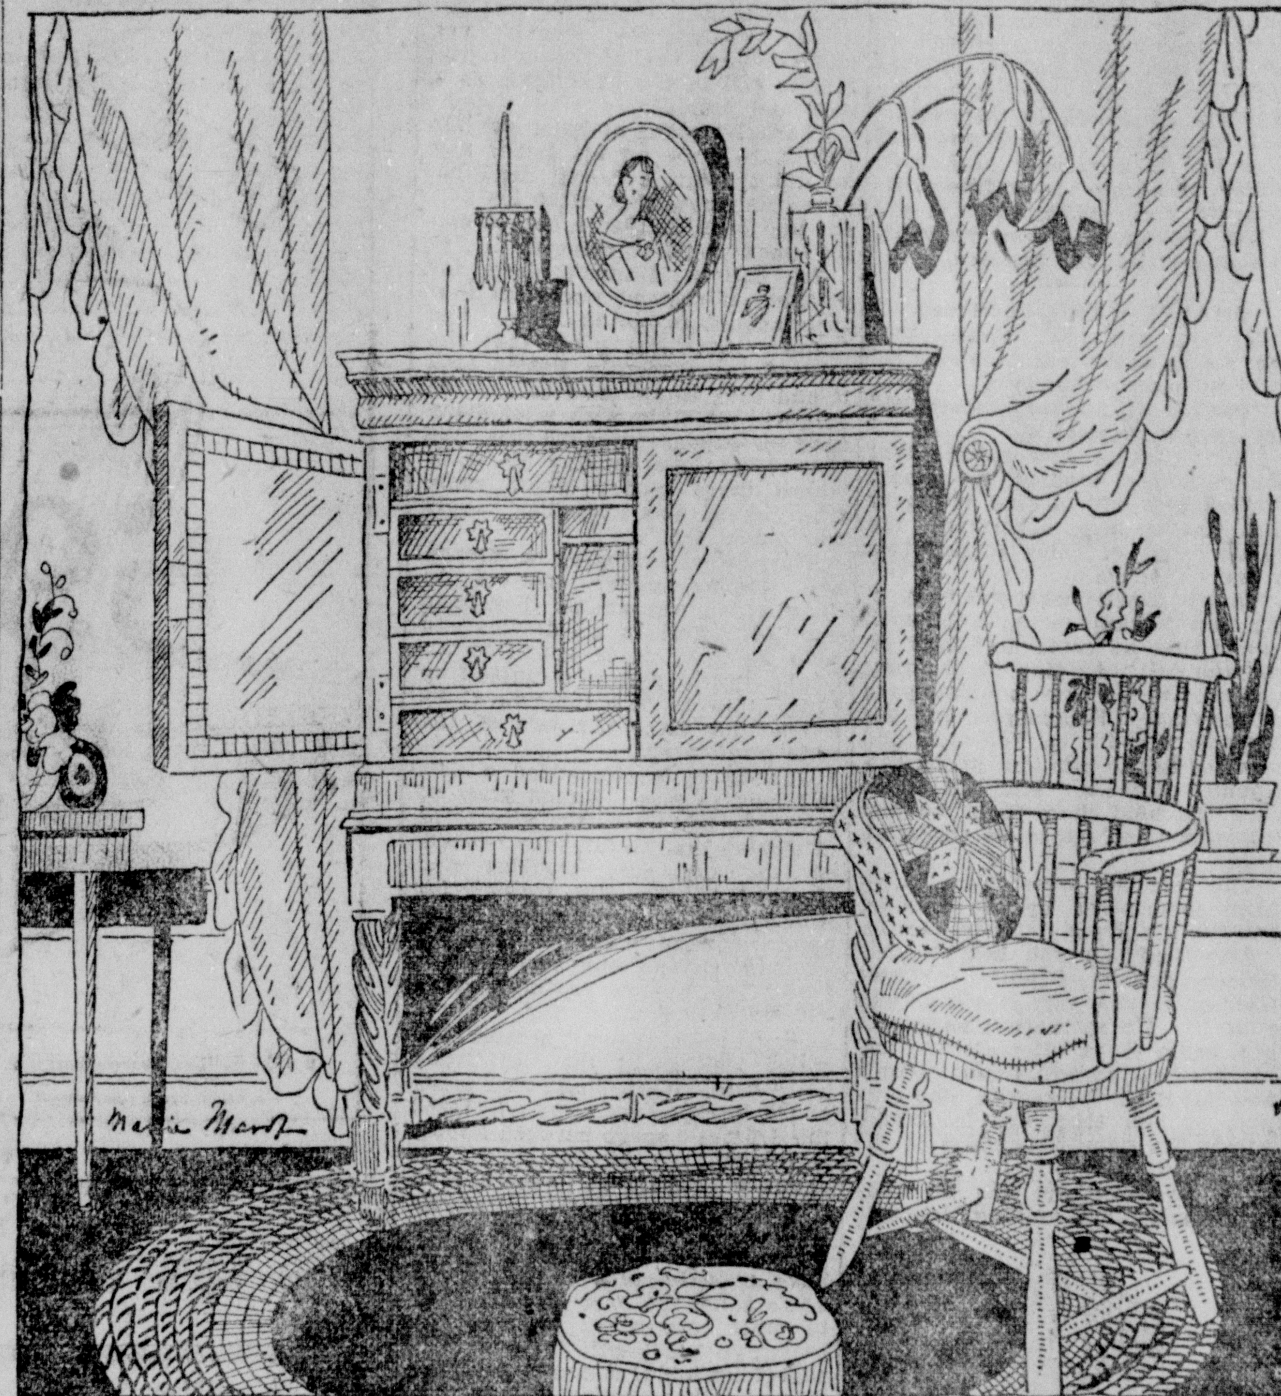

Beige Satin and Pearls Give Lustrous Effect.

HEAVY rose beige satin and a single pearl ornament are employed to great advantage in this afternoon frock. Skillfully draped, it is excellent for the woman who wishes to conceal just the slightest suspicion of plumpness and to add height to her stature. It is distinctly not a "flapper" mode, but has cool, calm, and dignified poise.

A short strand of pearls and pearl earrings add just the right lustrous note.

An Individual Living-Room -:- By Marie Marot

A ROOM should express your own individuality and personality. It is, then, much more livable and one is not likely to tire of it soon. There are some people who can achieve this effect with very little expenditure of money. It requires, of course, time, patience, and an artistic sense of the fitness of things.

The living room here shown certainly expresses the personality of the individual responsible for it. It has charm, comfort and a few artistic touches which brighten up the room.

The two outstanding pieces of furniture are the lovely cabinet of oak after the close of the Seventeenth Century and the "comb back" Windsor chair. These are genuine antique articles and add distinction to this charming room.

Advice to Girls -:- By ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 18 and am in love with a man 28 years of age. He has been divorced twice and has a little daughter. My family do not want me to go out with him. I love him and can't give him up. I am to elope soon. Please tell me what to do. WORRIED.

WORRIED: I should think the difference in your ages would discourage you from continuing this friendship. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer, temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not pretend it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a young man of 22 years. I have been going with a girl 3 years my junior for quite a long time. I do not love her but I have a date with her every three times a week. I am also very selfish in my regard to her. I want to love her, but can't. When I am with her now it seems as though the atmosphere requires the mentioning of marriage. She has told me that she would marry me. I don't love her and yet I hate to give her up. UNCERTAIN BILL.

UNCERTAIN BILL: What you probably need, my friend, is a little more time and a little less pressure. I would advise you to have a talk with this girl and explain to her frankly that you are uncertain of your feelings at the moment and that you prefer, temporarily at least, to disregard marriage as an issue. Since you have been seeing this girl so frequently over a long period of time, I am not surprised that you feel the necessity of mentioning marriage. It is not fair to take up so much of a girl's time unless you are considering that as a future issue. I would suggest that you do not attempt to interfere with her dates; allow her the freedom that is her due and do not pretend it if she goes out with others. It might be advisable to see her twice rather than three times a week for a while, or until you are convinced of your emotions one way or the other.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I have been going with a boy for about two or three weeks, and I believe he likes me. Although he doesn't act as if he does, I like him a lot and would like to continue our friendship. What shall I do? BLUE EYES.

BLUE EYES: Let this friendship progress of its own accord, my dear, and to further it do nothing but prove yourself an interesting and desirable companion. You have known this boy but a short time and I must caution against trying to rush him into a definite attitude. Cultivate this boy's interest by proving yourself in every way a charming and interesting person, and I am sure he will be more attracted to you.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3.

Of the good you do the tales do not go far, but miles away they know how bad you are.

Lotus Leaves.

This day carries many unfavorable aspects, according to the adverse position of several important planets. While Jupiter holds a propitious ray and may help money matters and bring other benefits, especially in the personal relations, yet there are dangers of fraud, treachery and evil and malicious report. Be cautious with all writings and be most circumspect, lest sensation-rumor assail the character. There is augury for sudden and spectacular movements.

Those whose birthday it is may look for certain benefits, perhaps in money matters and other valuable connections, but the personal affairs seem beset with uncertainties. Sudden moves, perhaps sensational are seen in connection with personal relations. Be discreet. A child born on this day should have many excellent traits and capabilities but may reach the limelight through some spectacular achievement.

Notable Nativities: Horace Greeley, founder N. Y. Tribune.

Three-Minute Journeys

By TEMPLE MANNING

Sacrificing Maidens in a Well.

IN 1924 the Carnegie Institution started excavations on the Peninsula of Yucatan, in Central America. Perhaps the most interesting discoveries made at this time were in the ancient city of Chichen Itza. In former days this was a prosperous and comparatively enlightened city.

But their enlightenment did not cover their religion. For, on the outskirts of the city was found a deserted well, nearly 200 feet in diameter and about 70 feet deep. This well, the Cenote of Sacrifice, was the spot where every year a beautiful maiden was sacrificed.

Processions of priests led a flower-bedecked maiden down the "Sacred Way," followed by the half-dressed people of the town. At the sacred pool, mad rites were performed, after which, in a frenzy, the victim was pushed over the edge of the well into the water. Then the witnesses of the ridiculous sacrifice rushed to the water's edge to throw potteries, carved wood and other treasures in an effort to appease the gods they would propitiate. People came from all over the country to take part in this sacrifice and all manner of precious things were found in the bottom of the well to attest to this.

And the rulers of the city, realizing that their yearly sacrifice was a dragging card to those who might

FONDLING OF PETS • NOT GOOD PRACTICE

Unwise to Permit Children to Take Cats or Dogs to Bed with Them or to Kiss Animals.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

United States Senator from New York.

Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

A CITIZEN of New Hampshire is disturbed about the practice of permitting children to take their pet cats and dogs to bed with them. He thinks it is detrimental to health to permit animals to share the room and bed of young children. He was shocked recently to see a child kissing a dog on its mouth.

I am with you, dear friend. It isn't wise or safe to make bedfellows of pet animals. It is disgusting for children to shower kisses upon the faces of animals.

There is a popular idea that a cat can "suck the air" of a child and cause its death. I don't believe this, but it is a fact, of course, that an animal close to the face can help to exhaust the air. It can rob the child of a lot of precious oxygen.

All pets are looked upon with suspicion as possible carriers of diseases. In its spare time a cat or dog wanders far from home and may bring back germs or pests which are dangerous.

One trouble with all animal pets is the possibility of their doing harm in moments of anger. The latent ferocity of the beast must not be overlooked. But it is not alone the angry outburst of the animal that is to be feared. Some big dogs and cats, even in playful spirit, may inflict serious injury to a child.

The human eye is a very delicate, as well as vitally important organ. It has remarkable power of resistance against accident and disease. In spite of this, however, a tiny scratch may be infected and produce results which end in loss of sight.

A friendly cat or dog may use its paw in such a way as to permit the claw to strike the eyeball. Then there may be serious secondary effects.

I love animals and it would make me feel sad if two dogs at my farm had to be destroyed because of any menace they might offer. But much as I love them, I realize how necessary it is to keep them more or less at arm's length. It is hard to do this when their joy they come at in a cyclonic greeting.

But it is wise to be extremely careful about pets which your children are to have. You must be very sure

Seen on 5th Ave.

By Miss Shopper.

Foxes promise to be even more important this Spring than last. Not only will they be worn with the dress and hat ensembles, but they will form an important part of the coat. Although belonging to the coat, they will be detachable, so that they may be worn with frocks as well.

The robe de style for evening wear still leads the fashion. The most popular materials are tulle, and tulle, and tulle. And the most popular line is the uneven hem.

Sports clothes are increasing in importance. There is hardly a day-time occasion where you cannot appear clad in a sporty and tailored go out, you will be interesting and bright people whose company will be sought after.

The scarf collar has come to stay—for at least a few more seasons. This becoming collar is seen on sports frock and evening gown alike.

The following furs promise to be the smartest for Spring wear: beige and platinum fox, for the long-haired group; and gray or natural lynx, bleached and dyed mole, platinum band beige broadtail, blond and black and burunduk, for the flatter pelts.

Love's Embers "Revelations of a Wife"

By Adele Garrison

Dicky Voices His Objection to Madge's Tutoring.

I WAS so astonished at Dicky's clairvoyance—I could think of no other fitting word—that for a second or two I stared at him, with my amazement written all over my face. He had hit unerringly upon the very thing which Philip Veritzen had planned to do to prevent Eleanor Lincoln that he meant to make a great actress of her, while in reality he intended to put every possible obstacle in her path. I was sure that he was not in the great producer's confidence—the two men were too antagonistic for that. Yet how could he have known this thing?

But I want to have further proof of my husband's keenness of insight. "Oh-ho!" he exclaimed with a swift, keen glance at my astonished face. "So you know all about it—I suppose dear old Phil confided in you, but you're wondering how the devil I got it. Well, just keep on wondering, old dear, it's a good mental exercise. But just now I'm waiting for the rest of the beans you started to dish. Where do you come in in this double-crossing scheme of Phil's?"

"In this offensive manner of questioning does not deserve an answer," I told him icily. "But I will give you one, nevertheless. Mr. Veritzen told Miss Lincoln that the first requisite of her work would be a thorough knowledge of the history of the drama, and he naturally suggested me, the head of his research department, as the person in his organization best fitted to teach her. He has relieved me of other duties in order to give me time for the work. She is not a very satisfactory pupil, however, and after her second lesson today, I told her we would have no more until next Tuesday. That will give her ample time not only to prepare her lesson but to give you the hours you need for your sketches of her."

Dicky gave another short, sneering laugh. "Always the devoted wife with my interests at heart, aren't you?" he said. "Well, for so much consideration I thank you. But that isn't the main question. When I consented to this fool scheme of yours for going into Veritzen's organization as his Grand High Panjandrum of historical lore, I didn't agree that you should take on a side line of being a nursery governess for his proteges and I won't have it."

He struck his fist against the chair back in emphasis, and I saw that in his usual fashion he was working himself up to a display of temper which he thought might be effective in gaining his point. I waited for several seconds before I answered him, looking at him steadily the while. Then I spoke slowly, frigidly.

"I think I must have misunderstood you. Did I hear you say 'when I consented to this scheme'?" He reddened angrily but stood his ground.

"That's what I said," he answered sulkily.

"Then I am sure your memory is at fault," I said. "I have no recollection whatever of asking your consent to this work."

"You know very well you couldn't have denied it unless I had consented," he shouted.

I permitted myself a wintry smile at him.

"Dear me! what an antiquated caveman you are!" I exclaimed. "But permit me to set you right. I not only could have done it without your consent, but I did act on my own initiative in the matter. And—I hate to be discourteous, but you really force me to it—I shall continue to exercise that prerogative."

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

By Blanche Silver

A Good Cure for Crossness.

"O H, dear me," grumbled

Dicky, as he awakened

one morning and found it raining. "If there's one thing I do hate, it's a nasty old rainy weather.

I can't play outdoors and I can't play in the house." He fussed all the time he was dressing and grumbled all his way downstairs.

His breakfast was cold and the day was started all wrong for Dicky

Boy. He was the most unhappy little fellow in all the neighborhood.

When his Mama asked him to run down to the shed after some wood with which to build a fire in the fireplace, Dicky grumbled again. He liked the warm fire and he hated to go after the wood.

"I just hate this creepy old weather," he grumbled as he stooped to pick up a stick. Out from under it peeked a funny little head and Dicky almost dropped his wood in astonishment. "Why, Happy Giggles, what in the world are you doing out here in the wood pile?"

"Waiting for you to come after the wood," replied the wee elfin, his eyes flashing twinkling. "I knew you'd need a fire this morning, so I just waited here for you. What's all the grumbling about, anyway?"

"Oh, this horrid old weather," grumbled Dicky. "I hate it. I can't see what it's good for, anyway."

"Maybe you can't," laughed the elfin, "but there are a good many folks who can enjoy it, so shake off your gloomy blanket, rub up your glasses and—"

"Get out, Happy Giggles," said

Dicky, laughing for the first time,

"you know I don't wear glasses."

"That's what you say," replied the elfin. "Why, right now you're looking through smoked ones or else wouldn't be so cross and ugly. Why don't you know, Dicky," and he led

Dicky over to the tub under the pump; "look down in that water."

Dicky glanced down in the tub of water and sure enough he was wearing great big dark colored glasses.

But when he tried to locate them on his own face they weren't there.

"Phaw, they're not real glasses, understand, only make-believe ones.

You can't take them off, unless you whistle and laugh, then they'll disappear."

"Then I'll do it," laughed Dicky.

"For I'm sure you in the ones reflected in the tub. I don't know why

I always get up cross on a rainy day."

"That's the trouble," said the elfin.

"I know and I'll tell you. This morning when you awakened you put out your left foot first. That's wrong, Dicky. When you open your eyes of a morning, quick as a wink, stick out your right foot and let it touch the floor first. Then before the left one comes down to the floor say, "That's what you say," replied the elfin. "Any way, try it after this and always say what I told you to and you won't be looking through gloomy glasses."

Before Dicky could even thank the wee elfin, he disappeared.

"Nothing for me to do now but to take off those gloomy glasses,"

Dicky mused and he began to whistle and hum. He gathered up his wood and not only took it into the house but built the fire himself, and after he had finished he ran to look in the tub and sure enough the gloomy glasses had disappeared.

"I'll bet I'll never get out of bed left foot first again," he said and I guess he never did, for he is the happiest little boy in the world.

Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Copyright, 1928,

The Circleville Herald

A Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established in 1883, and The Daily Union Herald, Established in 1884.

PUBLISHED EVENINGS EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY

ARTHUR A. HOOPINGARNER, PRESIDENT
NORMAN W. RALSTON
EDITOR AND GENERAL MANAGER
LEE E. DIMOND, MANAGING EDITOR
KARL G. HERRMANN, ADVERTISING MANAGER
HARRY E. WEILL, CIRCULATION MANAGER

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, as Second Class Matter

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Mail—$4 for One Year; $2.25 for Six Months;
$1.25 for Three Months; 50c for One Month.
Delivered by Carrier—15 Cents a Week; $6 a Year Paid in Advance

BIBLE THOUGHT

THE HAPPY—Happy is that people, that is in such a case; yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord.—Psalm 144:15.

PRAYER—O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth.

Eating 80 Pancakes

A young man in a middle western city the other day entered on a griddle cake eating contest with a friend. The two sat at a lunch counter and began an endurance eating contest. The winner eventually stowed away some 80 buckwheat cakes.

All of which is very trivial and repellent. Yet there was a certain fitness in the food selected. The griddle cake, especially the buckwheat cake, has always been the food of gargantuan eaters.

The buckwheat cake was born on the farm, and the city chap has little business eating it. It was not meant for the office worker it was not born to be pushed over the restaurant counter in groups of three, with thin, synthetic syrup to accompany it.

Ah, no! The buckwheat cakes belong in the farm kitchen, where three or four husky men need inner fortification for a hard day's work in the open air. It should be served in bulk; one has not eaten buckwheat cakes until one begins on the seventh or eighth. It needs real maple syrup, dark and thick. One should have worked for an hour or two in the open air before coming to the table.

Thus, we repeat; the young man doubtless made rather a spectacle of himself, but his judgment was sound when he chose buckwheat cakes for his spree. Buckwheat cakes were invented for two-handed, hearty eaters.

Our Income Tax.

The federal government again calls on our citizens to make returns of their income, and once again this more or less perplexing job is before all who are fortunate enough to have incomes such as to call for this report.

There are still some people who regard the calling for such a return, and the levying of such a tax, as an intrusion of the federal government into a strictly private subject. They claim that if they pay taxes to their state and local government, that is all that can be asked, and that the federal government should raise what money it needs by customs duties and various excise taxes.

But most Americans have become reconciled to the income tax idea, and they feel it is the fairest way to raise the money that must be had. We still owe a vast debt of $18,000,000,000, incurred for fighting the World war. We are under heavy obligations to the soldiers of that war, and must for many years pay out great sums in care for the disabled, pensions, etc. The ordinary ways of raising such funds do not suffice.

The income tax theory holds that people should pay this cost in proportion to their wealth. Those of small means are not assessed at all. Those of moderate amounts have to pay small amounts that they will not miss. Those who have large means or great wealth can easily afford to pay the amounts asked, without curtailing any of their privileges, pleasures, or luxuries.

When people have had large success, they owe much to the government that has protected them and their property, and has encouraged and promoted enterprise and prosperity. It should be a pleasure to people of large wealth, to make a handsome contribution to their government, as a return for all the benefits they have received.

Meeting Competition.

It is exasperating to retail store people, when they see folks buying stuff out of town that could be had for the same or less money at home. Still, instead of growling too much about it, the best way to meet that competition is to imitate the methods in use in the places that draw his trade.

The alert business man makes it a point quite frequently to take a tour around to the stores in larger cities, to see how they do things. He will not usually find goods any cheaper, but he may get ideas that would be helpful in his own business. New methods in display and arrangement are a help in keeping the trade in the home stores where it belongs.

"I guess he is not very religious, said Ragson Tatters in speaking of a First ward man. 'Anyhow his pants always wear out at the seat instead of at the knees.—Fostoria, O., Times.

Jack Dempsey says his eyesight isn't so defective he will quit the ring. He can still see the denominations on Uncle Sam's currency.—Youngstown, O., Vindicator.

The political situation in both parties today is full of live wires and has to be handled with gloves by the wire pullers.—Zanesville, O., Signal.

The American people can't tell when a law is unconstitutional, but they know when a boxer violates the fighting rules.

The child or the older generation used to read fairy stories—Nowadays they expect to live them.—Bellefontaine, O., Examiner.

Higher education in this country is seriously threatened. The supply of coon-skins is running short.—East Liverpool, O., Review Tribune.

By now, recipients of Christmas gifts are able to get back to their own brands of tobacco, and are feeling better.—East Liverpool, O., Review.

The RAMBLER

By NORMAN W. RALSTON

THE MUSICIAN

SITTIN'
There and playin'
Songs of other
Years,

While his soul
Is prayin'
To erase
The tears,

Corner-town musician,
Entertainin' folk,
Bent and worn
Magician—

Life seems such a
Joke—
Not a beggar, people,
Life to him

A dream,
Sittin' on a steeple,
Livin' on Life's
Cream,

That's his starry
Vision,
That's his hope
And prayer,

But Fate's cruel
Decision
Brought him only
Care;

Singin' quaint songs
Olden,
On his corner seat,
Life to him

Is golden
'Til his dreams
Retreat—
Beggar? You're Mistaken,

He's a dreamer prince,
Though his soul
Was shaken
He refused to Wince—

And what we mean to say
Is,
Fate hands all a Tumble,

More or less, I've Found,
If you start to grumble
You're a-lostin'

Ground;
Be you happy, fellow,
Take your jolts,
And grin,
And when life is mellow,
You are bound
To win.

It isn't what you lose in life, it's the way you lose it that counts.

HE STAYS AT HOME NOW

Mary had a little lamb,
So they all relate,
But now the modern Mary's lamb
Cannot stay up so late.

Now they'll probably say when he dies: "He only had two more installments to make and he'd owned it."

We often get up in the morning feeling like our coal bill that hasn't been paid.

A PAINFUL SUBJECT

Says Norm Ralston: "No one needs to pull for a dentist. He's got a good pull himself."
Yes, and we'll add that while we like most people to pull for us, it sure hurts us when that bird does.

—Sam Hill in Cincinnati Enquirer.
When he's pulling we have to go right along with him, Sam.

The only objection to a submarine or an airplane seems to be the fact that when the old bus refuses to hit on all cylinders you can't get out and walk.

A girl looks so comfortable when she gets her legs firmly crossed that we always wonder why she crosses them the other way almost immediately, says Bob Ryder.

You're prying into a woman's privilege, Bob.

The most sensible man in the world sometimes feels like he'd like to be happy, and hence not sensible.

Just about the time we memorize all the laws we have along comes another legislature and passes some new ones. Why don't they try repealing some of those we already have?

The world moves on about the same. Only they call it "necking" now instead of "spooning."

TODAY'S BEST STORY

"So your wife has completely lost her appetite?"
"Yes, she doesn't even want to eat the things the doctor forbids her."—Selected by G. O. S. H. from The Pathfinder.

CIRCLEVILLE 25 YEARS AGO

Feb. 9, 1903.

The stock of J. F. Daymon was sold this morning at public sale. Charles Steinberger bought the stock for $450 and the fixtures for $62.27.

O. D. Mader's spoon sale was a decided success—every package was disposed of.

Each person should get 10 cents worth of camphor, carry it in their pocket or around their neck in a cheese cloth bag as a preventative against small pox.

The grocery of F. R. Leist of Kingston was broken into last night and a large amount of goods taken. I. A. Jones' blood hounds were taken to the scene in hopes of catching the thieves who were unknown.

When a Man Loves

By ALLIE LOWE MILES

Copyright 1927, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
John Barrymore in "WHEN A MAN LOVES" is a Warner Bros. Picture

SYNOPSIS

Fabien, good and handsome youth of France, trains for the priesthood; but meets and loves Monon Lesoul, beautiful orphan, whose rascally brother, realizing her worldly value, barbers her to Ravoir, rich connoisseur of women. Fabien saves her and carries her off to Paris, where they live happily together. Monon's brother steals her for Ravoir. Circumstances force her to surrender to Ravoir. Fabien, thinking her perfidious, returns to his studies. On the eve of his ordination Monon confronts him and pleads for his love.

CHAPTER XIV—Continued

"Monon, can you promise that you would never leave me again?" Fabien searched her eyes.

"Darling—I know—I swear it!" her eyes answered his.

The agitation and tumult that her nearness kindled in Fabien thrilled him with a kind of horror that made him experience the vague sense of being carried into a new existence.

That is exactly what was happening and it came about with such power that he could no longer resist the call. As Monon's fragrant nearness broke down his last spark of resistance, Fabien gathered her hungrily into his starved arms and strained her to him in a strong passionate embrace. His lips found hers and held them for a wonderful moment of complete forgetfulness.

The reunited lovers were called from themselves by the chiming bells in the great Cathedral tower.

"My dear, do you hear?" questioned Fabien happily. Their ringing means my freedom, and yours?" He gathered Monon to him again for a brief ecstatic embrace, then removed his cassock and left it on the ground—the only part of him that was to remain within the narrow confines of the cloister walls.

To be together was all they asked, and since holding Monon in his arms Fabien had not had a moment's doubt about the wisdom of again relinquishing his vows for her.

With one arm about Monon's shoulders, Fabien led her out into the world.

They agreed that their present and future happiness was secure beyond the reach of Fate or the interference of man; and so with one arm about Monon's slim shoulders Fabien led her out into the world.

Where? They neither knew nor cared. Just what awaited them did not matter so long as they had each other.

CHAPTER XV

Love with all its resulting pleasures is a wonderful thing, but unfortunately cannot be enjoyed for very long without enough money to insure food and shelter.

Fabien's hasty and unpremeditated departure from St. Sulpice did not leave time to think of money, and when he wanted to return for his purse Monon would not consider it. She feared complications and dreaded the thought of losing him again even for a moment. Anyway, the content of the purse would not have lasted long, for Fabien demanded nothing in the way of worldly goods while at St. Sulpice, and naturally his finances were never large. Now, however, money was as essential to their future as the food their bodies required.

Monon had salvaged enough from the odious but profitable days with the Comte De Ravoir to take care of them for some time. Of course she offered no immediate aid as a solution to their problem and was surprised when Fabien rebelled at the abhorrent idea.

It took only a little explaining on Fabien's part to make her understand why they could not exist on the Comte's past generosity. Monon acceded to his wishes very gracefully; in fact, nothing mattered now that they were together with the past all explained and buried away. She assigned herself unreservedly to Fabien's care and instinctively knew that in some way he would provide everything her heart desired.

FRENCH AVIATOR TO TOUR COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(UP)—Lieut. Dieudonne Costes and Lieut. Commander Joseph Le Brix disclosed today they were planning to make a trans-continental good-will air tour from New York to San Francisco, stopping at all major cities enroute.

The French Trans-Atlantic fliers, who arrived here yesterday from Montgomery, Ala., said their itinerary would be arranged here in conference with the French ambassador.

Read the Classified Ads.

Fabien was even more sure of this than Monon. He had lost her once because he was so absorbed in dreams of love that he ignored the material. Now he planned to provide for her even more lavishly than had the Comte, so that no odious comparison would ever make Monon unhappy or cause him to fall in her estimation as a man and provider.

The only means at hand was for Fabien to draw on his father and he did it with a heavy hand because he knew that after his parent had been notified a second call for funds would be refused.

To satisfy Monon's love for pleasure it seemed important that they should reside in Paris. She found a beautiful place that she wanted, consequently Fabien took it and they established themselves in gorgeous style with utter disregard for expense; nor did they take time from love making to think where more money would come from when their dwindling supply was exhausted.

They were enjoying a dream, and money never matters in dreams; so why should they have worried? Besides, all dreams end soon enough. It is stupid to attempt control, just give yourself up completely to the temporary oblivion and make the best of the rude awakening.

The flying weeks added a new radiance to love. Monon grew so sweet in her unceasing attentions to Fabien that he felt fully rewarded for his past troubles and changed plans. Her passion for jewelry and beautiful gowns went hand in hand with her love for amusement and she soon discovered that Fabien gratified every whim.

Smart new friends became frequent visitors at the Des Greux household. It happened that many of the same people who witnessed the dramatic scene between Fabien and Monon at the Gambling Club, annexed themselves to the host of friends and admirers. Strangely enough, one of the most faithful from this group was Nana. It may have been because she found Monon's salon the best place in Paris to meet interesting men, but we will give her credit for a flare of real friendship and add for good measure that she no longer treasure a grudge against Fabien—instead she openly admired him and would have given her soul to hold the place in his affections that Monon occupied. She openly and secretly when occasion permitted, angled for his attention and her efforts were so untiring that Fabien often had to make excuses to get away from her.

Monon's boudoir was lovely beyond compare. Panelled walls of soft rose colored satin matched the exquisite hangings. All of her toilet articles were of crystal and gold, a gift from Fabien that made her lavish caresses on him for a whole hour. Abundant payment.

The bed was charming, but not more so than its occupant as the brightness from the mid-day sun filtered through the windows and shone brightly upon Monon as she sat there, basking with silken pillows, enjoying her breakfast chocolate, while Fabien, who had been up for hours, came in to watch her.

"Your hair is so soft and lovely," said Fabien, tenderly patting the mass of golden ringlets spread over the pill upon Monon as she sat there, basking with silken pillows, enjoying her breakfast chocolate, while Fabien, who had been up for hours, came in to watch her.

"I like you much better this way than in a formal wig. It reminds me of our first night in the attic room when I saw you asleep."

Fabien buried his face in Monon's curls and as her sweetness took possession of his senses he kissed her many times—while she pillowed his head upon her breast and bowed her head in adorable submission.

A knock at the door warned them that it was time for Monon's day to begin. Late night hours made it advisable for her to remain abed until noon and Fabien always came in to wake her and remain until the maid arrived to draw her bath.

By the time the door opened, Fabien was way cut in the middle of the room talking casually with Monon as she, just as casually, finished her chocolate. It was a little game of hoax they always enjoyed. Although it concealed nothing for the simple reason that the maid was—Marie—the wise gossip loving slavey from the pension. It had been another whim of Monon's to engage her as personal maid and costume her in all the neatness of a pretty uniform. Marie arose to the occasion grandly and watched over her adored mistress as jealously as a devoted watch dog. The new surroundings also gave her hungry soul a feast and she found the large servants' hall an amazing place for scandal.

"Messieurs the Abbe Martineau and the Duke D'Eaufort—Madenok selle Nana—and the hairdressers are waiting to see Madam." Marie made her announcement very stiffly, while now and then she cast a grim look at Fabien. Now she did not like him because she was forced to change her opinion about his appearance and his wealth.

(To be continued.)

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

(U. P.)—
FEB. 9, 1918
German newspapers hail sinking of the U. S. troop ship Tuscania by a U-boat torpedo as promising to have beneficial "psychological effect" for Germany.

Ground glass is found in candy at Camp Dix, N. J.; reports say incident is part of a plot of an enemy alien.

Central Powers sign a peace treaty with the Ukraine, ignoring Soviet Russia.

Some of the greatest thinkers," says a writer, "have been mystics."

Another example of the failure of writers to agree: "I say no really great thinker was ever a mystic."

MAMA'S BOY

The Epic of the Air "WE" By Charles A. Lindbergh

CHAPTER XXVII

AT New York we checked over the plane, engine and instruments, which required several short flights over the field.

When the plane was completely inspected and ready for the trans-Atlantic flight, there were dense fogs reported along the coast and over Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, in addition to a storm area over the North Atlantic.

On the morning of May 19th, a light rain was falling and the sky was overcast. Weather reports from land stations and ships along the great circle course were unfavorable and there was apparently no prospect of taking off for Paris for several days at least. In the morning I visited the Wright plant at Paterson, New Jersey, and had planned to attend a theater performance in New York that evening.

But at about six o'clock I received a special report from the New York Weather Bureau. A high pressure area over the entire

HOWE ABOUT?

By ED. W. HOWE

© Bell Syndicate WNU Service

When people are about to rebel, there is ample warning. The czar of Russia might have known rebellion was threatening and avoided it. The Communists had ample warning of the rebellion of the Fascists. The boy who "acts smart" in company, and is whooped and disgraced by his mother, has ample warning through her frowns; he should have behaved better. Lightning never strikes out of a clear sky; the gathering storm always gives warning. Every wife who rebels, every husband who gives a long notice of the probability of rebellion. The French threatened it many generations before their Reign of Terror. When people grumble and protest they are thinking of rebellion, and liable to soon become unmanageable.

I rarely find opportunity to say a kind word for my sex, therefore I welcome a statement that chorus men are the best on the stage. Chorus girls have been responsible for almost as many scandals as there are chorus women, but chorus men it is declared by a keen New York observer, are decent, quiet and well mannered.

Maeterlinck regrets that nature did not devote half its genius to some important thing instead of so much to things that seem trifling. Some of the most mysterious and marvelous processes of nature are devoted to causing harm instead of preventing it.

The interest we take in existence must grapple not with what might have been, but with what is.—Maeterlinck. (An old, old truth, but people will never learn it, so it is useless to print it again.)

An ancient philosopher, expounding his conviction that life is no better than death, was asked by a disciple why, then, he did not die. "Because," he replied, "death is no better than life."

"Some of the greatest thinkers," says a writer, "have been mystics."

Another example of the failure of writers to agree: "I say no really great thinker was ever a mystic."

The haze soon cleared and from Cape Cod through the southern half of Nova Scotia the weather

North Atlantic and low pressure over Nova Scotia and Newfoundland was receding. It was apparent that the prospects of the fog clearing up were as good as I might expect for some time to come. The North Atlantic should be clear with only local storms on the coast of Europe.

The moon had just passed full and the percentage of days with fog over Newfoundland and the Grand Banks was increasing so that there seemed to be no advantage in waiting longer.

We went to Curtiss Field as quickly as possible and made arrangements for the barograph to be sealed and installed, and for the plane to be serviced and checked.

We decided partially to fill the fuel tanks in the hangar before towing the ship on a truck to Roosevelt Field, which adjoins Curtiss Field on the east, where the servicing would be completed.

I left the responsibility for conditioning the plane in the hands of men on the field, while I went into the hotel for about two and one-half hours of rest; but at the hotel there were several more details which had to be completed, and I was unable to get any sleep that night.

I returned to the field before daybreak on the morning of the 20th. A light rain was falling, which continued until almost dawn. Consequently we did not move the ship to Roosevelt Field until much later than we had planned, and the takeoff was delayed from daybreak until nearly 8 o'clock.

At dawn the shower had passed, although the sky was overcast, and occasionally there would be some slight precipitation. The tail of the plane was lashed to a truck and escorted by a number of motorcycle police. The slow trip from Curtiss to Roosevelt Field was begun.

The ship was placed at the extreme west end of the field, heading along the east and west runway, and the final fueling commenced.

About 7:40 a. m., the motor was started and at 7:52 I took off on the flight for Paris.

The field was a little soft due to the rain during the night and the heavily loaded plane gathered speed slowly. After passing the half-way mark, however, it was apparent that I would be able to clear the obstructions at the end.

I passed over a tractor by about fifteen feet and a telephone line by about twenty, with a fair reserve of flying speed. I believe that the ship would have taken off from a hard field with at least five hundred pounds more weight.

I turned slightly to the right to avoid some high trees on a hill directly ahead, but by the time I had gone a few hundred yards I had sufficient altitude to clear all obstructions and throttle the engine down to 1750 R. P. M.

I took up a compass course at once and soon reached Long Island Sound where the Curtiss Oriole with its photographer, which had been escorting me, turned back.

The haze soon cleared and from Cape Cod through the southern half of Nova Scotia the weather and visibility were excellent. I was flying very low, sometimes as close as ten feet from the trees and water.

On the three hundred mile stretch of water between Cape Cod and Nova Scotia I passed within view of numerous fishing vessels.

The northern part of Nova Scotia contained a number of storm areas and several times I flew through cloudbursts.

As I neared the northern coast snow appeared in patches on the ground and far to the eastward the coastline was covered with fog.

For many miles between Nova Scotia and Newfoundland the ocean was covered with caked ice but as I approached the coast the ice disappeared entirely and I saw several ships in this area.

I had taken up a course for St. Johns, which is south of the great Circle from New York to Paris, so that there would be no question of the fact that I passed Newfoundland in case I was forced down in the north Atlantic.

I passed over numerous icebergs after leaving St. Johns, but saw no ships except near the coast.

Darkness set in about 8:15 New York time and a thin, low fog formed through which the white bergs showed up with surprising clearness. This fog became thicker and increased in height until, within two hours, I was just skimming the top of storm clouds at about ten thousand feet. Even at this altitude there was a thick haze, through which only the stars directly overhead could be seen.

There was no moon and it was very dark. The tops of some of the storm clouds were several thousand feet above me, and at one time, when I attempted to fly through one of the larger clouds sleet started to collect on my plane and I was forced to turn around and get back into clear air immediately and then fly around any clouds which I could not get over.

The moon appeared on the horizon after about two hours of darkness; then the flying was much less complicated.

Dawn came at about 1 a. m., New York time, and the temperature had risen until there was practically no remaining danger of sleet.

Shortly after sunrise the clouds became more broken, although some of them were far above me, and it was often necessary to fly through them, navigating by instruments only.

As the sun became higher, holes appeared in the fog. Through one the open water was visible and I dropped down until less than a hundred feet above the waves. There was a strong wind blowing from the northwest and the ocean was covered with white caps.

After a few miles of fairly clear weather the ceiling lowered to zero, and for nearly two hours I flew entirely blind through the fog at an altitude of about 1,500 feet. Then the fog raised and the water was visible again.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow).
Copyright 1927 by Charles A. Lindbergh

READ THE WANT ADS.

IN SOCIETY

MISS ALLISON DELAPLAINE, SOCIETY EDITOR

Valentine Party
The Royal Neighbors will have a valentine party following their regular meeting, Thursday evening, at the rooms of the Modern Woodmen of America. The lunch and entertainment committee who will have charge of the function will be Mrs. Edwin Grimm, Mrs. Ellen Root, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Young, Mrs. John Lane and Mrs. N. O. Fry.

To Have Covered Dish Luncheon
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, will meet in the social rooms Friday at 12:30 for a covered dish luncheon. The program for the afternoon, which will be on the American Indian, will consist of a review of Charles Eastman's book, "From Deep Woods to Civilization," by Mrs. Emil S. Toensmeier, and a talk by Miss Bertha Bowers on the topic "The American Indian." Also, Mrs. Reeder, now of Columbus, who has lately returned from missionary work in China, will speak on conditions in that country.

Miss Steele Wins
Miss Eula Steele was the prize winner when her bridge club met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Helen Pickens.

Dr. Howard Jones to Speak
The Business and Professional Women's Club will have their bi-monthly business meeting Thursday evening in the Chamber of Commerce room at 7:30 o'clock. The business meeting will precede a talk by Dr. Howard Jones, on "The American Indian."

Guest at Ashville
Mrs. Roy Bousher entertained at bridge at her home in Ashville, Thursday, Mrs. E. J. Rife, of Circleville, was one of the guests.

Entertains with Dinner Dance
Miss Martha Bartley, of West High Street, who has just returned from California, was the honor guest at a small dinner dance given by Miss Evelyn Steele at Tuesday evening. The decorations used were red and white, for Valentine's day. There were eight couples for dinner and dancing which followed.

To Entertain Bridge Club
Mrs. Max Friedman has asked the members of her bridge club to meet at her home on East Mill street, Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Guest at Club Wins
Mrs. Charles Gilmore entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening, and a substitute, Mrs. Lloyd Jones had high score.

Lecture at High School
The lecture Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium was poorly attended because of many other conflicting entertainments on the same night. Mr. Martindale represented the Rainbow Tours Co. of Columbus, and The Union Pacific Railway. He talked of life in the Yellowstone National Park—of how he and other rangers patrol the territory searching for wounded animals in need of help. He described the experiences of the rangers and how they live in cabins on the borders of the national reserves, twenty miles apart from each other. The colored slides were beautiful, and there were also some very interesting moving pictures shown. The audience was made up mostly of children.

Birthday Party
Miss Cleo E. Bowman was surprised Monday evening, when a number of friends gathered at her home in Washington township, to remind her of her eighteenth birthday, bringing with them many beautiful presents. The evening was delightfully spent in music and games, after which they enjoyed an old fashioned taffy pulling. The guest list included: Misses Mary and Agnes Frazier, Marvene Leist, Dorothy and Garnet Davis, Mattie Hanley, Cathrine Leist and Leona Bowman. Messrs. Ralph Betz, Russell Leist, Ernest Young, Loring Leist, Robert Godchild, Donald Leist, Theodore Davis, Howard Leist, Arthur Leist, Orville Jones, Ray Leist and Willison Leist. Also, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leist and sons Robert and Gerald, and daughter, Betty.

POLICE SEARCH FOR OHIO MASON

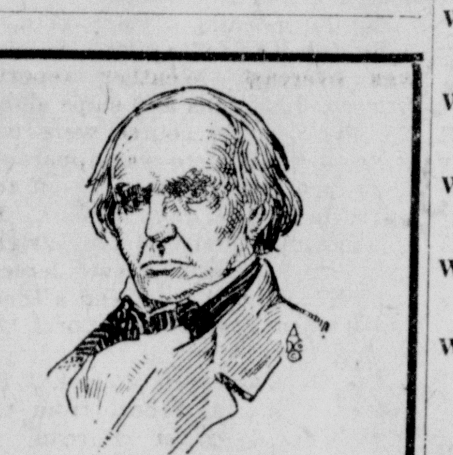

STUEBENVILLE, O., Feb. 9—(UP)—Authorities today were still undecided as to the cause of the sudden disappearance of Harry Platt, 57, wholesale grocer and prominent Mason.

Platt was last seen Monday by his wife. First indication of his absence was in a note in which he told his wife "he loved her too much to worry her with financial difficulties."

EXONERATED IN CONTEMPT CASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9—(INS)—Sheldon Clark, vice president of the Sinclair Refining company, was exonerated of the charge of contempt of court growing out of jury surveillance in the Fall-Sinclair mistrial today, when Justice Siddons sustained a motion of Clark's counsel to dismiss the rule against him.

CONN IS ENDORSED
Van Wert, O., Feb. 9—(INS)—Endorsement of Harry L. Conn, of Van Wert, former justice of the state insurance department, as a democratic nominee for governor, was announced here today by the Van Wert County Democratic Executive and Central Committees.

DANIEL WEBSTER
"There are those blind to the truth who claim to see it; there are those who pretend ignorance of the truth who plainly see it."

WE are of great service to those who like finesse without gross display and who wish for a dignity that is real.

W. H. ALBAUGH CO.
FUNERAL SERVICE
Opposite Court House
Phone 25 Circleville, O.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thomas and little daughter Barbara, of Columbus, were guests of Miss Allison Delaplane on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Van Vliet will hear Ignace Paderewski in his concert at Memorial hall, Thursday evening.

Theodore Kach of Jackson township motored to Columbus, Jan. 31, where he attended the farmers' week at Ohio State University for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pontius and family of Thatcher were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Johnson of Westerville, who lived near Circleville about 15 years ago.

There have many friends here who will be grieved to know that Mrs. Johnson has not recovered from an automobile wreck which occurred a year ago in October. One arm was so severely crushed that it had to be amputated, but not until the poison had gone through her entire system, causing a severe case of arthritis from which she can never recover.

Eldridge Bonhart, of Harlowton, Montana, spent Tuesday with Dr. O. H. Dunton and family.

Loring Lutz and Bundy Hendricks were visitors at the Automobile show in Columbus, Tuesday.

Mrs. Hildeburn Jones, Miss Eleanor Jones, Mrs. Dale Kitzmiller, Burne Jones and Bobby Fickardt attended the afternoon performance of Thurston at the Hartman theater in Columbus, Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Holman is employed in the office of the Keener-Strandberg Dry Cleaning establishment on East Main street.

Mrs. Joseph Stanton and Mrs. Beal Thomas of Columbus were guests Wednesday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

Groom, on South Washington street.

Mr. C. K. Howard, the retired shoe merchant, was a business visitor in Columbus Thursday.

Mrs. Gilbert Starkey is employed temporarily at the Ohio Utilities Company.

Miss Hulda Seyfert is visiting friends in Dayton.

Mr. Edgar Friedman stopped in Circleville Thursday morning on his way to Cincinnati.

Miss Abbe Mills Clarke, Miss Maxine Stevenson and Miss Helen Schiear will attend the concert at Memorial Hall in Columbus, Thursday evening.

A public concert will be given in the colored Baptist church at 8 o'clock Friday night by the Kentucky Harmony Singers, five colored songsters who are managed by Mrs. Louise Malone Braxton, who claims the distinction of being the only female bass singer in the world.

There will be no charge for the concert, which will be given under the auspices of the Housewife Training School of Fulton, Ky.

The Kentucky Singers are widely known, having sung in all the principal cities, and having broadcast from 27 of the largest radio stations. Their program here will feature negro spirituals and southern melodies.

Mrs. Braxton is a graduate of the Tuskegee Institute which was founded by Booker T. Washington. She is the daughter of an Indian mother, and until she entered the southern school at the age of 15, she could speak only Indian language and no English.

Mrs. Braxton will sing "Asleep in the Deep," during the program Friday Thursday night the singers will give a program at the Presbyterian church in Kingston.

Wall Paper, Books, and Magazines, Score Pads, Placecards and Valentines.

55-11. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

BOY LOSES HIS LEG FOLLOWING INJURY

Marving Orihood 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Orihood, of New Holland, who was injured by being struck by a school truck in front of his home two or three weeks ago, underwent an operation at Mercy hospital, Columbus, this week for removal of the right leg below the knee.

The leg had been badly broken when the truck passed over the leg, and infection developed, making an operation imperative to save his life.

The lad is now recovering as rapidly as possible, it is indicated.

SETTLE CHAPLIN CASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9—(INS)—The famous Charlie Chaplin income tax case, said to involve near-

METROPOLITAN

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Heaven On Earth

with RENEE ADOREE and CONRAD NAGEL

FRIDAY DOROTHY GISH

in "MADAME POMPADOUR" with ANTONIO MORENO

Matinee Friday 2 p. m. Doors Open 1:45.

CONGRESS TODAY

By UNITED PRESS SENATE

Resumes debate on LaFollette Anti-third term resolution. Banking and currency committee starts hearings on LaFollette measure to prohibit federal reserve bank loans to speculators.

Patents committee continues hearings on Dill Radio patents bill.

HOUSE Continues consideration of war appropriation bill.

Agriculture committee continues farm relief hearings.

ly $1,000,000 has been finally settled, it was learned at the Treasury today. The Bureau of Internal Revenue declined to reveal the terms of the compromise agreement.

MRS. RALSTON OF KINGSTON 'S DEAD

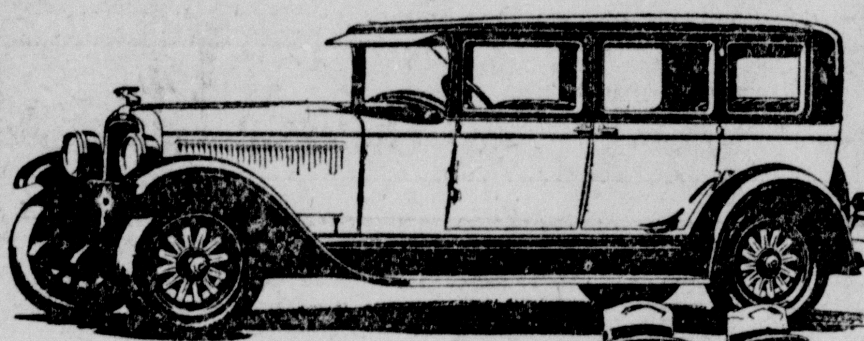

Mrs. Burman Ralston, of Kingston died at the City hospital in Chillicothe Wednesday. She is survived by her husband and two children, Ellen and John.

BANDITS ROB WOMAN

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9—(UP)—After binding and gagging Mrs. Glenna Gardner, 26, two bandits last night threw acid on the woman's face, robbed her of $23 and escaped. Mrs. Gardner's face and neck were badly burned.

TAXI SERVICE

Mrs. Edward Van Winkle Phone 1115.

Let Local Owners Tell You!

Your personal friends. Or passing acquaintances. Some of them own the All-American Six. Ask them their candid opinions. Learn what they think of the car... Ask them about the big, smooth engine with its GMR cylinder head. About the riding comfort and handling ease resulting from All-American engineering combined with the mastery of Fisher body construction and design... Ask them if they're glad they bought it. Whether or not they think the car deserves its thrilling success... Of course we know what they'll answer. What they'll advise you to do. And we're eager to have you get the truth in a manner you won't forget.

PRICES: 2-Door Sedan, $1045; Landau Coupe, $1045; Sport Roadster, $1075; 4-Door Sedan, $1145; Cabriolet, $1155; Landau Sedan, $1265

New Series Pontiac Six, $745 to $875. All prices at factory. Delivered prices include minimum handling charges. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

Special Sport Equipment Available on all body types. special front fenders with tire wells... six wire wheels with tires... rings... collapsible trunk rack... $100 extra on open cars... $110 on closed cars... six disc wheels with same equipment, $75 on open cars... $85 on closed models.

L. M. SALTER, INC.
Circleville, Ohio 146 W. Main St.

OAKLAND ALL-AMERICAN SIX
PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

You Need A Suit And Overcoat!

Dress up in a new Suit and Overcoat during the cold days that are yet to come. The style, leadership, high quality fabrics and supreme tailoring—are always found in Joseph's clothing.

Suits and Overcoats at Sale Prices

JOSEPH'S
109 W. Main St.

Tonight's Radio Program

THURSDAY
WJZ—New York—6:00 Orch. 7:30 Correct Time; 7:00 Marine Band; 8:30 Mixed Quartet; 9:00 Music; 9:00 Maxwell House Hour; 10:00 Continentals; 11:00 Music.

WEAF—New York—6:00 Dinner Music; 8:00 Dodge Bros.; 8:30 Hoover Sentinels; 9:00 Clickquot Club Eskimos; 10:00 Smith Bros.; 10:00 Statlers Pennsylvanians.

WHAM—Rochester—6:45 Orch; 8:30 Ampico Hour; 10:00 Studio Prog.

WBAL—Baltimore—6:00 Sandman Circle; 6:30 Orch; 8:00 String Quartet; 10:00 Band.

WGHP—Detroit—6:00 Dinner Concert; 7:00 Lady Moon; 8:00 Organ; 10:00 Arcadians.

WGN—Chicago—6:35 Concert and String Music; 7:30 Concert 8:00 Clickquot Club.

WOR—Newark—6:00 Radio

FRIDAY
WJZ—New York—6:00 Orch; 7:00 Lombardy Orch; 8:00 Concert; 8:30 Concert; 9:00 Wrigley Review; 10:00 Time; 10:00 Victor Hour; 10:30 Slumber Music.

WEAF—New York—6:00 Dinner Music; 7:00 Orch; 8:00 Concert; 9:00 Correct Time; 9:30 La-France Orch; 10:00 Palmolive Hour; 11:00 Ben Bernice and His Orch.

WBAL—Baltimore—6:00 Sandman Circle; 6:30 Orch; 8:00 Quartet; 8:30 Concert.

WAIU—Columbus—6:00 Orch; 6:30 Orch; 8:00 Trio; 9:00 True Story; 10:00 Capt. Kidd.

WWJ—Detroit—6:00 Dinner Music; 7:00 "Michigan Night," 8:00 Orch.

WHAM—Rochester—7:30 Castoria Rock-a-Bye Lady; 9:00 9:00 Wrigley Prog; 10:00 Victor.

WGHP—Detroit—6:00 Organ; 6:40 Orch; 7:00 Lady oMon; 9:00 Columbia Chain Prog.

WE are of great service to those who like finesse without gross display and who wish for a dignity that is real.

W. H. ALBAUGH CO.
FUNERAL SERVICE
Opposite Court House
Phone 25 Circleville, O.

We've Resolved to Sell You a Suit in 1928

This advertisement is for the man who has been getting along without Kuppenheimer clothing.

We know it can be done—because you've been doing it. But we know too that you'll be a better man in these famous garments than you are out of them—so we're going to try our might and main to bring out the best that's in you by bringing you in.

$35 to $50

H. B. COLWELL

Our Loss -- Your Gain

We must make room for new SPRING MERCHANDISE which is arriving daily. Cost has been forgotten, former prices slashed, quality always the best. It's a small matter to quote a lot of comparative prices, we only ask your consideration of style and quality. Our prices, quality considered, are always RIGHT.

Our buyers are leaving for the markets and we can use CASH. We are always glad to have you come in and look around even if you are not ready to buy.

Friedman's
Where Women Go to Shop

Founder's Week
NOW — AS THEN
BETTER FOODS AT LOWER PRICES

CRISPY CRACKERS 2 lb. 25c pkg.

-- SALMON --
FANCY ALASKA tall can 29c
ALASKA tall can 15c

BUTTER, Brook's Pride lb. 54c
8 O'CLOCK COFFEE lb 35c
RAISINS SEEDED—SEEDLESS 25c 2 pkgs.

DEL MONE PEAS 2 cans 29c
EARLY GARDEN SUGAR

Baked Beans A & P 2 No. 2 cans 15c
CORN Iona 2 cans 25c
PEAS Iona 2 cans 25c

RINSO ELIMINATES RUBBING 21c Large Size

CIGARETTES Camels — Chesterfields 25c
Old Golds—Luckies 2 Packs

BREAD VIENNA 1 lb. loaf 8c
DAIRY-MAID, 1 1/2 lb loaf 9c
RAISIN 1 lb. loaf 8c
Full pound loaf 6c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

CAPTURED! HER HEART.

A Valentine gift of flowers touches a woman's heart more than a costlier gift. Their fragrance, delicacy and sentiment speak to her of YOU and your thoughtfulness of her.

Flowers telegraphed anywhere.

MITCHELL FLORIST
814 N. Court St. Phone 44

RUMOR VIOLENCE PLANNED FOR ROGERS HORNSBY

CHICAGO GANG SEEKS REVENGE ON NOTED STAR

New Member of Braves Is Warned That Gamblers May Try to Incapacitate Him.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Rogers Hornsby might do well to surround himself with plenty of hired biceps and avoid all dark alleys, starting May 17 and for the next three days thereafter, when he will be visiting Chicago for the first time as a member of the Boston Braves, the writer was informed today. Over the circuitous "grape vine" of the gambling profession the tip came that certain men in Chicago claim they had to "take the slap" for part of Hornsby's race track "investments" with Frank Moore and that they are out to get the ball player the first time he crosses the line into Cook county.

Sinister threats of "taking him for a ride" accompanied the tip, in the argot of gangdom, this means a shooting, mostly fatal, and frankly I don't believe anything of the kind will happen. Rival gunmen may take each other on these sightseeing trips and the community is that much better for the incident. But nothing serious could happen to Hornsby, a national figure, without a terrific kick-back upon those involved and the boys are never for anything like that.

Injury Preferred

However, I am given to understand that they would like very much to "gang" him and that if, in the midst of the general excitement, Hornsby suffered injuries that might impair his worth as a ball player, the gamblers would consider the incident closed and the books neatly balanced. At least one bet is supposed to have been made that Hornsby won't finish the season with the Braves.

According to the story, the trouble began when Moore is said to have found Hornsby's commissions a little too heavy to handle and, therefore, laid part of them

Noted Writer And Sportsman Will Give Talk At Elks Club

James W. Stuber Will Address Gathering of Hunters and Farmers Here.

James W. Stuber, well known sportsman, outdoor writer and secretary of the League of Ohio Sportsmen, will speak at the Elks home in Circleville, Thursday night at 7 o'clock, when sportsmen, farmers and businessmen will assemble to organize a Fish and Game Protective Association.

Mr. Stuber, who is a big game hunter, and chief of the editorial staff of Sportsman's Digest, one of the leading outdoor magazines, will exhibit several reels of realistic motion pictures of fishing in Canadian waters for bass, salmon and trout, taking the audience on a fishing trip in the movies.

There will be no charge for admission, as Mr. Stuber comes through courtesy of the League of Ohio Sportsmen.

JAMES W. STUBER

NORTHWESTERN LOSES TO ILLINOIS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 9.—(I. N. S.)—Northwestern university found itself down in third place in big ten basketball standings today as a result of yielding to Illinois here last night, 32 to 20.

The game proved one of the biggest upsets on the current season. Because of ineligibilities and injuries, the Illini were scarcely conceded a chance to win against the Wildcats.

Illinois grabbed an early lead, setting the pace at the half, 17 to 12. Mills, How and Cann were the nucleus of a smooth-working combination that kept the purple cagers baffled throughout.

Many Breeds of Rabbits

There are 18 breeds of domestic rabbits recognized by the National Rabbit Federation as being distinctive in type. In some instances there are several varieties of a breed, alike in size and type, but with a wide range in color variation. These breeds and varieties are divided into two separate classes, or groups, known as "utility" and "fancy."

Mixture of Languages

The name applied to the natives of Guam is Chamorros. The Chamorro dialect spoken in Guam is a polyglot mixture of Spanish, Malay, Yagui Indian lingo and various Polynesian tongues.

BRIGGS TEAM WILL MEET C. A. C. FIVE

The basketball team sponsored by Bryce Briggs, Pickaway county auditor, will provide the opposition for the C. A. C. basketball team at the gym Thursday night. The Briggs team is composed of New Holland and Clarksburg players, several of whom are Ohio State university students. They have had a fine record this season, and are expected to give the athletic club boys a run for their money.

TRACK RECORD IS MADE BY HAHN

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 9.—(I. N. S.)—Lloyd Hahn, the Boston A. A. speed king, who is expected to be one of America's aces in the coming Olympic games, has won nine straight victories this season. Conceding handicaps ranging up to twenty-five yards, he set a new track record of 2 minutes, 15.1 seconds for 1,000 yards in beating six rivals at the Newark A. C. games here last night.

William Warden, of the New York A. C., finished second, ten yards behind the flying Nebraskan.

Miss Catherine Donovan broke her own indoor record of 2:39.2-5 by winning the 800 meters event for women in 2:36.3-5.

Excellent Rule

Accusations are like stones—they can be picked up anywhere and hurled by any hand, however soiled. Why not follow the formula of the man who recently said, "I have made it a fixed rule never to utter anything derogatory to another's reputation?"

Nugget of Wisdom

A friend may well be reckoned the masterpiece of nature.

Cornhusker Lads Bring Sport Fame To Nebraska; To Be Olympic Asset

By DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—"Yes" said the lioness, "but it's a lion," when asked by the fox if it wasn't true that she spawned only one cub.

That also seems to be the case of the sovereign State of Nebraska. It may not breed as many athletes as the more thickly populated centers like New York and California but most of its products are good and it really is surprising how many of them are national standouts or maybe it is stands-out, as long as you have my guard down. Offhand, the names of Joe Stecher, Ed Weir, Glenn Presnell, Ace Hudkins, Stiner, Roland Locke, Fait Elkins and the two Mucans, Monte and Wayne, come to mind as examples of Nebraska contributions to our national sport history. Such a volume, in fact, hardly would be complete without these names and if Cy Sherman, the Lincoln oracle didn't write it, even these would fail to endow it with complete adequacy.

They Come and Go

For more than thirty years, man and boy, Cy has seen them come and go on the plains of his native heath and, with pardonable pride through strict impartiality, he has recorded the happenings for Cornhusker posterity. He saw Joe Stecher become the world's greatest wrestler with his dead scissors. He watched Ed Weir develop into the greatest football tackle of his era, saw Stiner become an acceptable successor and Glenn Presnell come along to national greatness as a backfield man last year.

Gazing pensively but alertly from the press stand, he watched Locke race to record after record in the sprints several years ago and take the play away from Charley Paddock. The Muncies likewise went forth to national consideration under his benign gaze and last year he was there when Fait Elkins, the noble redman, broke the American record for the decathlon.

Therefore, when Mr. Sherman cares to elaborate a bit on the subject of a Nebraska product, one may do well to lend an attentive ear. His discourse, addressed to the writer, deals with the matter of Ace Hudkins who apparently is en route to the world's welterweight championship. It throws an interesting light upon the character of this Neanderthal man, who is the Battling Nelson of his time. Mr. Sherman's epistle concludes with some information about Locke and Elkins, by way of emphasis and for good measure.

"The Hudkins boys," he writes, "told me that Sammy Baker has no stomach for another whirl at Ace; that he goes muttering into the night at the mention of this 'wildcat' fellow. A terrific body beating, says Brother Art Hudkins, cured Sammy of the desire to again take on the wildcat."

A Busy Fighter

"This Hudkins boy was a busy alley fighter while growing up as a kid in Lincoln. Later, he took to the rascaling thin gin Y. M. C. A. circles, but the battle lust was in his blood and I saw him wear padded mittens in his first professional engagement, in which he lost the decision in a four-round preliminary. He is quite unlearned, but the boy has one thing to his credit, to wit: He takes good care of his mother, having bought and established her in a new home in one of Lincoln's latest residence additions, and she is taking life easy and enjoying the comforts that the boy's money will buy.

"Ace is a bundle of tremendous energy when he lets loose in a ring. He generally takes two or three to sock once, but that once lugs a heap of power and punishment. I shall be surprised if he does not climb to the peak of the welterweight heap.

"Roland Locke, former University of Nebraska sprinter, and Fait 'Chief' Elkins, Indian student at the university here who won the decathlon at the A. A. U. national meet last July in Lincoln, will be showing up in New York soon to start training for the Olympic team. I understand that both have arranged to get employment there. Both have undergone recent tonsil operations and they may take to the training business slowly, but if Locke ever regains his sprinting form of the spring of 1926, he'll be a great addition to the U. S. Olympic team. It may impress you as being quite incredible, but it nevertheless is the fact that I saw Locke run the last furlong of a half-mile relay race in under 20 seconds. That was the day he lowered the world's record for the 220-yard dash.

"Time only can decide if Locke regains his running form and physical condition of two years ago but if the breaks are in his favor I predict he will be showing the east a marvelous pair of heels this coming spring and summer season."

Beet Sugar

In the year 1747 a German scientist discovered the sugar properties of the beet, but it was not until about 1810 that the production of sugar from the beet was seriously considered in a commercial way. In 1889 the beet sugar industry was introduced into the United States.

Many Contract Rabies

Horses, sheep, goats, hogs, chickens and animals of prey such as wolves, foxes, badgers and martens also contract rabies when bitten by rabid animals, and behave quite similar to rabid dogs, cattle and cats.

WELSH IS SIGNED

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The New York giants have received the signed contract of outfielder Jimmy Welsh, obtained from the Boston Braves in the Rogers Hornsby deal.

ROYAL PALM

15th Consecutive Year over the Pioneer Route to Florida.

All-Year--Daily

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 7:30 AM (R) 8:30 AM
Ar. Jacksonville 7:20 AM
Ar. West Palm Beach 4:20 PM
Ar. Miami 6:20 PM
Ar. Tampa 2:30 PM
Ar. Sarasota 7:15 PM
Ar. St. Petersburg 6:00 PM

PONCE DE LEON

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 7:05 PM (R) 8:05 PM
Ar. Jacksonville 8:10 PM
Ar. West Palm Beach 5:20 AM
Ar. Miami 7:20 AM
Ar. Ft. Myers 11:15 AM

Suwanee River Special

Lv. Cincinnati (T) 9:40 PM (R) 10:40 PM
Ar. Tampa 6:05 AM
Ar. St. Petersburg 8:20 AM
Ar. Bradenton 8:32 AM
Ar. Sarasota 9:10 AM
Ar. Venice 10:20 AM

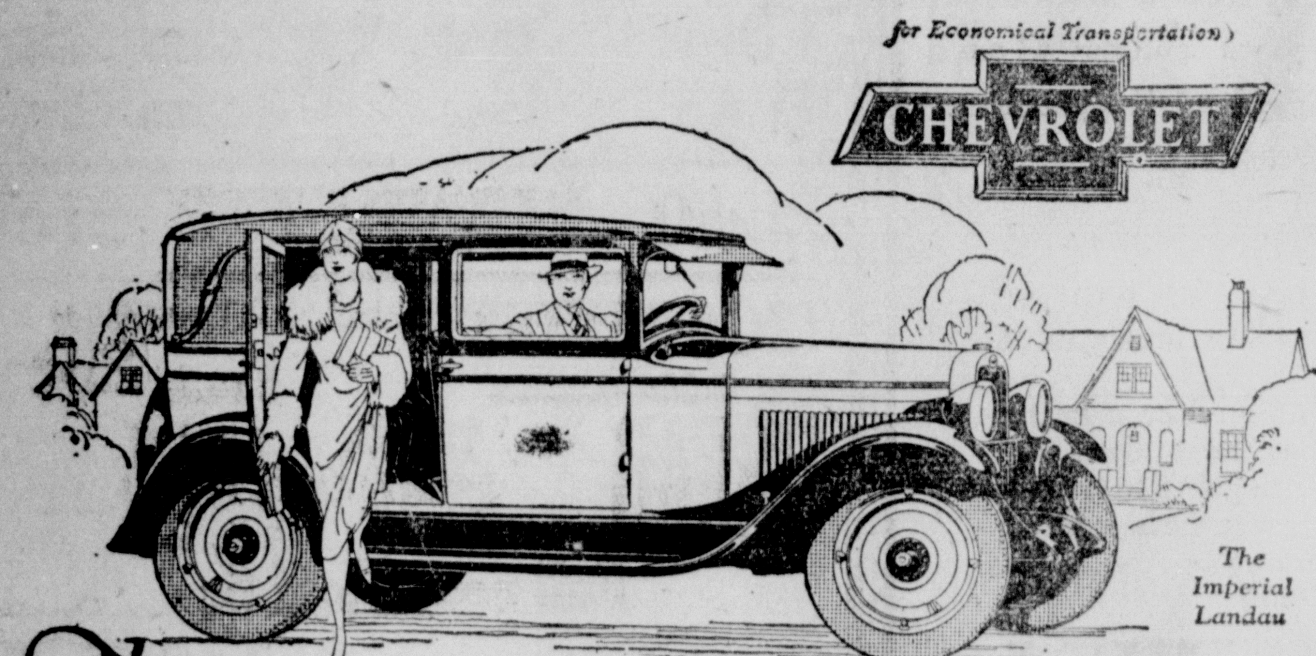

Sleeping Cars and Coaches on All-Year Royal Palm, Ponce de Leon and Suwanee River Special. Dining Cars Serving All Meals.

Ask about the Overland route over the Overseas Railway and Key West to Havana, Cuba.

MARDI Gras, New Orleans, February 16-21, 1928. GRAS! Send for free booklet.

For further information and sleeping car reservations, address: G. C. ROBERTSON, Dist. Passenger Agent, 119 Dixie Terminal Arcade, Cincinnati, O.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

The World's Most Luxurious Low Priced Car

The longest wheelbase ever offered in a low-priced car! The riding ease of four semi-elliptic shock-absorber springs set parallel to the frame. The beauty and comfort of marvelous new Fisher bodies! The safety of non-locking four-wheel brakes! And the thrilling performance of an improved valve-in-head motor!

Here, for the first time in the history of the automotive industry, is a low-priced car that embodies all the distinguished beauty and features of advanced design demanded in the world's highest priced automobiles.

Come in and see it today. Note the beauty, the symmetry and the roominess of the beautiful new Fisher bodies. Study the chassis, unit by unit—and observe the advanced engineering... the high quality construction throughout. Go for a drive—as far as you like, and over roads of your own selection.

Do that—and like tens of thousands of others, you will say that here is the most luxurious low-priced car ever offered!

Reduced Prices!

The Touring or Roadster $495
The Coach $585
The Coupe $595
The 4-Door Sedan $675
The Sport Cabriolet $665
The Imperial Landau $715
Utility Truck (Chassis Only) $495
Light Delivery (Chassis Only) $375
All prices f.o.b. Flint, Mich.
Check Chevrolet Delivered Prices
They include the lowest handling and financing charges available.

Geo. H. Adkins

ATLANTA

CIRCLEVILLE

QUALITY AT LOW COST

The sum-total of pipe-joy

IF YOU could take an adding-machine and set down all the qualities you demand in a pipe-tobacco, such as fragrance, coolness, mildness, satisfaction, when you pulled the lever, the total would read: "Prince Albert." You can prove it with a pipe and a tin of P. A.

Throw back the hinged lid and revel in that aroma of the world's most popular pipe-tobacco. Put a load into the bowl of your pipe and light up. Draw that cool, refreshing smoke deep down and exhale slowly. That's

Prince Albert! That's living! You'll go to it from breakfast to bedtime.

Prince Albert leads all other brands in sales, because it leads in satisfaction. The word "satisfaction" has worn a little thin from much use, but a pipe and P. A. give it an entirely new meaning. You'll say so on your very first pipe-load, and you'll be a Prince Alberteer after that!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

This tin contains TWO full ounces of what it takes to make a man smoke-happy.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

1 Cent a Word Each Insertion

Phone 782.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: — POSTS LOCUST and chestnut, delivered right. William Tatman, Laurelville, O. 43-154.

FOR SALE: — TWO GOOD COAL stoves. Inquire The Herald office. 53-11.

FOR SALE: — ONE YEAR'S SUB-scription to The Circleville Herald. Subscribe now. 53-31.

FOR SALE: — TWO HORSE power A. C. motor, 60 cycle single phase, 110 or 220 volt; recently rebuilt. Inquire of F. L. Tipton at the Herald office. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — AT ROCK-BOT-tom prices to get rid of them, two good coal stoves. Inquire at The Circleville Herald office. 54-21.

FOR SALE: — SEVERAL TYPE cases. Inquire The Herald office. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — BUNDLES OF OLD newspapers. Inquire The Herald office. 54-31.

SPECIAL FOR SALE: — THIRTY-four (34) Junior Floor, Boudoir, Desk, Stand and Radio Lamps at 25 per cent reduction for the next few days. Priced from $2.44 to $21.90. Wonderful bargains in Lamps. Ohio Utilities Co. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — REED BABY CAR-riage. Call 790, Warner Dress-bach. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — HIGH GRADE Dahlia bulbs; over 60 varieties, at a bargain while they last. M. E. Van Riper, 432 E. Mill street, Circleville, O. Phone 1050. 54-11.

FOR SALE HOME FROCKS: —Regular and extra sizes, washable prints in bright clear spring colors, carefully made, contrasting colored binding, self trim, kick pleats, side pleats, and many other details that women appreciate. Sizes 34 to 40, $1.00; sizes 42 to 50, $1.25. Call Mrs. Roby. Phone 380. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — GAS HEATING stove. Reasonable. A-1 condition. Phone 380. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — FINE SAWED flag stones, cheap. Phone 180. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — MEAT GRINDER Enterprise. No. 22, in good condition, $3.50. Call after 5 p. m., at 309 E. Mill St. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — 3 COMFORTERS made by Ladies of Bible Class of Presbyterian church. Call 94, Miss Clara Southward. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — HALF SACK CON-crete Mixer on truck, in good condition cheap. John Neff, 134 E. Union St. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — BARLEY FOR seed. Call 6451. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — CARMAN POT-atoes 5 bu. for $6.00 in 5 bu. lots. A. C. Wilkes. Phone 990. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — 1 GAS STOVE; 1 9x12 Axminster Rug. Mrs. Fred Donnelly, 127 Pinkney St. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — TWO COATS AND three silk dresses. Phone 388 or inquire 158½ West Main St. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — A LARGE STOCK of floor, bridge and table lamps at a discount of 25 to 50%. Sale ends Feb. 18. Mason Bros. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — CUSTOM HATCH-ing $6.00 per tray, 160 eggs. Harry Lane 445 Half Ave, Circleville, O. Phone 1110. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — HOME ESTATE gas range. Inquire 365 East Main St. Phone 219. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — TO MY CIRCLE-ville friends. When in Columbus try our famous roast pork sandwiches with a bottle of Blatz. Open Sundays. H. H. Palm, 1947 E. Main St. Columbus, O. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — SPIRILLA THE world's best corset. Miss Ella Blacker, 230 E. Main St., Circleville, O. Phone 414. 54-31x.

FOR SALE: — SIX ROOM HOUSE with bath. Inquire 409 North Court street. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — SADDLE HORSE A real saddle for stock man or young man. Inquire W. H. Pontius 133 Pinkney St. Phone 663. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — CHAIRS, IRON backs and legs, 9 new and 6 not so new, chairs suitable for ice cream parlor or restaurant; new $2.00 each; not so new $1.00 each; 2 tables $5.00 each. John J. Mack, 112 N. Court St. Fruit and Candy Store. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — 60 EGG BUCK-eye incubator. Call 584. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — USED AND RE-conditioned sewing machines. White, Rotary and Singer. Call Mr. Mutschman at 594. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — PONTIAC Sports Roadster—new model, repossessed, fully equipped. Had excellent care, out only 59 days. At almost half price. Call at 116½

West Main street or phone 138 for demonstration. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — ONE BED ROOM suite, old-fashioned bureau and four kitchen chairs; 234 Watt St. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — FRESH FISH blue pike and pickerel. J. B. Voll Washington and Franklin Sts. 54-21.

FOR SALE: — A TWO STORY frame dwelling with bath, furnace and garage at the right price for quick sale; 6 room frame dwelling with bath, close up town; two story frame dwelling with bath, furnace and garage suitable for a double, close to car line; A new modern frame double, with 2 car garage on a paved street. For further information, see CIRCLE REALTY CO., Rooms 3 and 4 Masonic Temple. Phone 234. 54-11.

FOR SALE: — ELECTRICAL AP-pliances of all kinds. Twenty-five per cent off on all lamps for a few days only. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — BABY CAR-riage. Phone 318 or 135 W. High street. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — WE HAVE LIST-ed Carbaugh's Meat, Fish and Produce market. Sixty thousand dollar business last year. A going business. Studer & Fred, Chillicothe, O. 55-41x.

FOR SALE: — PRIMULAS IN full bloom at Little Walnut St. Greenhouse. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — ONE BELLE CITY 140 egg incubator nearly new; 1 breeding pen of Black Jersey Giants consisting of one rooster, 2 hens and 4 pullets. If interested call 780 or better see them at 939 South Washington St. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — ANTIQUE BRASS sconces. Apply at 221 South Scioto street or Call 1079. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — BOY'S ALL WOOL suit and overcoat, good as new. Phone 927. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — SPRING MILLIN-ery at Aronson's Millinery Shop, 125 E. Main St. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — MAGAZINES COL-lector's, Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan, Hunter's, Traders and Trappers, True Story and World Almanac. John J. Mack, N. Court St. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — 1 MOSLER SAFE, 1 check-a-graph, 1 oak cupboard with glass doors, 1 writing desk, 1 refrigerator, white enameled 100 lbs. ice. Call 1350. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — HOME MADE Candy, Chocolate Peppermint, Winter Green, Cream Caramels and Peanut Brittle. Florence Danton. 55-31.

FOR SALE: — ASSORTED IRIS bulbs. Mrs. Geo. Pressler, 127 Pinkney St. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — APRONS, PLAIN and fancy, fashioned from beautiful tub fast prints trimmed in colorful bindings. Mrs. Fred Donnelly, 127 Pinkney street. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — DESIRABLE BUS-iness block. Any one interested write box 152 Circleville. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — ONE ONE HORSE wagon. H. M. Gordon. Phone 297. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — NEW TIRE AND tube 30x3½, $5. Gordon Tire Shop, 432 E. Mount St. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — BOUDOIR LAMPS $3.00 value $1.59. At Mason Bros. Stock Reducing Sale. 55-11.

FOR SALE: — BRIDGE LAMPS $9 to $12.50 values special at $5.98. Maion Bros. Stock Reducing Sale. 55-11.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT: — 4 AND 5 ROOM houses, centrally located. Inquire Aronson's Millinery Shop, 125 E. Main Street. 52-31x.

FURNISHED ROOMS — SUITE furnished rooms for rent. Call 1153. 45-11.

FOR RENT: — A DESIRABLE modern apartment in a desirable location. Inquire Circle Realty Co., Phone 234. 54-11.

FOR RENT: — FURNISHED room, 142 East Mill St. 54-11.

GARAGE FOR RENT: — CEMENT block building, centrally located, near business district. $3.50 a month, apply at this office call for Harry E. Weill. 54-11.

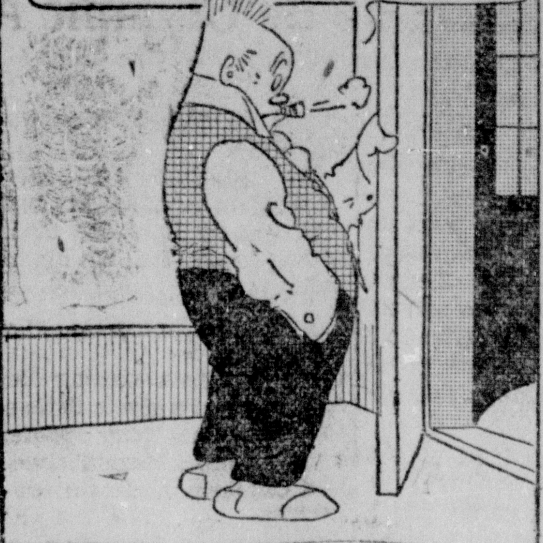

FOR RENT: — TWO OFFICE rooms; steam heat, hardwood floors, newly decorated, over Circleville Motors Co. Inquire of Elmer Clifton at Circleville Motors Co., for particulars. 54-11.

FOR RENT: — 2 UNFURNISHED rooms, 1st floor, At 371 East Main Street. 54-11.

FOR RENT: — 3 ROOM HOUSE, gas, electricity, bath, hot and cold water, furnace, large lot containing fruit and shade trees which have been treated; 3 car garage

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GOLLY-I'VE NOTICED LATELY THAT BELINDA IS ALWAYS IN A GOOD HUMOR.

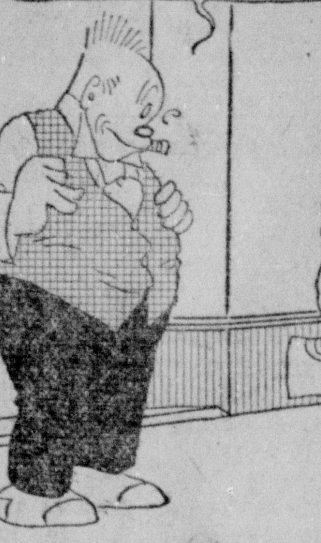

YOU SEEM TO BE HAPPY THESE DAYS—DON'T YOU AND YOUR HUSBAND QUARREL ANY MORE? YOU USED TO BE ALWAYS QUARRELIN—

NO—MORE—

TELL ME—HOW DID YOU ARRANGE IT?

DIDN'T YOU HEAR ABOUT IT?

HE DIED—

"JUST KIDS"

HURRY UP AND SAY YOUR PRAYERS—I'M COMING UP TO TURN OUT THE LIGHT

—AN' PEANUT MARTIN AN' FATSO—DOLAN AN' BAG EARS TROOPE—AN' MISTER BRANNER AN' MISSUS BRANNER AN' THE LITTLE BRANNERS—AN' NICODEMUS O'MALLEY AN' MARY JONES AN' TOM MIX—AN' MISTER LINDBERGH—AMEN!

I MUST SAY THAT I AM VERY MUCH SURPRISED AT MY APPLE—DUMPLING—YOU MENTIONED ALMOST EVERYBODY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD IN YOUR PRAYERS—AND YOU FORGOT YOUR OWN MOTHER?

I DIDN'T THINK YOU NEEDED PRAYIN' FOR—MOM?

HITT AND RUNN

By Hitt

DO YOU KNOW WHY—

Some Guys Are Always In A Pickle Like This?

By Fisher

INTERNATIONAL CARTOON CO., N. Y. 224

YOU NEVER SEE MEN WITH SUCH FOULISH SCENERY WRAPPED AROUND THEM

IS THAT A MASQUERADE?

THIS LOOKS LIKE A NOOBER

laboring work of any kind. Phone 704. 54-11.

WANTED TO RENT: — TWO OR three rooms furnished apartment for around two months. Inquire The Herald office. 54-31.

WANTED: — SEVERAL REGU-lar lady boarders. Call telephone 847. 54-11.

WANTED: — 1000 CIRCLEVILLE housewives to buy a Circleville product—Wallace's Twin—Loaf Bread, at your Grocer. 54-11.

WANTED: — PLAIN SEWING or care of children by the hour. Inquire 108½ South Court St. Phone 558. 54-11.

WANTED: — EMPLOYMENT Lady, experienced in cooking and dining room work, would like to get employment in a restaurant or will work in a grocery or Department store. Address G, in care of Herald office. 54-11.

WANTED: — THREE IMMEDI-ate buyers for VOSS Floto-Plane Washing Machines to get a $3.00 Clothes Basket FREE with each Washer. Only three left. 55-11.

WANTED: — ONE HUNDRED buyers for the Big Six Electric Iron (guaranteed for life) for $4.99 to get a Little Six Boudoir Iron for 1c with each Big Six Iron. 55-11.

WANTED: — WAGON AND plow repairing. Morshauser and Eaton, rear 139 E. Corwin street. 55-11.

WANTED: — A THOUSAND more people to take The Circleville Herald. 53-31.

WANTED: — WASHINGS, IN-quire Mrs. Chas. Emerine 640 Maplewood avenue. Phone 1084. 54-11.

WANTED: — TO BUY GOOD brown leghorn rooster. Call 1073. 11

WANTED: — GENERAL HOUSE or restaurant work; phone 520. Mrs. Cora Miller. 54-11.

WANTED: — WASHINGS, HAND work. Mrs. M. Griffey, 618 S. Scioto Street. 54-11.

WANTED: — WASHINGS AND ironings to do at home. Will call for and deliver. Call 1037. 54-11

WANTED: — EMPLOYMENT trees to trim or take out, cisterns to clean or dig; vaults to clean or hood of men come. Members bring someone with you. S. C. Grant, President. 55-11.

NOTICE Division A and B of the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will give a market at A. Ganser Cleaners, 114 West Main street, Saturday, Feb. 11, at 10 o'clock. 55-21.

LEGAL NOTICES

SHERIFF'S SALE OF CHATTEL PROPERTY COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO. The First National Bank Circleville, Plaintiff. Case Nos. 8365 and 8364

In pursuance of an Execution issued from the Clerk's office of said Court of Common Pleas of said County on the 23rd day of January, 1928, and to me directed in the above entitled action, I will expose to sale at Public Auction, on the premises of James C. Neal and Bertha Neal in the Township of Monroe in Pickaway County, Ohio, on Tuesday, the 21st day of February, 1928, at 1 o'clock P. M. of said day, the following Goods and Chattels, to-wit:

One Mare 8 years old; one gelding 12 years old; one black cow 3 years old; two fat sows, 400 lbs. each; two hogs 180 lbs. one double set work harness; one Ford touring car model 1925; one John Deere breaking plow, one John Deere riding cultivator, one disc harrow, 125 shocks of corn in field, and 50 head of mixed chickens.

Subject to any prior liens. Taken as the property of James C. Neal et al., to satisfy an execution in favor of The First National Bank Circleville, O.

NOTICE IN BANKRUPTCY In the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of Ohio. No. 6028

IN THE MATTER OF E. A. ALLEN Debtor. E. A. Allen, Bankrupt. BANKRUPT

To the creditors of E. A. Allen of Circleville in the County of Pickaway and district aforesaid, a Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 7th day of February A. D. 1928, the said E. A. Allen was duly adjudicated bankrupt and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of the undersigned, rooms 5 and 6, Masonic Temple, Circleville, Ohio, on the 24th day of February A. D. 1928, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the Bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

HOUSE PAINTING Interior Decorating. Call Chas. H. Myers, 369 East Union St. Phone 550. 25-11.

LATIN AMERICA CUTS IMPORT BILL IN U. S.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 9—(UP)—Latin-American imports from the United States fell off approximately three per cent or $17,000,000 during the first ten months of 1927 as compared with the same period of 1926. Dr. Julius Klein, director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce says in a special report to the American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico City.

During the same period Latin-American exports to the United States declined $68,000,000, about eight per cent. Reasons for the decline, according to Dr. Klein, may be ascribed entirely to a natural deflation in commodity prices and not to any actual decrease in the volume of trade or a change in trend.

Black Blotting Paper By using the blotter that has been applied to a signature, forgers have sometimes fashioned an accurate reproduction of the writing, but with a type of blotter now being employed in banks they will no longer be able to do this, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The blotter is black, so that the ink is completely lost in the color. Besides this advantage, they are not so easily discovered.

Rice Production Although the Orient produces about 97 per cent of the world's rice crop, the United States now grows more than enough to supply its own needs.

Norfolk & Western Railway (Schedule Effective April 3, 1927.) Leave Circleville Eastern Time.

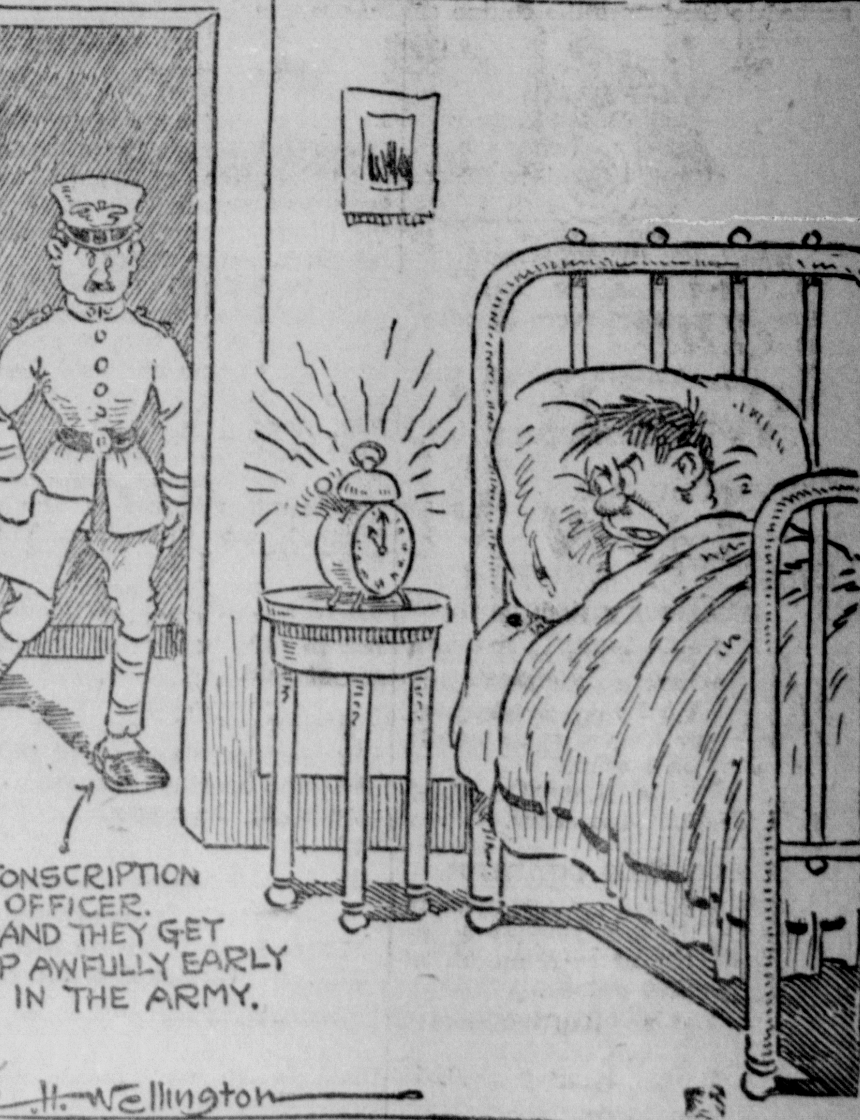

FAST BOUND No. 26 Daily 10:12 A. M. No. 22 Daily 7:12 P. M. No. 24 Daily 11:07 P. M.

WEST BOUND No. 23 Daily 6:42 A. M. No. 22 Daily 9:58 A. M. No. 25 Daily 5:47 P. M.

Fullman sleepers Columbus and Norfolk in trains 23, 24, 25 and 26. Parlor-car (bottle service) trains 22 and 23. Dining car service all through trains.

Inquire Ticket Agent, Circleville, or address C. H. JOHNSON, Asst. Gen'l. Passenger Agent, Columbus, Ohio. JNO. L. BLADON, Gen'l. Passenger Agent, Roanoke, Va.

And the Worst is Yet to Come

CONSCRIPTION OFFICER—AND THEY GET UP AWFULLY EARLY IN THE ARMY.

THE BUCKEYE -- TIME TESTED; SAFE

It Holds in Faithful Trust Over $40,000,000 of the People's Funds

Thousands of people in all parts of Ohio and elsewhere have over forty millions invested in The Buckeye, all yielding 5%.

Certificates of Deposit are issued for large or small amounts. Interest from date, mailed or compounded semi-annually.

Safety of principal and surety of interest are assured by first mortgage loans on real estate, covered by millions of dollars' fire insurance, by paid-in capital $6,000,000; by reserve and surplus $1,792,000, and by insurance and surety bonds $5,400,000, carried at our expense.

Certificates require no renewal and no attention. They are always worth full face value, and money available. Send money by registered letter, check, draft or money order.

The Buckeye State Building and Loan 26 EAST GAY ST. COLUMBUS, O. ESTABLISHED 1895

LAWYER SAYS ACCUSED WAS NOT AT SCENE

(Continued from Page One)

two bullets striking Hill in the left breast, near the heart and their paths crossing in the lower lobe of the left lung. Hill's three companions, it is said, fled and notified Sheriff Frank Davis, who found Hill's body in a nearby ditch, the man having bled to death. Later that night Flint was arrested at the home of Charles Byrd, where the officers found him in bed.

Attorney I. F. Snyder, who, with Attorney Thomas A. Renick, represents Flint, made a brief statement to the jury in which he asserted that instead of being enemies the dead man and Flint had been the best of friends.

Parted As Friends.
Hill owed Flint $7 and he met him in Circleville the afternoon of Nov. 14 and paid him $4 on account, not paying Flint the remainder because he had other debts to meet, according to Attorney Snyder, who said that this settlement had been satisfactory to Flint. It is claimed that the men parted on good terms and that Flint never saw Hill again. The report that Flint was the slayer was started by a man who had been drunk all day and night, the defense says.

Flint, the defense says it will prove, went to the home of Burt Turner for supper that night and went from there to the residence of Charles Byrd where he spent the remainder of the evening until arrested by the county officers. The defense will base its case upon this alibi.

The state has summoned 11 witnesses and the defense has subpoenaed 23. The prosecution expects to conclude its case by Thursday evening. The defense attorneys predict that two days may be required to present their side and it thought probable that the case may not reach the jury until Monday.

Visit Shooting Scene.

When court opened Thursday morning the jurors were taken to the scene of the fatal shooting in charge of Sheriff Frank Davis and his deputies. Upon their return the taking of testimony started.

The first witness called by the state was Roy Myers, deputy county surveyor, who had surveyed the scene of the crime and who prepared a sketch of the scene, which was introduced into the evidence to aid the court in reference to various locations.

Myers was followed by Dr. O. H. Dunton, Pickaway county coroner, who gave his findings in the death of Hill and reported to the jury the result of the inquest he conducted. Dr. D. V. Courtwright, who had conducted the post mortem examination of Hill's body, described to the jurors the course of

Court News

REPLEVIN SUIT FILED

H. Monroe Crites has filed a civil action in the common pleas court against Lewis C. Hammel, a commission broker of Circleville. The plaintiff seeks to recover 120,000 pounds of Alaska seed peas, which he claims were purchased from Charles M. Squier of the firm of James M. Squier and Son by H. Monroe Crites and Herman Shade, doing business under the firm name of H. M. Crites and company.

Mr. Crites is now the sole owner of the firm. He is represented by Booth, Keating, Pomerene and Bulger of Columbus, and Charles Gerhardt of Circleville.

OBTAINS JUDGMENT

George Young has secured a judgment by confession against Milton G. Thomas and others for $707.77 at 6 per cent from Feb. 8, 1928. C. A. Weldon represents the plaintiff.

BANK GETS JUDGMENT

The First National bank of New Holland has secured a judgment by confession against A. H. McCafferty and others for $437.35 at 7 per cent from Feb. 8, 1928. Charles H. May represents the plaintiff.

NAMED ADMINISTRATRIX.
Mrs. Myrtle M. Wolf has been appointed administratrix of the estate of her mother, Mrs. Martha Christy. The estate is estimated to be worth $2,500.

the bullets and how the wounds had caused his death.

Sheriff Takes Stand.
Sheriff Frank Davis was the last witness to take the stand during the morning session of the court. The sheriff told of receiving a report that there was trouble at the camp and that he and Deputy John Ward Jr., went there to investigate.

Arriving, they found a colored man, known by the name of "Jungles," crouched by the camp fire and then discovered the body of Hill lying in the nearby ditch. Sheriff Davis said he turned Hill over and saw the man was dead. After calling the coroner and assisted in getting the body into an ambulance, Sheriff Davis said he returned to the jail.

In a short time, he said, he was told that Flint was the man he wanted and meeting Charles Byrd went with him to the Byrd residence where Flint was found in bed. A search of the house by himself and Deputy Ward failed to disclose any weapon, the sheriff testified.

On cross examination by Attorney Snyder, the sheriff said he had been told by Earl Mallett, colored, that Flint was the slayer of Hill. Sheriff Davis also said that "Jungles," who was arrested, had been released two days later after his presence at the fire had been investigated. The whereabouts of "Jungles" is not known to him, the sheriff said.

FARM LOAN BANK SYSTEM DECRIED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Chaotic conditions in the Farm Loan Bank system were disclosed in the testimony of Eugene Meyer, farm loan commissioner, before the house appropriations committee made public today.

Meyer declared that when he was appointed commissioner and charged with the task of reorganizing the system he found the situation chaotic. The ability of joint-stock land banks to sell their bonds has been decreased by three receiverships and criminal indictments returned at Mankato, Minn., Kansas City, Kans., Kansas City, Mo., and Toledo, as well as by the difficulties that have developed with some of the banks, not in the hands of receivers, Meyer said.

Says Sam: At any rate, companionate marriage ought to save wear and tear on sashweights, picture wire, hammers and table legs.

COLUMBIA RECORDS
Three Records for 57c Saturday. 55-1t. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

Advanced Engineering
40 miles per hour when NEW—62 mile speed later

New American Edition of STUDEBAKER'S ERSKINE SIX $795
G. L. SCHIEAR
115 Watt St. Phone 700

MARKET REPORTS

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET

Eggs, 25c; butter fat, 46c; hens, light, 22c; heavy, 22c; springers, heavy, 22c; light, 22c.

Quotations by the Circleville Produce Company.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET

Wheat, $1.38; new corn, 77c; oats, 45c.

Quotations by the Pickaway Grain Company.

PRODUCE MARKET

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Butter—Prints 53 1-2-54c; tubs 53-53 1-2c. Eggs—White 37-39c; current receipts 33-35c.

Live Poultry—Hens (heavy) 26-27c; hens (light) 20-23c; roosters 16-17c; springers 26-27c; broilers 25-28c; ducks 25-27c; turkeys 40-43c; geese 23-26c.

Vegetables—Tomatoes, $7-7.25; potatoes (Pa.) $3.15-$3.25 (150 lbs.); cabbage $1.35-$1.50 (bbl.).

PRODUCE MARKET

CLEVELAND, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Produce—Butter: 45-50c; firsts 45-46c; packing 28-30c.

Eggs: Extra 35c; extra firsts 34c; firsts 33c.

Oleo: Nut 20-21c; high grade animal oils 27-27 1-2c; lower grades 16-19c.

Cheese: York state new 30-31c. Poultry: Fowls 28-29c; roosters 16-17c; springers 28-29c; ducks 23-25c; geese 20-22c.

Apples: Ohio cold storage Baldwin $2.25-$2.30 bu.; Ben Davis $5 bbl.; Delicious $3 bu.

Cabbage: York state and Ohio $7-$10 a ton; 50-60c half bu. basket.

Potatoes: Home grown $1.15-$1.25 bu.; Minnesota $2.25-$2.50 (120 lb. sack); Ohio and Michigan $2.90-$3.00 (150 lb. bag); Wisconsin $2.75-$2.80 (150 lb. bag).

Sweet Potatoes: Jersey $1.60 a hamper.

Tomatoes: HH $3 half bu. Onions: Ohio white $2.40-$2.50 crate.

Cucumbers: Florida HH $2.50 a dozen.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Hogs—Receipts 36,000; market 10-15c higher; top $8.60; bulk $7.50-$8.50; heavy weight $8.00-$8.30; medium weight $8.25-$8.60; light weight $8.15-$8.60; light lights $7.50-$8.50; packing sows $7.00-$7.60; pigs $7.00-$7.85; holdovers 4,000.

Cattle—Receipts 8,000; market steady; Calves—Receipts 3,000; market steady; Beef Steers—Good and choice $16.00-$18.00; common and medium $9.00-$15.00; yearlings $8.50-$17.50; Butcher Cattle—Heifers $7.00-$13.50; cows $6.75-$11.50; bulls $6.50-$10.50; calves $13.00-$16.50; feeder steers $10.00-$12.50; stocker steers $9.00-$11.50; stocker cows and heifers $6.00-$11.50.

Sheep—Receipts 10,000; market 15-25c higher; medium and choice lambs $15.00-$16.00; culls and common $11.50-$13.50; yearlings $12.00-$13.50; common and choice ewes $5.00-$9.50; feeder lambs $13.50-$15.00.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 9.—Cattle—Supply light; market steady; choice $14.00-$14.35; prime $13.50-$14.00; good $13.25-$13.75; tidy butchers $12.25-$13.00; fair $11.50-$12.25; common $9.00-$10.25; common to good fat bulls $8.50-$9.25; common to good fat cows $5.00-$8.50; heifers $10.00-$11.00; fresh cows and springers $50-$125; veal calves $17.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Supply 200; market steady; good $9; lambs $16. Hogs—Receipts 1800; market active; prime heavy hog $8.40-$8.75; heavy mixed $8.85-$9.00; me-

COLDS THAT DEVELOPE INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent cough and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

ADMIRAL LEAHY

Rear Admiral William D. Leahy is chief of the bureau of ordnance of the United States navy.

diams $9.25-$9.35; extreme heavies $8.40-$8.60; heavy Yorkers $9.20-$9.35; light Yorkers $8.25-$8.50; pigs $7.75-$8.25; roughs $6.75-$7.25; stags $6.75-$7.25.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

TOLEDO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Livestock—Hogs: Receipts 650; market 15-20c higher; heavies $8-$8.25; mediums and mixed $8.50-$8.75; heavy Yorkers $8.60-$8.85; light Yorkers and pigs $7.50-$8.75; roughs $6.50-$7.

Cattle: Steady; calves strong; choice $16-$17. Lambs: steady; choice $15.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—(INS)—Grains opened lower today. Wheat was 1-8 to 3-8c lower. Corn 3-8 to 1-2c lower and oats 1-8c higher to 1-4c lower.

Opening grain quotations: Wheat—March 129 1-8; May 128 7-8 to 129; July 127 1-8 to 1-4. Corn—March 91 3-8 to 5-8; May 93 3-4 to 94; July 94 7-8 to 95.

Oats—March 54 7-8; May 55 3-4; July 52.

For best quality Coal and lowest prices call

H. M. CRITES & CO.
Phone 49 or 63.

DOROTHY GISH IS SPLENDIDLY CAST

Popular Star Has Leading Role In Feature Picture at Metropolitan.

Madame Pompadour once more rules France and the heart of her royal master! History repeats itself and again does Pompadour find herself the center of all eyes. But this time it's on the screen. Dorothy Gish enacts the title role in British National's latest Paramount release "Madame Pompadour."

The picture has arrived at the Metropolitan. "Pompadour" is easily the best of the series which Miss Gish has made under Herbert Wilcox' direction. It combines the beauty of "Neil Gwyn" with the drama of "London" and the animated action of "Tip-Toes." In addition to Mr. Wilcox' splendid touches, the master hand of Supervisor E. A. Dupont may be found creeping in every once in a while. (Dupont will be remembered as the man who made "Variety.") And,

Champ Rotarian Missed 4 Meetings In Fifteen Years

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(INS)—The National Capital presents to the world, the world's greatest Rotarian.

He is George Plitt, 40-year-old Realty Broker. Plitt has missed but four weekly luncheon meetings in fifteen years. He has attended 793 meetings, at which he consumed while credits are being distributed so freely, let's give a little applause to handsome Tony Moreno, the hero; Frances Marion, the scenarist and Cameraman Roy Overbaugh.

approximately 2,000 chicken croquettes. He has paid $79.30 for hat checking, and $1,200 for luncheons. His meeting time aggregates about 3,000 business hours.

"Why did you do it?" Plitt was asked.

"Why not?" he answered good naturedly.

Noise Costs Money

Estimates place the cost of noise in the United States at $10,000,000 a week. The loss is due to inefficiency on the part of workers who can't concentrate in noisy places.

Men's red and blue Handkerchiefs, large size 4 for 35c Saturday. 55-1t. Clark's 5 & 10c Store.

FOR SALE COLUMBUS PROPERTY

One of the best residences on Bryden Road; one of the best residence streets of Columbus. 13-room brick house, hot water heat, sun porches, big front porch; good sized lot, big garage in rear. Holding this house at $25,000; will take half, in a good clear farm. Balance on terms to suit purchaser. Get in touch with us about this.

The Drexel-Elliott Co., 66 E. Broad St., MAIN 3608.

We Buy Eggs

Highest Quality KROGER'S Lowest Prices

Our Motto Service

Coffee

THE FAMOUS BRAND "FRENCH" SANTOS LB. 29c

42c

BUTTER	Four quarter pound cubes	53c
LARD	Absolutely Pure lb.	13½c
OLEO	"Eatmore" Brand lb.	19c

CIGARETTES	FIVE POPULAR BRANDS	2 pkgs. 25c
CARTON $1.23

TOMATOES	Standard No. 2	3 cans	25c
PEAS	Country Club Sifted	can	17c
CORN	Country Club	can	15c

BREAD FRESH DAILY FROM KROGER OVENS
Large 24 oz. Country Club or Twin Loaf, each 9c
Raisin Bread Every Day, lb. loaf 9c
Country Club lb 6c Vienna lb 7c Rye 1½ lb 10c Wheat 8c

APPLES	ROME BEAUTIES	3 lb	25c
--------	---------------	------	-----

GRAPE FRUIT	70 and 80 size	3 for	25c
BANANAS	Ripe Delicious Fruit	3 lbs.	25c

SWEET POTATOES	EXTRA FANCY	6 lbs.	25c
----------------	-------------	--------	-----

HEAD LETTUCE	solid heads	3 for	25c
--------------	-------------	-------	-----

POTATOES	U. S. Grade No. 1	15 lb. peck	37c
----------	-------------------	-------------	-----

ORANGES	FLORIDA'S 288 size	doz.	25c
216 Size, Doz. 39c

PORK LOINS	WHOLE OR HALF	LB.	15c
------------	---------------	-----	-----

FRESH CALLIES	Small Lean Pound	11½c
---------------	------------------	------

CHUCK ROASTS	The Best Cut of Beef	18c
--------------	----------------------	-----

STEAK	TENDER, ROUND	lb.	25c
-------	---------------	-----	-----

PORK SAUSAGE	home made, in bulk	lb.	16c
--------------	--------------------	-----	-----

SPARE RIBS	Country Style	lb.	15c
------------	---------------	-----	-----

NECK BONES	meaty	2 lbs.	15c
------------	-------	--------	-----

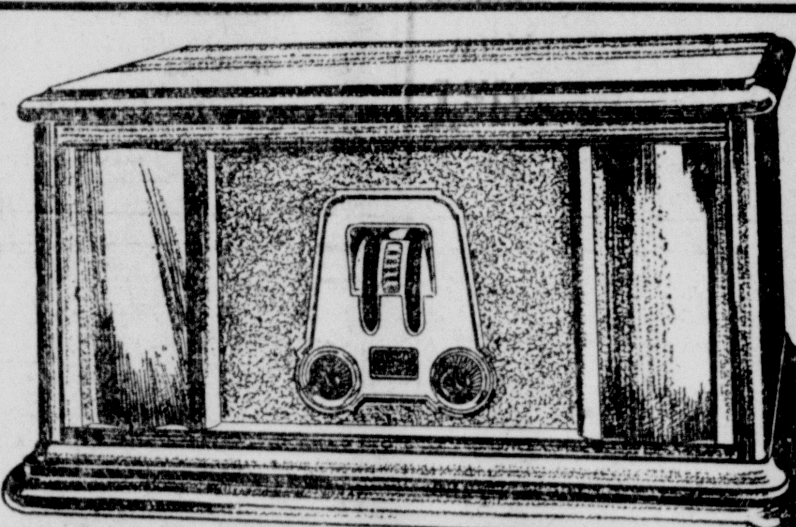

SMOKED CALLIES	MILD CURE	lb.	16c
----------------	-----------	-----	-----

PORK CHOPS	center cuts	lb.	23c
------------	-------------	-----	-----

BACON	sugar cured 3 to 5 lb. pieces	lb.	22c
-------	-------------------------------	-----	-----

COTTAGE CHEESE	rich creamed	lb.	12 1-2c
----------------	--------------	-----	---------

If You Have a Complaint To Make Write Kroger Office, 453 Cleveland Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Freshman

World's Greatest Electric Radio

This Model G-1 is the Freshman Equaphase in a table model. The cabinet is of Genuine Mahogany. Electric ready to operate from your light socket.

Price $81.00

Battery Models as low as $29.50

All sets are guaranteed for 1 year, including tubes, and free service for 1 year.

Pettit Tire & Battery Shop

130 S. Court St. Phone 214

SOW ACTION!---and

REAP A HABIT,

The Habit of Saving.

We pay 6% on Time Deposits.

BRUNSON

SAVINGS and LOAN CO.

Brunson Bank Building 145 North High Street COLUMBUS, OHIO.

This institution is separate and distinct from the BRUNSON BANK & TRUST CO. which accepts checking accounts on its liberal plan.

CIRCLE REALTY CO.
— Licensed Brokers —
W. L. MORRIS,
Secretary and Treasurer
Room 3 and 4
Monroe Temple,
Phone 234.
11 25 1t.